Excursion to Augusta.—An excursion train will leave Charlotte at 6:30, p. m., on the 3d of July, reaching Augusta at 7 o'clock on the morning of the 4th. Returning, it will leave Augusta at 8:30, p. m. Price of tickets, for the round trip, as follows: From Charlotte, $3.00; from Chester $2.50; from Columbia $2.00; from all points between Columbia and Augusta, $1.00. The fare from Winnsboro will be $2.50. This excursion is expected to be a very pleasant affair, and will doubtless be largely attended. There will be a grand parade of the military and firemen in Augusta on the 4th of July. Tickets may be procured from Mr. W. B. Creight,

THE KNIGHTS OF HONOR.—At the last regular meeting of True Brotherhood Lodge, No. 344, Knights of Honor, the following officers were elected, to serve for the ensuing term:—
Dictator—J. S. Connor.
Vice-Dictator—Jno. S. Reynolds.
Assistant Dictator—D. R. Flemmiken.
Reporter—E. S. Chandler.
Financial Reporter—W. C. Beaty.
Treasurer—G. A. White.
Chaplain—R. W. Phillips.
Guide—J. W. Chandler.
Guardian—H. A. Gaillard.
Sentinel—J. C. Caldwell.

This fraternity is growing in popularity and members. There have recently been many accessions to its ranks in Winnsboro.

THE SCHOOL FUND.—The State Superintendent of Education has notified School Commissioner Richardson that Fairfield will receive $1803.25 of the State appropriation for common schools. In addition to this the poll tax will yield something over $2,000, making in all about $4,000 for school purposes. Not knowing the number of teachers employed in the county, we cannot form an estimate of the time for which the schools may be safely kept open. We are inclined to think, however, that the funds will be exhausted in paying those teachers who have already received pay certificates for this scholastic year.

The estimate above made is based on the supposition that only a small portion of the poll tax will be collected, as has heretofore been the case. With a rigid enforcement of the law in this particular, the amount will be very considerably larger.

THE FENCE LAW.—We give this morning a correct copy of the act concerning the repeal of the fence law. The synopsis given recently was taken from an incorrect copy published in an exchange. The act has its strong points and its imperfections, which can be amended next session. The chief defect is in giving the damaged party redress only on the civil side of the court, and not making the trespass an indictable offence. Before the bill left the House, Capt. Gaillard of this county introduced a carefully prepared amendment, providing for criminal prosecution, and the amendment passed with but one dissenting vote. The Senate, however, refused to concur, and as the session was near its close the House yielded rather than run the risk of losing the bill. The taxpayers of the different townships should prepare their petitions at once. Seventy-five names are necessary. It is held that under the provisions of the act, ladies who pay taxes have a right to sign the petition. Let a vote be had in all the townships.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.—The circuit court met pursuant to law on Monday morning. The juries were organized, the presiding judge proceeded to charge the grand jury, and the latter retired.

The following is a synopsis of the cases disposed of:

State vs. Charles Clark, indicted for burglary and larceny. Defendant pleaded guilty.

State vs. Thomas Smith, alias Adam Smith, and Primus Buggs, indicted for grand larceny. The defendants in this case were charged with the robbery of the store of Mr. T. G. Patrick, at White Oak, some time back. Smith pleaded guilty, and Primus Buggs went to trial. Verdict—Guilty.

State vs. Joseph Starke and Waring Starke, indicted for grand larceny. These men were charged with the robbery of the store of Messrs. R. F. Leetch & Co., at this place, some days ago. Joseph Starke pleaded guilty, and Waring Starke went to trial. Verdict—Guilty.
