DEMOCRATIC TICKET,

FOR CLERK OF COURT, W. H. KERR.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,

R. E. ELLISON, SR., JOHN A. HINNANT, CORNELIUS R. MEANS,

Charleston suffered severely dur ing the late heated season. On Saturday the 28th ult., five men and one horse died of sun stroke. Three men and two women were struck on Monday, but none of the cases were fatal.

The Onio Democrats have nominated A. M. Bishop, a rich Cincinnatti grocer, for governor. He has not much experience in politics, but his popularity in Cincinnati is very great and as that city is the key of ent. In other words the originators the State, the Democrats in nomis of the "Citizens' Tieket" would have nating him have played a trump eard. Well informed, independant newspapers conceds Olio to the Democrats in October.

THE STRIKE, which began in the small town of Mortinsburg, West Virginia, spread through ten States, and inaugurated a reign of terror in terror in Pittsburg, Reading, Chieago, San Francisco, and other cities. Six governors applied for Federal troops, three ordered out the State militia, and one (Blue Jeans Williams, of Indiana) issued a proclamation but took no decided action. The mamoth proportions attained by the riot, shows that there is something rotten, some where, in our social system.

NEWBERRY REDEEMED berself last Legislature, a clerk of court and a county commissioner. Some Democrats thought themselves wiser than the Democratic convention and nominated a ticket headed by Col. C. H. Suber, who had refused to run, and was absent from the State, but on the day of election they suffered defeat. So be it wherever a few individuals place themselves in opposition to the majority of the party.

Collector Worthington has been summoned to Columbia before defeat those persons who have been the Investigating Committee. It is regularly nominated by a Demoroposed to ask him to make a clean cratic Convention. And that is breast of the details attendant upon exactly the way people view the the election of Honest John Patterson to the United States Senate. Worthington was Patterson's right bower in that small game, and has Captain Clowney's real and true ing out the bribe-money among the boys. This matter should be proped to the bottom. Patterson's incarceration would create a very desirable vacancy in the Senate.

The Consequences of Apathy.

The chief difficulty with which the Democratic party has to contend is apathy among the people. Since the inauguration of the straighout movement, over a year ago, the people have heen continuously agitated by politics, so that they now long for repose. It is very unfortunate that this continued agitation is necessary. But it was rendered unavoidable by the villainy of the Radi cal party; and as long as that serpent continues to wiggle its tail, this agitation will continue. A little extra exertion now, will end the turmoil. Carry the Democratic ticket through successfully this time, and it will never again meet with organized opposition. But should it be defeated by Republican votes through apathy or Democratic dissentions, success will be tenfold more difficult than before.

Fairfield is just now tottering in the balance, ready either to push on of the regular Democratic nominees. victoriously in the glorious Demo cratic phalanx, or to relapse back into her old ways. We are standing to-day at the fork of two roads. It is just as easy now to go one way be a party to their machinations.

The News and Berald as the other. But once set the Sooner or later the eyes of the The State of South Carolina, false step now cannot be retraced. Forward then. Let our motto be "No footsteps backward."

COUNTY POLITICS.

Thoughts on the Cltizens' Ticket by one who advocated Captain Clowney's nomination by the Democratic Con-

Messrs. Editors: It is to be regretted, in my humble judgment, that the discussion with reference to the "Citizens" Ticket," falsely so-called, has been carried into public print. But inasmuch as it has been done, it seems eminently proper that the whole subject should be thoroughly, and at the same time, dispassionately ventilated, and looked at precisely as it is presented. One good end certainly can be subscreed by agitating the matter through a medium that is accessible to all classes of reasonable citizens, and that is to show up the true inwardness of a movement that, claiming to be one thing, is in reality and practically something wholly differthe public believe that they represent the people in their efforts to defeat the regular Democratic nominees, whereas the true state of the case is that they represent nobody but themselves and a small faction of Democrats, who without one thought for the future of the Democratic party, and utterly regardless of solemn pledges entered into to sustain their party candidates, would now with the assist ance of the sworn enemies of Democracy, pull down the organization that made South Carolina what it is to-day—an organization that has lifted the people from a condition of political serfdom, and that has restored to our country all the blessings and benefits of free government. Can the supporters of the "Citizene' Ticket" done that their conduct does not inevitably lead to such a conclusion? Has not Captain Clowney said both publicly and privately that he is not a candi date, and has he not appealed to those who seem determined to force him into a candidacy, "not to do anything to disturb the harmony that should exist in the county? Not heeding such an appeal, and always enjoyed the credit of divid- friends repudiate a movement that places him in a false position, and protest against such a course of political action. The writer of this communication was one of those who warmly espoused Captain Nets, &c. Clowney's cause, and advocated his nomination with all the ability he possesses. Therefore the sentiments herein uttered are not prompted by prejudice, but are the honest views of a citizen who desires to be both generous and consistent. And furthermore, Messrs. Editors, as one of the many friends of Captain Clowney, my sole wish and aim is to lay bare a scheme that would make an unwilling instru ment of an estimable gentleman to gratify a spirit of revenge and spite. Such conduct is unworthy of the countenance of fairminded, honorable men, and deserves to be exposed. Well might Captain Clowney exclaim, still persisting in their course, the conclusion is irresistible that their only object is, not to make Captain

Clowney clerk of court, but to matter who are not governed by prejudice or purely personal con-

"save me from such friends."
Lastly, let me ask those who support the "Citizens' Ticket" if they have ever seriously considered what calamities are sure to follow closely upon the success of their efforts? Have they ever reflected that they cannot possibly succeed without the full vote of the negroes, and that their victory will revive the defunct Radical party, not in the election of their candidates, but in the defeat Is it their purpose to destroy the Democratic party? If so, let them say so, and not mask their intentions under a pretended friendship for a gentleman who has declined to county going either way, and vis masses will be opened, and I earn-inertia will carry her along. A estly call upon these misguided men to stop in their mad career, before that storm of indignation, that is surely rising, bursts upon their heads. Let them listen to reason, for their efforts if successful will lead to results that they little dream of at this time.
