HOW WIVES WERE SECURED FOR GALLANT BACHELORS.

A Missouri Paper's Premiums to Subscribers-The Distribution of 240 Ladies.

From the Kansas City (Mo.) Times.

The great special premium distribution for unmarried gentlemen subscribers to the Times came off yesterday at the Opera House, as announced, and was a genuine sensation and unequivocal success. Between two and three o'clock the audience at the Opera House was largely increased by the presence of many ladies and gentlemen, attracted thither by the matrimonial drawing set for three o'clock. Every face wore a look of pleased expectancy, and when, shortly after three o'clock, the general premium distribution was announced as concluded, all faces wore a smile and expectation stood on tip-toe.

Mr. Frank R. Allen, stepping to the front of the stage, said that in behalf of the Times he would state that the drawing, though startlingly novel, was a genuine one. One hundred and sixteen young ladies, from far and near, had requested the Times to place their names on its list of matrimonial premiums, and with their requests had sent letters descriptive of themselves, their ages, looks, accomplishments, &c., and had at the same time sent their photographs and the consent of their parents that they should do so. In addition to this number there were many ladies who had asked a place on the special premium list, but had not as yet sent their photographs. From the mass of letters received, one hundred and twenty-four had been selected and their writers would be termed list No. 2, those who had sent photographs forming list No. 1. The list No. 1 would comprise one hundred and sixteen young ladies and the list No. 2 would comprise one hundred and twenty-four young ladies. Nearly one thousand gentlemen subscribers to the Times had applied for tickets in the special drawing, each one of whom had over his own signature stated he was an unmarried man, and desired to participate in the distribution. Mr. Allen stated that the Times was authorized to transmit the photograph and accompanying letter of every lady premium to the gentlemen who won their numbers, with the exception of some few young ladies who desired to hear from the Times in regard to the gentlemen before their photographs could be sent to the fortunate bachelor or widower. It was expected that a good many friendships would result from this interchange of correspondence between the fair premiums and Times bachelors and widowers, and more than one marriage. In case marriage resulted, the Times stood ready to fulfill each and every pledge it had made in regard thereto. After the subscribers' tickets were mixed thoroughly and the premium tickets also, the distribution commenced. The name and residence of each gentleman who won a prize was announced. The chairman, from the photographs before him, selected the picture of the lady who was won, and, without giving her name, gave a brief description of the lady as she appeared in her photograph, also reading some portions of her letter descriptive of herself, but in no case revealing the name of the lady. The novel drawing was throughout a pleasant and decorous affair. The Times will now notify by mail each of its fair special premiums of the gentleman whose name fortune has linked with her own, and will also, when authorized by the ladies, forward their photographs and letters to the lucky bachelors and widowers.

The Great Wall of China.

Kalgan commands one of the passes through the great wall of China. It is there built of large stone, cemented together with mortar. It tapers toward the top, being twenty-one feet high and twenty-eight feet wide at the foundation. At the most important points, less than a mile apart, square towers are erected, built of bricks. It winds over the crest of the mountains, crossing the valleys at right angles, blocking them with fortifications. The Chinese estimate its length to be about three thousand three hundred miles, but in parts more remote from Peking the wall is of inferior construction. There is nothing but a dilapidated mud rampart, as Colonel Prejevalsky saw it on the borders of Ala-shan and Kansu. It is said to have been built upward of two centuries before Christ, to protect the empire against the inroads of the neighboring nomads; but the periodical irruptions of the barbarians were never checked by this artificial barrier.

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

VEGETINE

Is not a vile, nauseous compound which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, reliable, and healthy medicine which is sure to purify the blood, and thereby restore the health.

VEGETINE

Is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

VEGETINE

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a ravenous appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

VEGETINE

Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

VEGETINE

Instead of being a putted-up medicine, has worked its way up to its present astonishing success by actual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

VEGETINE

Says a Boston physician, "Has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory, and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots, and herbs, each of which is highly effective; and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE

Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

PROOF.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

Boston, Feb. 13, 1871.

DEAR SIR:—About one year since, I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for the complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health. Respectfully yours, J. L. PETTINGILL, Firm of S. M. Pettingill & Co., 10 State St. Boston.

I HAVE FOUND

THE RIGHT MEDICINE.

BOSTON MASS.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS; DEAR SIR:—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information, having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the VEGETINE'S wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely. C. H. TUCKER, Pass.
