Mr. John Davis, a citizen of this county, died at noon on Saturday last. He was a native of Richland county, and moved to Fairfield some years previous to the late war. He was at the time of his death over fifty years of age.

Agricultural liens of all forms are kept constantly on hand at the office of THE NEWS AND HERALD, or supplied at short notice. Satisfaction guaranteed in this line of work. Prices as low as the lowest.

Mr. David H. Ruff died near Stacks on Saturday at the extreme age of eighty-one years. He was closely identified with the history of the county for many years, being actively and successfully engaged in business for a very long time. He was never married, and in his old age devoted large sums to charitable purposes. The handsome Methodist church at Ridgeway, costing several thousand dollars, was a gift from himself to that denomination. Mr. Ruff had many friends, and, although old age compelled him some time since to withdraw from active life, his loss will be greatly felt. He was buried on Sunday morning in the Methodist churchyard at Ridgeway. Peace to his ashes.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The exhibition of the colored Mission School, under the charge of Rev. Willard Richardson, took place on Friday evening last, as had been previously announced in THE NEWS AND HERALD. The exercises consisted of songs by a quintette of the members of the "Carolina Singers," with dialogues, recitations, etc., by different scholars. Altogether the exhibition was a very creditable one. The singing was specially good—the voices being all true and in good training. The basso, George T. Dillard, has a remarkably fine voice—true, deep, soft and full. The other Singers likewise perform well. The dialogues and speeches showed good training, with constant attention on the part of the pupils. The exhibition on geography, by Sarah Liston, one of the youngest of the children, was particularly creditable. With great ease and without a single mistake, she repeated the names of the States of the Union, and those of the counties in Europe, Asia and South America, giving the capital of each as she named it. This showed that she had learned not simply by rote, but understood what she was reciting. To make this exercise more complete, another pupil pointed out upon a wall map each State or country, then its capital as she would name it. All in all the exhibition was a very creditable one, and gave pleasing evidence of the zeal and labor of Mr. Richardson. The audience was a very large one, about one-third of whom were whites, and among these many ladies.

A Glimpse of Senator Butler.

Senator Butler passed through Winnsboro on Sunday on a special train on his way home from Washington, having missed connection in Charlotte. As the train stopped but a few moments, it was impossible to gather any extended details from him of affairs in Washington. He represents that city as being very quiet. In answer to a question whether he thought Governor Hampton would visit Washington, he said he was ignorant of the Governor's intention, and declined to express an opinion whether he should go or not. He would lay before the Governor the status of affairs in Washington. Delegations of carpet-baggers and Radicals had been besieging Hayes recently with preposterous tales of the condition in South Carolina, and with assertions that if the troops be removed the Democrats will institute persecution against all who opposed them, and that with all the courts at his back Hampton will institute quasi legal proceedings against political opponents and in every way seek to destroy their lives and property. It might be that Hayes desired personal guarantees from Governor Hampton.

Senator Butler thinks that there is no question as to the recognition of Hampton, which is an assured fact. He represents Judge Mackey as working like a beaver in Washington and accomplishing much good. Senator Gordon is also there, advocating Governor Hampton.

Senator Butler is looking extremely well. Washington life agrees with him.

"THE ANSON HARDY CUTTING MACHINES are the best and cheapest low priced machine made, and have a national reputation for utility and durability."—The Electrotypist, Chicago.

THE ANSON HARDY PAPER CUTTER is by far the best machine which can be obtained for a less price than one hundred dollars. It is of great strength. These machines have always taken the highest stand. It is the only machine to which is applied the Patent Movable Cutting Board. This device has a reputation of itself; by it, the cutting board can be instantly and accurately moved, so that a perfect cut is insured. This is a very important point in the machine, and one that is possessed by no other. It greatly reduces the labor of preparation in working the paper backward and forward. We cannot too strongly recommend the advantages of this patent movable board. It is worth the price of this machine, and purchasers should fully understand how highly it is to be valued."—Geo. P. Howell & Co.'s Newspaper Reporter and Printer's Gazette.

THE LATEST IMPROVED HARDY CARD CUTTER is pronounced the most desirable Card Cutter in the market, for the general uses of a printing office.

"The well known RUGGLES CARD CUTTER, with my latest improvements, is still preferred by many printers, and holds its favor over other machines. None genuine but those having my full address, lettered in the cutting."—Newspapers in want of advertising from first parties should send for my circular.
