Complaints of drought are heard from every direction.

One way to have a good county paper, is for its patrons in different sections to write for it.

Thanks to "Senex" for his interesting letter. We wish our friends throughout the county generally would send us information upon all topics of general interest.

The tin-can season has passed away from a lack of unwary country canines, and fighting flies will soon become the fashionable amusement.

Mr. Hemphill of Chester has introduced a bill providing for a special trial justice for Blackstock, as that town is directly on the line between Chester and Fairfield.

The Legislature should pass an amendment to the constitution requiring every one to show a poll tax receipt before being permitted to vote. This would raise several thousand dollars more in Fairfield.

The Register is mistaken in stating that the rifle company at this place has received the name of the "Gordon Riflemen." No name has yet been settled upon.

Governor Hampton has commuted to imprisonment for life the sentences of seven of the ten Lowndesville murderers. The other three were hung at Abbeville on Friday.

We have on hand some blank judgment rolls, which lawyers will find very convenient. These blanks have been prepared under the supervision of experienced practitioners, and will be found fully up to the mark in all respects.

We are indebted to Mr. R. J. McCarley for some excellent cigars, branded "The Faithful 7." They are very fine in every respect, and we advise smokers to give them a trial. On each box are the names of the seven who stood by the law in the Electoral Commission.—Mr. McCarley has likewise received some of the celebrated "Triumph Rye Whiskey," which will be found pure and fine in all respects. It is guaranteed old and pure.

A game of Base Ball was played, or rather begun, on the College green on Wednesday afternoon, between the colored club from Chester and the one at this place. During the fifth inning, the Chester club made objection to a ruling of the umpire, and after the lapse of the time fixed in the rules, he called the game, and announced a victory for the Winnsboro club.

The annual meeting of the Fairfield Bible Society was held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday last. The customary address was delivered by Henry N. Obear, Esq., and was in all respects an interesting and creditable production. Mr. Thos. K. Elliott was chosen to deliver the anniversary address at the next meeting, in April, 1878.

PERSONAL.—Dr. E. W. Aiken, a rising young physician of this place, has located in Columbia, where he will enter permanently upon the practice of his profession. He carries with him the best wishes of his numerous friends.

Mr. M. C. Robertson, formerly a citizen of Winnsboro, and recently a resident of Rock Hill, has been appointed to a position in the office of the Secretary of State, and is now in Columbia. Mr. Robertson will prove a faithful and efficient official, and the State Department is fortunate in having procured his services.

AMATEUR THEATRICALS.—An entertainment will be given in the Thespian Hall on Tuesday and on Thursday evening, May 8th and 10th, by the Histrionic Club of Winnsboro, composed of a number of ladies and gentlemen. Every effort has been made to have the entertainment a perfect success. The proceeds, after paying expenses, will be given to the rifle company to assist in procuring uniforms.

In connection with this exhibition refreshments will be served by the ladies, and the proceeds devoted to the use of the Women's Christian Association recently organized. The object of this Association is to further the work of the Young Men's Christian Association. It is proposed to establish a reading-room on the plan adopted in those cities where such an arrangement has worked to greatest advantage.

ANNIVERSARY PARADE.—The Fairfield Fire Engine Company celebrated its seventh anniversary on Wednesday afternoon by the usual parade. There was a good turnout, and the men presented an unusually fine appearance. The engine was in good condition. It was draped in mourning, in respect to the memory of the late President Dwight, and the members wore the customary badge of mourning.

After the parade, the usual election of officers was held, with the following result:

President—W. G. Jordan.
Vice-President—Jno. J. Neil.
1st Director—James A. Brice.
2d Director—J. H. Cummings.
3d Director—W. H. Williams.
4th Director—J. F. McMaster.
Secy. and Treas.—E. S. Chandler.
The election of axmen, pipemen and standing committees was deferred until the next regular monthly meeting.

Long live the Fairfield Fire Engine Company!

To-day the campaign's fairly closed, The lucky man is he Who takes his seat on the 4th of March Our President he'll be: And now the next best thing Just suited to our mind, Is where to get the cheapest goods— The best of goods to find.

My friends and I went out one day, Some New Spring Goods to buy; And we resolved, before we went, The different stores to try. We wandered Winnsboro all around Until our feet wore sore, And found the very place, at last, T'was SOL WOLFE'S New Cash Store.

Of Hats, Clothing and Boots and Shoes, The latest to our view— The very best styles of Dress Goods, And Prints so cheap and new. So then, my good friends, one and all, Now is your time to try What Bargains you can get of me— Or, you need not buy of SOL.
