Saturday was a dismal day, and we looked for the inevitable equinoctial, but Sunday was bright and cool. Old Equinox hasn't decided to bother us yet.

The Hook and Ladder Company were out on parade on Friday afternoon. The apparatus was in fine condition, and the Company pre sented in every respect a creditable appearance.

Trial Justices can furnish themsolves with the necessary blanks by applying at the office of THE NEWS AND HERALD. A full assortment of these blanks will be kept constantly on hand, or supplied at short notice. Prices low, work good, and satisfac tion guaranteed.

Preparations are making for an active base ball season in Winnsboro this year. The members of the base ball club of this place have rented from Capt. Dwight a portion of the lot attached to the Mount Zion Institute, which they will add to the ball grounds already in use upon the College Green, This will give ample facilities to play the game, as several ugly gullies and inequalities will be removed beyond the range of the game. The club have not yet commenced to practise, but these fine spring afternoons will soon bring them out.

On Friday afternoon four persons, A, B, C and D met by chance in a confectionery store in Winnsboro, holding the handle of the door, reagreed that the one who had made most money during the day, should that when you appear before the "stand treat." Each wrote on a slip jury." of paper his transactions during the day and passed it to the confection er, who read them end decided the result. A, who is an officer of the court, affirmed that his collections had amounted to zero. B, a young lawyer, made his affidavit that he had received nothing in a week. C, who is a Hampton official, swore that he had collected nothing during the day but had spent a dollar and twenty cents. D, who is interested in journalism, being confident that he would not be liable, confessed under his hand and seal that he had sold a blank from his job office for fifteen cents. To his horror, when the slips were read, he was decided the moneyed man of the party, and his fifteen cents was remorselessly soize 1 and invested by the party in apples and peanuts. It was sad thus to see one's income for the day thus lost by one fell swoop. That is a sad condition of the monetary market when a newspaper man is the Crossus, and that, too, on a capital of fifteen cents.

Col J. B. Davis, of this county, who commanded the 15th S. C. V. during the late war, was noted for his kindness and consideration to the soldiers under his command. A cold winter day, during one of his campaigns, he was hiding along, and saw a private trudging over the frozen ground without shoes. Col. Davis stor at the man, and taking without discrimination. Prompt attenoff his own shoes lent them to him, mar 17-1x2 and then rode himself through the cold all dawin his stocking feet. That night the soldfor returned the shoes to him. Time passed on, and the man and this kind act had 'well nigh passed from memory.

A short time since, Col. Zimmerman Davis, of Charleston, received a letter from a gentleman in Texas who stated that last winter he was passing through South Carolina, and seeing Colonel Davis' name in the papers thought that he might be the colonel of the fifteenth regiment. He wrote to return thanks for an act of kindness he had shown him during the war. The writer was the soldier to whom the shoes had been lent, and he is now a practising lawyer in Texas. Col. Zimmerman Davis forwarded the letter to Col. J. B. Davis of this county. The county commissioners will letter expresses the warmest thanks take the liberty of making it known though unauthorized by any of the parties connected with it. It is re membered by a number of the soldiers who belonged to the fifteenth regiment.

> A SEALSKIN SACK .- At one of the Detroit churches, where a revival is in progress, the clergyman asked those who wanted to be prayed for to stand up. Quite a number rose to their feet, and after services were closed one lady was heard asking another; "Why didn't you stand up?" "Oh, I didn't want to," was the reply. "Why, you are a very foolish woman. I wouldn't have missed the opportunity for any thing." "Opportunity for what?" Why, for standing up there and showing off your sealskin sack! There wasn't another in the whole church."

> NEGROES AT FLORENCE RESCUE A Prisoner.—A negro, charged with active participation in a recent out break at Timmonsville, was arrested on a warrant issued by a trial justice appointed by Governor Hampton, and lodged in jail at Florence. Monday the negroes of the vicinity determined to rescue the prisoner, and then repeatedly threatened to attempt it. Their threa's were carried into execution about 7 o'clock, Tuesday evening, and breaking open the guard house, they carried off the prisoner in great triumph to some place of secrecy.

> An advocate went to visit his client, who was in prison, waiting to be tried on a charge of robbery. The prisoner, in describing his case and protesting his en ire innocence, was overcome with emotion, and wept piteously. At the end of the interview, as the advocate was leavmarked, naively to the prisoner: "Above all, don't forget to ery like
