AN AUTOGRAPH.—During one of the fairs in Paris some years ago Baron James de Rothschild was a patron. Chancing to pass a stand where some pretty young ladies were installed, he asked in a bantering tone, "Well, my dears, what can I do for you!" "Ah, Baron," said one,

"you can give us your autograph."
"With pleasure," replied the gallant old Baron, "if you preface it with an agreeable sentiment." So the signed his name in full, and smilingly paid the amount to the enterpris-ing Parisian attended stated

An Thesisters Appear.—Some sheep belonging to a farmer named Reed having been stolen in the neighborhood of a colliery village in Durham, England, while the thief was still undiscovered, a local preacher, having a collection to make, thought he would turn the event to thought he would turn the event to a good account: "We have a collection to make this morning, and for the glory of God, whoever of you stole Mn. Reed's sheep don't put anything on the plate!" Of course everybody joined in the collection.

Emma Abbott, the young songstress, made her first appearance in New York on Wednesday evening. She was enthusiastically received by a large audience. The critics agree that she is the most epromising.
