Parisian Baths.

Bathing in the Seine and concerts in open air are the only enjoyments of the season in Paris. The beau monde frequent the latter behind the Palais de l'Industrie. A curious, and it must be said, a forbidding spectacle, is that of the inside of a ladies' bathing establishment. There are few elegantes and few beauties, the Seine being the watering place of those who cannot afford to leave the city. All the adornments of the Parisienne are left in her cabin, whence she emerges in a woollen "bloomer," as nature made her. A few walk about draped more or less a l'antique; others sit shivering on the edge of the common square of water, afraid to go down. This liquid space is covered with heads bound in yellow rubber caps; arms, legs and now and then a loose tail of hair. A pair of tights is sometimes seen by bathers in the centre to leap from the platform over their heads, and when they come down with a splash they are found to be a human body whose top part is a black or blue blouse. Fat women float about like corks on a pail of water, the only time they feel light. Thin, emaciated and apparently hollow ladies jump up and down on the same spot, never higher up than their knees or lower down than their elbows. Children cry, young misses eat bread in the water. General slipperiness is everywhere perceptible; but this is called hygienic, and though amateurs may have to walk home through the sun for a long hour after this pastime, they bathe every day in the Seine out of habit, just as husbands and fathers fish their three smelts every Sunday.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Russians are advancing slowly into Turkey.
The improvement in cotton since the June report is represented at two per cent. The improvement for North and South Carolina is six per cent.
The movement inaugurated by the Mississippi Radicals to make no regular fight, will, it is thought, be adopted in the other Southern States.
The Cabinet are divided over the Southern appointments. The President, and Secretaries Thompson and Key favor giving office to Democrats, while the rest are stubborn in their opposition.
A bank panic has taken place in St. Louis. On Saturday, the 14th, the North St. Louis Savings Association, and the Bank of St. Louis suspended, and on Monday there was a run on the other banks for a while, but all claims were promptly paid. Two other banks have since suspended.
An Ohio politician says that many Republicans of that State violently oppose the President's policy, and that the outlook this fall is not favorable. He regards the civil service order as very unfortunate, believing that it will put the Republican party in the hands of hummers.
A suit for $4,600,000 has been begun against the Universal Life Insurance Company in New York, to recover the assets of the Guardian Mutual, absorbed by the former company, in which fraud is charged.
A serious riot occurred in Martinsburg, West Virginia, on the 17th, in consequence of a strike of railroad employees, who threw a freight train off the track, and stopped all other freight trains. Governor Matthews has sent two companies of militia to the scene of the disturbance.
Responses received from Southern cities to the call for a convention to be held at Fortress Monroe on the 25th instant, in the interest of Southern mail facilities, indicate that large delegations will attend from all important cities in the South, from Alexandria to New Orleans. There will be from 200 to 250 delegates, and it is understood the President and members of the Cabinet will be present. The Railroad Association has offered free transportation to delegates.

The North American Review for July and August has already passed through eight editions—a thing never before heard of in the history of this venerable periodical. Of course this success is mainly due to Judge Black's article on the electoral conspiracy.

Ben Montgomery, a rarely successful and capable colored man, formerly a slave of Jeff Davis' brother, recently died in Mississippi. When a slave he was largely the manager of his master's estate, which he purchased after the war for $350,000 in gold. He also became the owner of President Davis' place, as well as several other plantations, and altogether this ex-slave had a remarkably thriving career.

VEGETINE
—IS MY FAMILY—
MEDICINE;
I WISH NO OTHER.

PROVIDENCE, April 7, 1876.
Mr. H. R. STEVENS—Dear Sir: When I was about 8 years of age a humor broke out upon me, which my mother tried to cure by giving me herb teas and all other such remedies as she knew of, but it continued to grow worse, until finally she consulted a physician and he said I had the salt rheum, and doctored me for that complaint. He relieved me some, but said I could not be permanently cured as the disease originated in the blood. I remained a great sufferer for several years, until I heard of and consulted a physician, who said I had the scrofulous humor and if I would allow him to doctor me he would cure me. I did so, and he commenced healing up my sores and succeeded in effecting an external cure, but in a short time the disease appeared again in a worse form than ever, as cancerous humor upon my lungs, throat, and head. I suffered the most terrible pain, and there seemed to be no remedy, and my friends thought I must soon die, when my attention was called, while reading a newspaper, to a "VEGETINE" testimonial of Mrs. Waterhouse, No. 364, Athens Street, South Boston, and I, formerly residing in South Boston and being personally acquainted with her and knowing her former feeble health, I concluded I would try the Vegetine. After I had taken a few bottles it seemed to force the sores out of my system. I had running sores in my ears which for a time were very painful, but I continued to take the Vegetine until I had taken about 25 bottles, my health improving all the time from the commencement of the first bottle, and the sores to heal. I commenced taking the Vegetine in 1874, and continued its constant use for six months. At the present time my health is better than it ever has been since I was a child. The Vegetine is what helped me, and I most cordially recommend it to all sufferers, especially my friends, and had been a sufferer for over 30 years, and until I used the Vegetine, I found no remedy; now I use it as my family medicine, and wish no other.

MRS. B. C. COOPER, No. 1, Joy Street, Providence, R. I.

Vegetine.

The range of disorders which yield to the influence of this medicine, and the number of defined diseases which it never fails to cure, are greater than any other single medicine that has been hitherto been even recommended for by any other than the proprietors of some quack nostrum. These diseases are scrofula, all eruptive diseases and Tumors, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia and Spinal Complaints and all inflammatory system; Ulcers, all Syphilitic diseases, Kidney and bladder diseases, Dropsy, the whole train of painful disorders which so generally afflict American women, and which carry annually thousands of them to premature graves; Dyspepsia, that universal curse of American manhood, Heartburn, Piles, Constipation, Nervousness, inability to sleep, and Impure blood.
This is a formidable list of human ailments for any single medicine to successfully attack, and it is not probable that any one article before the public has the power to cure the quarter of them except Vegetine. It lays the axe at the root of the tree of disease by first eliminating every impurity from the blood, promoting the secretions, opening the pores—the great escape valves of the system—invigorating the liver to its full and natural action, cleansing the stomach and strengthening digestion. This much accomplished, the speed with which the permanent cure of not only the diseases we have enumerated, but likewise the whole train of chronic and constitutional disorders, is certain to follow. This is precisely what Vegetine does, and it does it so quickly, and so easily, that it is an accomplished fact almost before the patient is aware of it himself.

BEST REMEDY IN THE LAND.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 23d, 1876.
Dear Sir—I desire to state to you that I was afflicted with a breaking out of blotches and pimples on my face and neck for several years, have tried many remedies, but none cured the humor on my face and neck. After using two or three bottles of your Vegetine the humor was entirely cured. I do certainly believe it is the best medicine for all impurities of the blood that there is in the land, and should highly recommend it to the afflicted public.
Truly yours, P. FERRINE, Architect.
Mr. Ferrine is a well-known architect and builder at Little Falls, N. Y., having lived there and in the vicinity for the last thirty-three years.

McMASTER & BRICE.

A GREAT WANT SUPPLIED.

SHOULD be preferred as a corrective and alternative to every other medicine in use. Firstly, it always cures; secondly, it cleanses the bowels without violence or pain; thirdly, it tones the stomach, fourthly, it regulates the flow of bile; fifthly, it promotes healthy perspiration; sixthly, it relieves the system from unwholesome humors; seventhly, it tranquilizes the nerves; eighthly, it acts upon the blood as a depurative; and lastly, it forms one of the most certain LIVER REGULATORS known.

It will remove wind from the bowels, and hence a few drops given to a babe is better than a dozen cordials to relieve and make it sleep. Containing no Anodyne. It will cure Constipation and keep the bowels regular. It will also cure the worst case of Summer Complaint and Dysentery. It will cure Sour Stomach, Stimulate the Liver to healthy action, relieve Heartburn, and act as a general regulator of the system.
