

Local Items.

RAILROAD SCHEDULES.—The following are the hours at which the trains on the C. C. and A. R. R. pass Winnsboro:

REGULAR PASSENGER—NIGHT.
For Charlotte, 2.31, A. M.
For Augusta, 1.13, A. M.

ACCOMMODATION FREIGHT—DAY.
For Augusta, 11.45, A. M.
For Charlotte, 1.00, P. M.

New Advertisements.
Building and Loan Association—D. R. Flenniken, Sec. and Treas.
Cassimers!—J. F. McMaster & Co.

Hurrah for Hampton!
The municipal election in Camden resulted as follows: For intendant, J. C. Rollings, 218, J. D. Dunlap, 201. For wardens, D. C. Kirkley 276, S. B. Latham 294, R. E. Will (col.) 231, E. H. Dibble (col.) 229, C. J. McDowall 192, H. Baum 159, Wm Deas (col.) 158, Postell Brown (col.) 154. The entire "Peoples ticket" was elected.

It is surprising to see the number of Hampton men around now. In fact the Chamberlain fellows re played out—clean gone up the spout. The mistake they have made is that they didn't come out last fall, when they could have done more service than can be expected of them now.

We are anxious to see whether "Brick" Nash, "Soapgrease" Whitte more, Swails, and other contumacious Senators will recognize Lieutenant-Governor Simpson and the Wallace House. We wish they would continue stubborn, for then vacancies would be declared, and honest men could be elected to the seats now defiled by these radical creatures.

Trial Justices can furnish themselves with the necessary blanks by applying at the office of THE NEWS AND HERALD. A full assortment of these blanks will be kept constantly on hand, or supplied at short notice. Prices low, work good, and satisfaction guaranteed.

A state of health—Md.—Danbury News. A state of suffering—Ill.—Washington Nation. A fatherly state—Pa.—Norristown Herald. A girlish state—Miss.—Bulletin. A state of safety—Ark.—Columbia Register. The state of surprise—La! The state of Payne—O! The state of the Abbots—Mass. The state of Jim Blaine—Me. The E pluribus unum state—Tenn. There now!—Winnsboro News.

A good many people went to the entertainment (?) of Professor Gomez on Wednesday night, and were well gulled for their pains. Like most of the showmen of his stamp, he proved to be a humbug of the highest type. The tricks he performed were all old, and many of them perfectly transparent. His ventriloquism was of a very low order, and his power of imitation very small. The distribution of gifts was of course a fraud. Most of them consisted of autograph albums, so-called, worth about fifty cents a gross. The Professor has gone on his way rejoicing.

The committee appointed by the citizens of Columbia to meet Governor Hampton at Charlotte passed through Winnsboro on Thursday afternoon. There were detachments of the Columbia Artillery, the Richland Volunteers and the Richland Rifle Club. Along with the Volunteers was William Rose the drummer, a colored man who has been steadfast in his adhesion to the Democracy of the State ever since he was made a voter. He was employed at Democratic Headquarters in Columbia during the campaign and is now employed at the Executive office. He is prouder than ever of his political faith.

Hurrah for Hampton!

ALL HAIL, HAMPTON!

FAIRFIELD'S GREETING TO THE GREAT GOVERNOR.

Music and Cheering—Bovies of bright eyed Women and a mixed Multitude of Men—Words of Wisdom.

When the news reached town that Hampton would pass by on Friday on his way Columbia, preparations were made to give him a proper greeting. The ladies were as usual, foremost in the good work, and at once went to work with a will. An upright frame forming an arch was erected on Washington street, near the railroad track and facing eastward. A sprig of palmetto capped the apex, while a portrait of Gov. Hampton, surmounted by an eagle and garlanded with wreaths and draped with national flags, hung pendent. The pillars of the arch were wreathed with ever greens, and festoons hung grace fully across, from end to end, being looped up at intervals, while flags were displayed ad libitum. Across the framework was the inscription, "WELCOME! CAROLINA'S CHOICE." Beneath the centre of the arch was placed a stand to be used by the speakers. The whole arrangement reflected great credit upon the ladies of the town and Messrs. Sol. Wolfe, T. R. Robertson and J. O. Boag who prepared it. Mr. S. K. McDonald, the railroad and express agent, had his office also handsomely decorated with a portrait of Hampton, and with flags, while the Morning Star Saloon, Mr. A. P. Miller's store, and the stores of Messrs. Lauderdale and Boag were ornamented with bunting. An immense crowd was gathered at the depot waiting for the arrival of the party, and as the train rolled up, the Citizens' Cornet Band struck a lively tune, and the air at once rang with cheers for Carolina's governor. It had been some time since the magical words, "Hurrah for Hampton!" were heard in Winnsboro, and the words carried all back to the days of that grand campaign which won for South Carolina, and for Home Rule a triumph than which none in history is worthier to be commemorated, or more fruitful of blessings to a suffering and striving people. After many months of labor, suspense, trials and embarrassments, Hampton is Governor! This thought seemed to pervade the minds of all who welcomed him on Friday, and it found expression in loud huzzas, beaming countenances and general enthusiasm.

Governor Hampton was introduced by Major Woodward, who said: "Governor Hampton, I have been delegated by the people, white and black, to welcome you back again to your native State, to the county of Fairfield and to this town. Since the seventh day of November we have recognized you as governor of South Carolina, and no one else, and please God we never will recognize any other." Amid deafening cheers, Governor Hampton rose, and bowing generally to the audience, and specially to the ladies who lined the platform and the Thespian Hall windows and were waving their handkerchiefs vehemently, thanked them for the magnificent reception, tendered him. As Governor of South Carolina he reiterated the pledges made last Autumn. He would be governor of the whole people, knowing no class, no party, no race. He had upheld the banner thus far, but it remains for the people themselves to carry to a glorious completion the labors just begun. In conclusion he begged for peace. He had pledged his word that no lawlessness would follow the recognition of local self-government in South Carolina, and he now pledged his life that the people would sustain him (cheers). Apologizing for hoarseness which he attributed to the people of North Carolina and Virginia who had made him talk himself almost to death he bid his friends God speed. (Tumultuous cheering.) Judge Mackey was then called upon and responded amid cheers.

congratulating the people that the shadow of the sword would soon be removed from the threshold of the Capitol. He said his first official act after returning to the now free State of South Carolina would be to petition Governor Hampton to release all the colored prisoners in the Penitentiary for the reason that under the miserable government and miserable teachings of their corrupt leaders they could not help stealing. (Laughter and cheers.)

Three cheers were next proposed, and given for ex-Senator Thomas J. Robertson, the chairman of the committee of citizens of Columbia who received Hampton. Senator Robertson who was on the train did not respond formally, owing to ill health, but conversed privately with a number of citizens.

After the speaking, Governor Hampton held quite a levee in the car and from the window, and was introduced to a number of ladies, all of whom were anxious to shake hands with the governor, and the fortunate ones were quite exultant over those of their fair friends who were less favored.

A large number of colored people were present, and many expressed great gratification at the governor's speech. The colored Democrats were jubilant. Willis Goode and Simon Muchatt shook Hampton's hand, while Henry Toole, Nathan Blake, Ben Walker, P. Jenkins, John McMillan, George Holly, Jim Shelton, Louis Davis, Elijah Dawkins and Marsh Thompson were conspicuous in their enthusiasm. A number of other colored Democrats were present but escaped our observation.

A gentleman aboard the train said the colored people had turned out en masse all along the route.

When the train moved off a large number of citizens of the town went with it to Columbia.

Thus auspiciously opens the third act in the drama, the first of which extended from the fifteenth of August to the seventh of November, and the second, from that day to the present time. The political sky is now clear, and a bright day is dawning for the State. And echoing the words of Hampton we bid the people, God speed.

THE 26th regular monthly meeting of the Winnsboro Building and Loan Association will be held in the Town Hall on Monday evening, the 9th instant at 7 o'clock. Members will bring their books and pay their monthly instalments at or before that time, otherwise the penalty of twenty cents per share will be charged after the meeting. There will be from $1200 to $1400 for loan.

D. R. FLENNIKEN, Sec. and Treas.

april 7-

GET your Job Printing done at the News and Herald Office.

congratulating the people that the shadow of the sword would soon be removed from the threshold of the Capitol. He said his first official act after returning to the now free State of South Carolina would be to petition Governor Hampton to release all the colored prisoners in the Penitentiary for the reason that under the miserable government and miserable teachings of their corrupt leaders they could not help stealing. (Laughter and cheers.)

Three cheers were next proposed, and given for ex-Senator Thomas J. Robertson, the chairman of the committee of citizens of Columbia who received Hampton. Senator Robertson who was on the train did not respond formally, owing to ill health, but conversed privately with a number of citizens.

After the speaking, Governor Hampton held quite a levee in the car and from the window, and was introduced to a number of ladies, all of whom were anxious to shake hands with the governor, and the fortunate ones were quite exultant over those of their fair friends who were less favored.

A large number of colored people were present, and many expressed great gratification at the governor's speech. The colored Democrats were jubilant. Willis Goode and Simon Muchatt shook Hampton's hand, while Henry Toole, Nathan Blake, Ben Walker, P. Jenkins, John McMillan, George Holly, Jim Shelton, Louis Davis, Elijah Dawkins and Marsh Thompson were conspicuous in their enthusiasm. A number of other colored Democrats were present but escaped our observation.

A gentleman aboard the train said the colored people had turned out en masse all along the route.

When the train moved off a large number of citizens of the town went with it to Columbia.

Thus auspiciously opens the third act in the drama, the first of which extended from the fifteenth of August to the seventh of November, and the second, from that day to the present time. The political sky is now clear, and a bright day is dawning for the State. And echoing the words of Hampton we bid the people, God speed.

Winnsboro Building and Loan Association.

THE 26th regular monthly meeting of the Winnsboro Building and Loan Association will be held in the Town Hall on Monday evening, the 9th instant at 7 o'clock. Members will bring their books and pay their monthly instalments at or before that time, otherwise the penalty of twenty cents per share will be charged after the meeting. There will be from $1200 to $1400 for loan.

D. R. FLENNIKEN, Sec. and Treas.

april 7-

GET your Job Printing done at the News and Herald Office.

HARD TIMES, HIGH PRICES

ARE OF NO ACCOUNT.

TO GIVE OUR CUSTOMERS THE BENEFIT OF BUYING OF US

WE WILL GIVE AWAY

WITH EVERY POUND PACKAGE OF COFFEE ONE POUND OF LAUNDRY

STARCH.

The Coffee Only 25 Cts. a Pound.

GREAT REDUCTION IN THE PRICES OF ALL KINDS

OF—

GROCERIES AND DRY GOODS,

COME AND SEE FOR YOURSELF.

B. SUGENHEIMER & CO.

BROMA, CHOCOLATE, SEA FOAM, FLAVORING EXTRACTS, ETC.

GARDEN SEEDS,

OF ALL VARIETIES,

—VERY CHEAP.—

ALL KINDS OF

SHOES AND BOOTS

—OF—

ALL KINDS

march 17

SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO.

THE above well known GUANO AND COMPOUND ACID PHOSPHATE is now offered for sale at the following places in this county. Consumers of this guano will find it fully up to last year's quality, which gave such universal satisfaction. For circulars and prices apply to feb 10-3m E. H. FROST & CO., Charleston, S. C.

CUMMINGS & CO., Winnsboro, S. C.

—OR TO—

Cassimeres!

Cassimeres!

JUST IN! JUST IN!

A lot of new Cassimeres from the celebrated

Charlottesville Woolen Mills.

JUST RECEIVED

J. F. McMaster & CO.

SHOES! SHOES!! SHOES!!!

WE have just received a lot of Gents' hand and machine sewed Shoes.

—ALSO—
Ladies' and Children's Shoes of all kinds. We have on hand a full stock of Prims, Bleached and Unbleached Home-spuns, Drillings, Osnaburghs, etc.

And all other goods usually found in a first class dry goods store. We can make it to your advantage, to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

april 7

CONGRESS STREET

NOTICE,

OFFICE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, FAIRFIELD COUNTY, WINNSBORO, March 19th, 1877.

THE Road District Overseers of Fairfield County are hereby notified and required to order out all persons liable to road duty in their respective jurisdictions to work the public highways three full days between the date of this notice and the 1st of May next. They are further required to see that all highways are cleared out to the lawful width, and that all roots, stumps, logs and stumps are removed from the public roads. They are further required to return all defaulters to this office to be dealt with according to law. Road District Overseers disagreeing with this notice will likewise be dealt with according to law.

Henry Jacob, J. R. Harvey, Carter Bratt, County Commissioners.

mar 14-7wix

F. W. HABENICHT

BEGET leave to inform his friends and customers generally that his stock of Imported and Domestic Liquors and Wine is full, and the purity of his goods warranted.

A full supply of Chewing and smoking Durham Smoking Tobacco, Cigars and Cigarettes.

Beegers' Pure Double Strong Brown Lager Beer, always fresh on hand.

AT CENTENNIAL BAR

DR. R. B. HANAHAN,

WINNSBORO, S. C.

OFFICE in rear of J. F. McMaster & Co.'s store, opposite the Court House.

U. G. DESPORTES'

AND

BARGAINS

DRY GOODS,

CLOTHING,

BOOTS AND SHOES,

WINE,

LIQUORS,

See, etc.