The heat and dust in town are oppressive. The thermometer is knocking about in the nineties, and the streets need watering very badly.

The House acted well in committing Peter Papin to jail for his flagrant contempt. The time for buying up committees is past, and Peter should be made to know it. He will doubtless fully realize it by the time he has served out the term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced. Peter Papin is a Frenchman, living at Port Royal. He has been endeavoring to lobby through the Legislature some bills that would give him and his associates a virtual monopoly of the shipping business at that place. The committee made an unfavorable report, thus practically killing his proposed measures.

Joe Thompson requests us to say that the school tax levied in township no. 9 last summer was two mills, and not two and a half. We find his statement in this to be correct. He states, in justification of his action, that he consulted the then school commissioner, Mr. Crawford, and was advised by him that a tax of two mills should be levied. Thompson also denies having endeavored to get up a Radical nomination in the recent election. He says that a nomination was made of himself and Henry Johnson—but without his own seeking. We deem it just to give him what benefit may come to him of his statements.

We understand that nearly if not quite all of the stores in town will be closed to-day, with a view to a proper observance of Thanksgiving Day. Services will be held in the Associate Reformed and in the Episcopal church, commencing at eleven o'clock. In the Episcopal church the congregation will use a special service prepared and prescribed for the occasion by the bishop of the diocese. There will be no services in the other churches, in consequence of the absence of the pastors.

ARRESTED FOR BIGAMY.—On Monday last a warrant was issued by Trial Justice Robertson for the arrest of Prince Martin, a member of the Mackey House from this county. The charge is preferred by one of two women whom it is alleged Prince has married. He admits that he was married the second time, his first wife being still living, but states that he procured a divorce from the latter at the hands of the late Trial Justice Kirkland. Even if this be shown to be true, it will not avail the bigamist, as ignorance of the law will excuse no man. Of course the trial justice had no shadow of right to grant the divorce—that power being vested by statute in the Court of Common Pleas.

The warrant of arrest was taken to Columbia by Sheriff Ruff, and a search at once made for the too-much-married politician. But Prince had in some way got wind of the proceeding against him, and just before he reached Columbia, on the Greenville train, he jumped off and made himself so scarce that the sheriff could not find him. The next day he came back home. On Wednesday he came to town, surrendered himself, and was taken in custody. He waived a preliminary examination, and was held to bail in the sum of five hundred dollars, to appear for trial at the next term of the Court of General Sessions for this county. One feature of the case is that Martin's second wife is a step-daughter of Israel Byrd, the mulatto senator from Fairfield. Byrd doubtless knew all the circumstances of the case, and in giving his permission and sanction to the unlawful marriage was an accessory in the crime committed by Martin. Byrd should be at once arrested and held to bail.

It is proper to add that we were aware of the pending proceedings against Martin on Monday last, but for obvious reasons deemed it proper to defer a publication of them until after the sheriff should have executed the warrant of arrest.
