The election for Judge of Probate for Richland county resulted in the triumph of Mr. Andrew Crawford, the Democratic nomince, by about six hundred majority. Thus another advance has been made by the solid Democracy upon a Radical stronghold, and a great victory

The people of Georgia have decided by a majority of about ten thousand to call a constitutional convention. The present constitution was adopted by the Bullock regime and is very faulty. Great care has been exercised in the selection of delegates, and the State will be much benefited by the result of their deliberations.

The colored cadet Elipper, from Georgia, who graduated at West Point the other day is in a quandary. He has drawn the elephant and does not know what to do with it. The laws provide that even colored regiments shall have white officers. 'Flipper's best course would be to volunteer in the Turkish army and teach Mukhtar Pasha how to thrash Nepodojfstehy, or whatever that Russian chap is named. We charge mothing for this advice.

The Radical county convention in Charleston nominated ten Demoerats for members of the House-Messrs. Robert Adger, R. B. Rhett, -Jas. B. Campbell, C. H. Simonton, at first thought of running counter C. G. Memminger, Andrew Simonds, to the best interests of his party, so Edward Willis, Jno. F. Ficken, promptly retraced the false step he Henry Buist and M. W. Venning. had taken, speaks well for him, and This was but a plan to split the Demonracy, but it failed. All these gentlemen have acclined, saying, that they can accept a candidacy from no source but the Democratic nominating convention.

What the Richland Democrats Gained.

Capt. H. W. Dickson, who had proposed running as an independent Democratic candidate for Judge of P. obate of Richland county, act ad the part of wisdom and patriotism in withdrawing from the contest before the day of election, and in working for the success of the regular Dem eratic nomineo. Captain Dickson is a highly respected citizen. His Tilden. The right of a party to sefriends pressed his claims before the lect whomsoever it pleases admits of promises promptly. Executive Committee, but he failed no question. Who the nominee to receive the nomination. Captain Dickson was disposed at first be decided by the party or its legal -quietly to acquiesce in the action of the constituted authorities of the Democratic party. But, unfortuanately, he seems to have had friends, such friends as a man should sometimes beg to be delivered from. By their advice he announced himself as an independent candidate, and for some days refused to abide by the nomination. Had he persisted in his ill advised course, he would have and the Democracy. The Radicals of Richland greatly outnumber the Democrats, and it is only by main. taining the strictest discipline and lights of the party can be crushed presenting the boldest front to the -onemy that the latter can ever hope to succeed. An independent candidacy at this time in Richland, or, as for that matter, in any county of South Carolina, would be a public calamity. Were the two parties equal in honesty and intelligence, so that no injury would result from the supremacy of either, necessity would not be so great for the strict maintenance of party discipline. But the bright day of Democraticascendency has only sende od more hideous the black night of the Radical res gime. And having once escaped people should exercise the greatest caution nover again to subject themselves to the Radical yoke.

The State is not yet safe. We have gained but one victory. The crushing onslaught of last November moralized as it was by its long lease of Roanoke river, North Carolina, by power, gave way before it. But means of which seven out of twelve lives; and will lift its hydra head Radicalism has been considered defunct for several years, the Radicals were enabled the other day through dissensions among the Democrats convention, a matter of the greatest importance to the public polity. So Radicalism in this State is powerless only as long as the Democrats maintain a solid phalanx. Let them once be caught off their guard, and the Radicals will deal them a blow "beneath the belt," none the less damaging that it is "foul."

We are not not acquainted with run and been elected he would have quith ?"-Courier Journal. proved competent to fill the office he sought. But his success would have To the Citizens of Fairfield come through Radicals votes—not the votes of ex-Radicals who have seen the error of their ways and now support the Democratic ticket from patriotic motives, but of simon-pure, dyed-in-the-wool Radicals, flicting mortal injury upon the county. Moreover, every man in these days of strictest party lines, abili must be more or less indebted to the party that elects him; so that his success must inure to its benefit. Captain Diekson could never have been comfortable, even in the position he sought; for the spectre of a betrayed party would ever have risen before him, refusing to be exoreised.

The fact that Captain Dickson who, acting hastily underbad advice, puts him in the right way to receive future recognition at the hands of his party, a recognition to which he would never have been entitled had he pursued a so-called independent course. An independent candidate in the party's emergency is a wolf in sheep's clothing, a devil in disguise. A man's worst enemies are those of his own household.

The people are severeign. They have the right to select, either them selves or through representatives they wish to act as their public servants. The nomination of Horace Greeley was just as binding as that of Andrew Jackson or Samuel J. shall be, is a question of policy, to representatives in caucus or convention. Once nominated, he is the choice of the party-of the minority as well as of the majority—and he is entitled to claim the hearty support of the entire organization, unless he is personally immoral or corrupt.

The victory or the defeat of the De mocracy in Richland at the recent election is but a small matter in comparison with the necessity of wrought destruction upon himself preserving strict party discipline. Richland has long been the head centre of Radicalism, and the cor.. rupt Nashes and Minorts and other out only by untiring zeal and strict unity of purpose and action on the part of the Democrats. That the party had the moral strength and discipline to prevent "independentaction" augurs well for its future. This first victory being gained, others will speedily follow, and Richland will ere long enjoy the fullest fruits of redemption. All honor to the Richland Democracy.

The success of the Russians with the use of torpedoes has directed attention to this species of warfare. from the horrors of that epoch, the It is claimed that the honor of the invention of the present system is due to General Rains, of North Caolina, who first used them in the Florida war, and then protected the harbors of the Confederacy with them. One hundred and twentythree torpedoes were planted in Charleston harbor and the Stone was irresistible, and Radicalism, de- river, one hundred and one in the
