Just Received—James E. Cathcart.

Summer is upon us. It is decidedly hot, and linen clothes are in great demand.

Mr. James E. Cathcart, the youngest merchant in town, will accept the thanks of the office for some very fine cabbage and delicious bananas. Lovers of good things will do well to give him a call.

The Charlotte Observer has changed hands—the firm of Jones & McDowell being dissolved, and Mr. Charles R. Jones becoming sole editor and proprietor. The Observer is a good newspaper, and we predict for it a continuance of its past success and usefulness.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. H. A. Gaillard and Thos. S. Brice, members of the House of Representatives from this county, come up on Saturday night for a short visit to their families. They returned on Monday morning, so as to be on hand for that day's session of the House.

Complaints reach us that some of our subscribers do not receive their papers sent through the post-office. We can only repeat what we have often said before—that the fault is not in our office. We strongly suspect that papers are taken from the post-offices by persons to whom they do not belong.

The phosphate royalties of the State should be a fruitful source of revenue, if properly collected. Persons who ought to know, estimate the amount of these at $150,000 a year, while, if illicit phosphate digging were suppressed, this revenue could be largely increased. The attention of the authorities should be immediately directed to this matter.

EAST CHESTER CIRCUIT.—We are requested to publish the following appointments for religious service in the churches named:

Bethesda—First Sunday—Rev. W. W. Williams, 11, a. m.; third Sunday, Rev. J. W. Kelly, p. m.

Mt. Moriah—First Sunday, Rev. W. W. Williams, 3, p. m.; third Sunday, Rev. J. W. Kelly, 11, a. m.

The trial of the Ellenton prisoners is now in progress in the United States court in Charleston—Judges Waite and Bond presiding. The motions to quash the jury panel and to quash the indictment have been overruled, and a case is now on trial. Several negro witnesses have been examined, and they give every appearance of having been thoroughly drilled. The defence are confident of their ability to disprove the statements of these lying witnesses and to bring about the triumphant acquittal of the accused.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.—Since our last report the following transfers of real estate have been recorded in the office of the county auditor:—

Wm. R. Robertson to Sarah Lyles, one acre in township no. 4; consideration, $50.

J. C. Mackorell to Alexander Elder, one and one-half acres in township no. 3; consideration, $350.

R. J. McCarley to S. K. McDonald, one lot in the town of Winstboro; consideration, $300.

Nancy H. Hastings to Saml. B. Clowney, 14 acres in township no. 12; consideration, $73.75.

T. M. Neely and M. A. Neely to J. A. Kennedy, 75 acres in township no. 8; consideration, $500.

J. Y. Brice to John McLurkin, 9 acres in township no. 2; consideration, $90.

John McLurkin to J. Y. Brice, 10 acres in township no. 2; consideration, $103.

William R. Yongue to Nancy C. Yongue, 65 acres in township no. 2; consideration, $1,000.

Saml. B. Clowney to H. W. Desportes, 848 acres in township no. 7; consideration, $4660.
