New Advertisements.
Mr. J. O. Boag advertise a new Stock of Millinery, Fancy Goods, Groceries &c.

McMaster & Brice advertises a new Stock of gentlemen's ready made Clothing.

Governor Hampton has taken possession of the Executive office in the State-House. Rooms have likewise been provided for the other officers of the executive department, elected on the Democratic ticket.

The storm on Friday morning was decidedly one of the severest ever known here. The wind howled to a tremendous degree, and the rain fell in torrents. We have heard of no damage—except the blowing down of a few trees and fences.

ANNIVERSARY ADDRESS.—Judge T. J. Mackey has accepted the invitation to deliver the anniversary address before the literary societies of Erskine College at the approaching commencement in July. The subject will be, "The Anglo-Saxons, their Language and their Civilization."

At the recent annual meeting of the Medical Association of South Carolina, Drs. T. T. Robertson and C. H. Ladd, of Winnsboro, were chosen among the delegates to the next meeting of the American Medical Association. This association meet at Chicago, Ill., on the 5th of June next.

ANNUAL MEETING.—We are requested to announce that the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, of this place, will be held in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock. An action will be held for officers and for delegates to the next State Convention.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Dr. Isaiah Simpson, Surgeon Dentist, Charlotte, N. C., respectfully informs the citizens and public generally that he will visit Winnsboro, S. C., professionally, on the 24th day of April, 1877, and remain ten days or two weeks. Call early and save time and money. Teeth extracted without pain. Terms Cash. Satisfaction guaranteed. *3w.

APPOINTED.—Governor Hampton has appointed Mr. A. M. Mackey a trial justice for this county, in the place of Mr. J. R. Harvey. Mr. Mackey did good work during the campaign for Hampton and Reform, and is thoroughly qualified for the position; his appointment will therefore give general satisfaction.

It is due to Mr. Harvey to state that while he held the office he performed its duties faithfully and satisfactorily; and that his removal was based chiefly upon the ground of the long distance from his residence to Winnsboro, and the necessity for two trial justices at this place.

Agricultural liens of all forms are kept constantly on hand at the office of THE NEWS AND HERALD, or supplied at short notice. Satisfaction guaranteed in this line of work. Prices as low as the lowest.

PATTERSON ON THE RAMPAGE.

"Honest John" Proposes to Vote to Seat Senator Butler.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The Star has this: Senator Patterson was at the White House this morning to have a final interview with the President and protest against the removal of the troops at Columbia. Owing to the Cabinet being in session he did not see the President. He is quite discouraged to-day. Although he has sent repeated telegrams to Chamberlain, he has failed to receive a response. He said to-day: "You hear that bell striking 12 o'clock? It sounds the death-knell of the Republican party in the South." Patterson is apprehensive that Chamberlain has weakened, and that he will abdicate and leave the State House and give up the archives of the State without a struggle. He says that Chamberlain left here last week with plenty of nerve and backbone, and meant to hang on. He thinks that when Chamberlain reached home he found the action of the President in deciding to withdraw the troops had thrown the party into a panic, and he had nothing to rally. "You see," said Patterson, "our party down there isn't like the party you fellows have been used to at the North. We, i. e., the Republican party in the South, were created by an act of Congress, and the negroes associated the government and the troops with the party. Now if you take the troops away the party goes up, for the negroes there think the government has deserted them. Now if Hayes had gone into office with a good round majority, and hadn't needed the vote of South Carolina and Louisiana, why he could have pursued his Southern policy with a better grace; but the Republicans of the South have shed blood for the party, and hence the ingratitude is all the more cutting. And yet what do you think?" said Patterson. "Why, because I tell those fellows that I am going to vote to let Butler into the Senate, they say I am a Democrat. Yet Hayes recognizes Hampton, who is a Democrat, and thus destroys all my political chances, and wants me to keep Butler out of the Senate. Well, I ain't going to do it with my vote. I will just tell the friends of Hayes that I will see them in — first. Why," continued Patterson, "this fellow Hampton would put me in the penitentiary if he could. They have been making their boasts in Columbia that they have to build one or two more penitentiaries to accommodate the carpet-baggers. You see," said Patterson, "that Cainhoy massacre was a god-send for us. I tell you if it hadn't been for that massacre we should have lost Charleston County, and Hayes could not have carried the State. Why, we lost one hundred and sixty Republicans killed during the campaign, and over seven hundred arrests were made, but I understand that arrangements have been made with Hampton to not pros. all the cases. I tell you what we carpet-baggers ought to do, why we ought all to resign and let the Democrats get the Senate." A friend here suggested that Senator Spencer had said he be — if he was going to resign. Patterson, continuing: Well, we ought to all resign. I can't understand what Hayes is driving at." The friend said he could. "Why, he is selling out his party. Talk about dividing the Democratic party, at the South! Why it's all moonshine. Hayes knows it is. He is deliberately selling out his party, and it is given out that he will divide the Southern Democrats so that the real infamy of the apostasy will be surrounded with this glamour, and the people won't see the real object in all its foulness. He has sold us out."
