Always on Hand—B. Su genheimer & Co.

Rev. J. L. Martin, a former resident of Fairfield, and at present pastor of the Presbyterian church at Abbeville, was in Winnsboro a few days since, and officiated in the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Agricultural liens of all forms are kept constantly on hand at the office of THE NEWS AND HERALD, or supplied at short notice. Satisfaction guaranteed in this line of work. Prices as low as the lowest.

We are requested to announce that there will be a meeting of the Democratic Club of township no. 4, at the Town Hall on Tuesday evening next at 7 1/2 o'clock. This is a most important meeting, and we urge upon the members of the Club a full attendance.

A CHILDREN'S PAPER.—We have received the first number of The Boys and Girls of the South, a monthly paper "for the entertainment, instruction and improvement of the young." The matter is well selected, and well adapted to serve the end in view. The paper is published at the low price of one dollar per annum. Every boy and girl should subscribe. Address John H. Seals, Proprietor, Atlanta, Ga.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Dr. Isaiah Simpson, Surgeon Dentist, Charlotte, N. C., respectfully informs the citizens and public generally that he will visit Winnsboro professionally, on the 19th day of February, 1877, and remain ten days or two weeks. Call early and save time and confusion at the last, as time is money. Teeth extracted without pain. Terms cash. Satisfaction guaranteed. February 14.

THE TRI-WEEKLY EDITION.—The tri-weekly edition of THE NEWS AND HERALD is now sent to all persons whose names are on the books of the old Tri-Weekly News. Should any of these desire their names transferred to the books of the weekly edition, and if any of those now receiving the latter wish to change for the tri-weekly, they will please notify us at once. Those in arrears for subscriptions must settle at once, or expect their papers to be stopped forthwith.

BUY ONLY THE BEST.—It will be a waste of time and money for farmers to buy inferior fertilizers because they are seemingly cheap from being low priced. Use only articles which have been tested for years, and have proved adapted to the making of corn and cotton. Such an article is the WILCOX, GIBBS & Co.'s Manipulated Guano, which the manufacturers offer, through their agents, on very liberal terms, delivered at the depots in the interior, payable in Middling Cotton, at fifteen cents per pound, delivered at planters' nearest depot, next Fall.

Fashion Dots.

Sleeves fit tight.
Basques are still worn.
Spring bonnets are small.
Bonnet crowns are broader.
Basques must fit like armor.
Tight jackets are fashionable.
Brims of bonnets are smaller.
The new round hats are very small.
Chenille bonnet cords are very fashionable.
Normandy crowns are the most fashionable.
Lace scarfs for bonnet strings grow in favor.
The spring colors are gray, drab and brown.
There is a revival of fashions demanding the use of lace.
Seal brown and navy blue are still the favorable colors for little boys' suits.

The Empress bonnet is large crowned and of modified Normandy shape.

The Empress bonnet is the favorite for middle-aged and elderly ladies.

Stout women with broad backs are recommended to wear basques and polonaises, with many seams.

Many of the late novelties in made-up fringes for the neck have comely bows of ribbon, in front or on one side of the throat, and fasten in the back with a cascade of lace and ribbon falling between the shoulders.

According to the Dressmaker and Milliner, a leading London fashion journal, an attempt is being made to re-introduce the long mitten, reaching above the elbow, to be worn with evening toilets. These mittens are of fine net-work, of pink and white silk, or of point lace, with a lace ruche, finished by a bow of ribbon.

SPRING GOODS

—FOR—

1877.

To-day the campaign's fairly closed,
The lucky man is he
Who takes his seat on the 4th of March
Our President he'll be:
And now the next best thing
Just suited to our mind,
Is where to get the cheapest goods—
The best of goods to find.

My friends and I went out one day,
Some New Spring Goods to buy;
And we resolved, before we went,
The different stores to try.
We wandered Winnsboro all around
Until our feet were sore,
And found the very place, at last,
T'was SOL WOLFE'S New Cash Store.

Of Hats, Clothing and Boots and Shoes,
The latest to our view—
The very best styles of Dress Goods,
And Prints so cheap and new.
So then, my good friends, one and all,
Now is your time to try
What Bargains you can get of me—
Or, you need not buy of SOL.
