The sheriff of Aiken county had 8,185 acres of land for sale on Monday last, sales day.

Mr. Wm. R. Dixon, of Bishopville, Sumter county, lost three children in one week from diphtheria.

The barn of Mr. J. J. Smith, in Lexington county, was destroyed by fire on Sunday before last. Loss $500.

The parsonage of Prince Frederick's Church, on the Pee Dee River, was destroyed by fire on Sunday before last.

Major John Cantey, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Kershaw county, died at his residence in Camden on Tuesday last.

The Edgefield boys are so charmed with the blue glass cure that they are carrying it around in their pockets, in the shape of pint flasks.

Barney Tenhoy, one of the managers of election for Abbeville county, is in jail for robbing the meat house of Mr. Bennett Reynolds last week.

Postmaster E. C. Rainey has opened a barber shop at Georgetown. The Congressman, J. H. Rainey, is understood to be the silent partner.

A volunteer guard of ten citizens is stationed at the Aiken jail every night to prevent the escape of the five negro murderers who are to be hanged on the 16th instant.

The contention between Elihu C. Baker and John Lunny, the two probate judges of Darlington county, has been settled, and the former has turned the office over to the latter, who is now ready for business.

Among the first to meet the deputy agent, at his appointment in Dog Bluff township, Marion county, to pay the Hampton tax, was a colored man, who on the 7th of November walked fourteen miles to vote for Chamberlain.

Mr. John C. Sheppard, of Edgefield, has been elected by the literary societies of the Lutheran College, at Walhalla, to deliver the anniversary address before them in the coming June. Mr. Sheppard has accepted the invitation.

The farmers of Aiken county purpose to plant less cotton this season than last. They are beginning to find out that corn, peas and potatoes pay them far better than raising cotton at eight or ten cents per pound.

The first meeting of the Aiken Bull-Dozers' Sabre Club was held at the office of Trial Justice Yates, on Tuesday last. After an election of captain, several committees were appointed, to make their several reports to the next meeting, which takes place next Monday.

Ten wagons left the upper part of Abbeville county last week for the Greenville market to lay in general family and plantation supplies. High freights are doing their legitimate work, and the people go where they can get the best bargains and save money!

Last week the Newberry Herald saw a check which carried figures on its face calling for $10,723 15, which amount was paid for one lot of cotton of two-hundred and twelve bags. The cotton was raised by an enterprising farmer of Newberry. The entire lot was bought by the Piedmont Factory, of Greenville.

Mr. Joseph B. Mosely, of Aiken, died suddenly on Monday night last. Mr. Mosely had been working hard all day in the field, ploughing for his crop, when he came home to the house and ate a hearty supper as usual. Soon afterwards he was seized with an apoplectic fit, as is supposed, and died before the doctor could reach his residence. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

The Rev. Clement F. Jones, who died near Glenn Springs on the 23rd ultimo, was a graduate of Princeton College, was ordained as a minister in 1828, by Bishop Griswold, and was advanced to the priesthood two years after by the same bishop. The greater portion of his ministerial rial life was passed in Kent county, Maryland, and in Spartanburg county, S. C., in both of which fields he labored long and earnestly in his Master's cause.

On Monday before last two negro children living on the Wallace plantation of Mr. F. H. Brown, four miles from Rock Hill, were left by their mother while she attended the funeral of a sister. On her return the two children were found lying in the yard burnt almost to death. The younger one, a boy two years old, died in half an hour after medical aid was procured. The other, a girl of ten years, died a few hours later. The boy fell into the fire, and the girl in rescuing him soon became herself enveloped in flames and her clothing was entirely consumed. It is a singular fact that about two months ago two adult persons were burnt to death on this same plantation, one the wife of a white tenant, the other the wife of a colored tenant.

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

Vegetine

Is not a vile, nauseous compound, which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy which is sure to purify the blood, and thereby restore the health.

Vegetine

Is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

Vegetine

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a fictitious appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

Vegetine

Says a Boston physician "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, root, and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

Vegetine

Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

PROOF WHAT IS NEEDED.

BOSTON, Feb. 13, 1874.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—About one year since, I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles, was restored to health and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.

Respectfully yours, U. L. PETTINGILL.
