More than one thousand taxpayers in Fairfield have paid their quota to Governor Hampton's Special Agent. The amount collected up to four o'clock, p. m., on Friday, is $3,551.71.

The Supreme Court has still before it the case involving the gubernatorial question. Several witnesses have been examined, and it is hoped that the matter will be settled before many days.

The Register announces that Chief Justice Moses is quite ill, having been stricken with paralysis on the night of Thursday last. His whole left side is paralyzed, and his condition is regarded as quite precarious.

Nobody in South Carolina celebrated Washington's Birthday. President Grant, at the instigation of the lying carpet-bagger who pretends to be governor of South Carolina, forbade such celebration. This is truly a refreshingly free country.

We are requested to announce that there will be a meeting of the Democratic Club of township no. 4, at the Town Hall on Tuesday evening next at 7 1/2 o'clock. This is a most important meeting, and we urge upon the members of the Club a full attendance.

Trial Justices can furnish themselves with the necessary blanks by applying at the office of THE NEWS AND HERALD. A full assortment of these blanks will be kept constantly on hand, or supplied at short notice. Prices low, work good, and satisfaction guaranteed.

The Edgefield Advertiser joins in the suggestion that the Fairfield Sabre Club make application to Governor Hampton to be enlisted as a part of the State militia. We trust the application will be made at once. And it would be well to organize an infantry corps in town and apply to the Governor for commissions for its officers.

Those were labor-loving thieves who stole the grindstones in front of the store of Messrs. McMaster & Brice a few nights since. The stones were chained together, and the thieves must either have cut the chain or have taken off all the stones in a pile. There is as yet no clue to the guilty parties.

There was a wild rumor in Washington to the effect that two of the Commission—Mr. Abbott and Judge Bradley—had voted to count one vote from Oregon for Tilden and two for Hayes—which, of course, would elect Tilden. The Commission then adjourned, before completing the count. This may be true—and it may not.
