How Far Will a Greenback Go?

Mr. Brown kept boarders. Around the table sat Mr. Brown, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Andrews, the village milliner; Mr. Black, the baker; Mr. Jordan, a carpenter, and Mr. Hadley, a flour, feed and lumber merchant.

Mr. Brown took out of his pocket-book a ten-dollar note, and handed it to Mrs. Brown, saying:

"Here, my dear, are ten dollars toward the twenty I promised you."

Mrs. Brown handed it to Mrs. Andrews, the milliner, saying:

"That pays for my new bonnet."

Mrs. Andrews said to Mr. Jordan, as she handed him the note:

"That will pay for your work on my counter."

Mr. Jordan handed it to Mr. Hadley, the flour, feed and lumber merchant, requesting his lumber bill.

Mr. Hadley gave the note back to Mr. Brown, saying:

"That pays ten dollars on my board."

Mr. Brown passed it to his wife, with the remark that that paid her the twenty dollars he had promised. She, in turn, paid it to Mr. Black, to settle her bread and pastry account, who handed it to Mr. Hadley, wishing credit for the amount on his flour bill, he again returning it to Mr. Brown with the remark that it settled for that month's board. Whereupon Brown put it back into his pocket-book, exclaiming that he "never thought a ten-dollar bill would go so far."

Thus a ten-dollar greenback was made to pay ninety dollars' indebtedness, inside of five minutes. Who says greenbacks are worthless?

Woman's Rights in Louisiana.

On the last day of the session of the Louisiana Legislature, Hon. Richard Henry Wilde, Democratic member from New Orleans, presented the following: "We, the women of Louisiana, petition your honorable body to give us equality in the law. We call to the attention of your honorable body that the women pay half of the taxes of the State without representation, and ask this small boon in acknowledgement of our interest in your success and our sufferings in the contest through which you have passed." The petition is signed by Mrs. E. E. Norton, Mrs. N. B. Wheeler, Mrs. Peter Conrad, Mrs. M. P. Turner, and one thousand other ladies, all of whom are owners of real estate in their own right and pay taxes. The petition brought General McMillan, Republican, to the floor, who asked the earnest attention of the House to this most vital issue of the day. By unanimous consent the petition was referred to the judiciary committee, who will report back at the next session. Both political parties are in favor of bestowing suffrage upon women, and, without doubt, at the next session of the Legislature, a constitutional amendment to that end will be adopted without opposition. The matter will then go to the people for adoption at the next election in November, 1878.

Admiral Hobart Pasha, of the Turkish navy, whose exploit in running by the Russian batteries at Galatz, was told in the cable dispatches, is well known in Washington. He was one of the most successful of the blockade runners of the Confederate war, in which service he was employed by the formerly wealthy but recently bankrupt London firm of Alex. Collier & Co. Admiral Hobart was a captain in the British navy, and took advantage of a leave of absence granted him by the English Government to go into the blockade running business for Collier & Co. When this matter came to the knowledge of the Lords of Admiralty he was suspended from his rank in the British navy. Thereupon he entered the Turkish service, and, besides being invested with the rank of admiral, was made a pasha by an imperial firman. He next became conspicuous in checking the rebellion in Crete, where his knowledge of the blockade running business was of great service to him in preventing the Cretons from furnishing supplies of arms and ammunition to the insurgents. By subsequent decree in council of the Lords of the Admiralty he has been restored to his rank and number in the British navy.

The impression prevails in commercial circles that the speculators for a rise in breadstuffs have overdone the business, and will quite likely come out losers. Very little of the grain, purchased to meet the expected foreign demand, has been shipped. Should the war prove a brief one of a single campaign, and involve no other European powers than the present contestants, there will not be sufficient demand for American grain to justify a natural advance in prices.

An oil painting of Governor Hampton has just been sent to Germany to be lithographed. More than 5,000 copies have already been ordered by his admirers. So says the New York Sun.

VEGETINE

VEGETINE has never failed to effect a cure, giving tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

SHE RESTS WELL.

SOUTH POLAND, ME., Oct. 11, 1876. Mr. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I have been sick two years with the liver complaint, and during that time have taken a great many different medicines but none of them did me any good. I was restless at nights and had no appetite. Since taking the Vegetine I rest well and relish my food. Can recommend the Vegetine for what it has done for me.

Yours respectfully, Mrs. ALBERT RICKER. Witness of the above, Mr. Geo. M. Vaughan, Medford, Mass.

VEGETINE.

Thousands will bear testimony (and do it voluntarily) that Vegetine is the best medical compound yet placed before the public for renovating and purifying the blood, eradicating all humors, impurities or poisonous secretions from the system, invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by disease; in fact, it is, as many have called it, "The Great Health Restorer."

SAFE AND SURE.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS; In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time, I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostrations, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose, and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified endorsement as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use, and as long as I live I never expect to find a better.

Yours truly, W. H. CLARK, 120 Monterey Street, Alleghany, Pa.

VEGETINE.

Vegetine thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition. The following letter from Rev. G. W. Mansfield, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, and at present settled in Lowell, must convince every one who reads this letter of the wonderful curative qualities of Vegetine as a thorough cleanser and purifier of the blood:

HYDE PARK, MASS., Feb. 15, 1876. Mr. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—About ten years ago my health failed through the depleting effects of dyspepsia; nearly a year later I was attacked by typhoid fever in its worst form, it settled in my back and took the form of a large deep-seated abscess, which was fifteen months in gathering. I had two surgical operations, by the best skill in the State but received no permanent cure. I suffered great pain at times and was constantly weakened by a profuse discharge. I also lost small pieces of bone at different times. Matters ran on thus about seven years, till May, 1874, when a friend recommended me to go to your office and talk with you of the virtue of Vegetine. I did so, and by your kindness passed through your manufactory, noting the ingredients, etc., by which your remedy is produced. By what I saw and heard I gained some confidence in Vegetine.

I commenced taking it soon after, but felt worse from its effects; still I persevered and soon felt it was benefitting me in other respects. Yet I did not see the results I desired, till I had taken it faithfully for a little more than a year, when the difficulty in the back was cured, and for nine months I have enjoyed the best of health.

I have in that time gained twenty-five pounds of flesh, being heavier than ever before in my life, and I was never more able to perform labor than now.

During the past few weeks I have a scrofulous swelling as large as my fist gather on another part of my body.

I took Vegetine faithfully and it removed it level with the surface in a month. I think I should have been cured of my main trouble sooner if I had taken larger doses, after having become accustomed to its effects.

Let your patrons troubled with scrofula or kidney disease understand that it takes time to cure chronic diseases, and if they will patiently take Vegetine, it will, in my judgment, cure them.

With great obligations I am, Yours very truly, G. W. MANSFIELD, Pastor of the Methodist E. Church.
