Masonic Meeting—Wm. N. Chandler, Secretary.

Knights of Honor—E. S. Chandler, Reporter.

Simmons' Hepatic Compound—Dowie & Moise.

Hon. R. W. Burnwell, formerly president of the State University, has been appointed librarian of that institution.

The Firemen's Calico Hop was postponed on account of the death of Mrs. McKenzie. It will take place this evening. The president of the fire company requests that all firemen appear in uniform.

The Register corrects the statement it recently made, that injury had been done to the University buildings by the negro students. It seems there are only a few window-panes broken, and this was done some time back.

The Independents beat the Seventy-sixes (both juniors) a match game of base ball Tuesday afternoon, by a score of twenty to seven, and thus got even for a defeat the latter gave them some time since. We shall have another game soon.

A TERRIBLE FALL.—Little David Fleming, the eldest son of Mr. A. H. Fleming, met with a very serious accident on Tuesday night. He was sleeping in the third story of the brick hotel, and, walking in his sleep, went to the open window, and fell on the pavement below. Fortunately, he did not fall on his head, but on his side, and escaped with only some very severe bruises. At last accounts he was doing well, and there is great hope of his recovery.

Daniel Adams, a negro living in the Lytleton section of this county, was brought to jail on Tuesday night, charged with committing an assault, with criminal purpose, upon a young lady living in that neighborhood. This is the second case of this kind in Fairfield within the past two or three months, and the repetition of this brutal and horrid crime is calculated to excite both concern and indignation on the part of the whites. We bring the matter before the white men of Fairfield, and urge them to be on their guard. The present criminal law, doctored by dirty Radicals to suit bad negroes, is wholly insufficient to check the crime which the above-named negro is charged. It ought to be understood that the next man guilty of such an outrage will be hung to a tree or shot down like a dog as soon as he can be caught. The penitentiary has no terrors for such a brute as is the man who would commit the crime in question. And where the law is thus powerless, the men of the community should take the responsibility and visit retribution, quick and terrible, on the guilty.

A FALSE REPORT.—The Columbia papers of the 19th inst. announced that Mr. M. L. Brown, the well-known proprietor of the Winnsboro Hotel, had died on the 15th inst. Of course, there is no truth in the statement. Mr. Brown is not only alive, but is in unusually robust health, and we wonder at anybody supposing him to be dead. The Register makes the following explanation:

A despatch from Winnsboro reached us last night announcing the fact that Mr. M. L. Brown of that burg was not dead. The despatch states that the aforesaid Brown "is not dead, nor likely to die soon, and certainly won't die within the next one hundred years, if he can help it." The Brown referred to yesterday was M. R. Brown, of Waynesboro, N. C.—an excusable mistake as far as the Register is concerned, though we had no intention of killing friend Mark before his time had arrived.

DEATH OF Mrs. A. MCKENZIE.—The announcement of the death of this estimable lady, which took place on last Monday afternoon, was received with universal regret. Mrs. McKenzie was a native of Charleston—which place she left early in the war, on account of the then threatening attitude of the Federal fleet. She resided in Winnsboro for about fifteen years, and had during this time won many warm friends, and had constantly grown in their good-will and affection. She was of a genial nature, a kind heart and eminently charitable disposition. There was no work of benevolence in which she failed to do her full part. She was ardently devoted to the church of her choice, and, leading the life of a sincere Christian, she was always doing something for its good. In the affliction thus visited upon her kindred, they have the deep sympathy of all who knew her. Her remains were interred in the Episcopal cemetery on Tuesday, the funeral services being first held at the church.

SOUTH CAROLINA MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.—The board of directors of the South Carolina Monument Association beg leave to announce to the public that the monument is finished and will be erected as soon as the amount guaranteed to the architects can be obtained. They beg their friends to make known the fact that it is not a county but a State monument, erected by the women of South Carolina, and will bear an inscription to that effect. Penny readings established by some enterprising friend monthly in each county town would, by the accumulation of small sums, relieve the association of all embarrassment. When the work is completed, a statement will be made of receipts from each county. Sincere thanks are returned to the following friends for contributions since March, 1876: From managers inaugural ball, $27 11; Mr. Van Bokkohn, Wilmington, $5; Mr. Craig, Blackstock, $5. Through Mrs. Chafce, Lancaster, $94 25; Mrs. Farrow, Laurens, $16 90; Mrs. William Adger, Charleston, $72 10; Mrs. Heinitsh, Spartanburg, $77 50; Mrs. McIver, Chesterfield, $20 60; Miss Heriot, Georgetown, $1; Miss Moffett, Charleston, $4 35; Miss Wade, Chester, $16; Mrs. Glover, Greenville, $75; Mrs. Wm. Adger, Charleston, $2; Mrs. Darby, New York, $13; concert Professor Gonzales, $4 80; eight penny readings, Richland, $169 27; penny reading, Laurens, through Mrs. H. L. McGowan, $42 10.

ITEMS FROM COLUMBIA.—The Supreme Court has decided the case of Buttz, the would-be solicitor of the first judicial circuit. It is held that the office of circuit solicitor is incompatible with that of congressman, and that by accepting the latter, Buttz abandoned the former. So, good-bye, Buttz.

The joint committee of the House and the Senate, to investigate matters connected with the public funds, the sinking fund, and the election of "Honest John" to the United States Senate, is now in session.

The case of Peter Smith, pardoned by Chamberlain—in which, it may be remembered, Judge Carpenter decided that Chamberlain was governor holding over—has been settled by the Supreme Court, and the prisoner remanded to the penitentiary.

The contempt case against the State Board of Canvassers has been revived again, the Supreme Court having passed an order requiring Cardozo, Stone, Hayne, Purvis and Dunn to show cause, on the fourth Tuesday in November next, why the judgment of the Court, heretofore rendered, should not be enforced against each of them.

The following named gentlemen have been appointed by the governor as regents of the State lunatic asylum, to serve for six years: John S. Preston, W. B. Stanley, J. M. Smith, Dr. B. W. Taylor, C. H. Manson, Henry Davis, John T. Rhett, Wm. Wallace, Dr. C. H. Miot. This looks like restoring the board to its ante bellum standard. The governor has made most excellent selections.
