

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CLERK OF COURT,

W. H. KERR.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,

Now, with regard to this "one-sided selfish mob," Messrs. Fant and McCarley took a very active part in the organization of that "mob," particularly Mr. Fant.

From several portions of the county reports come that the Radicals are actively organizing. Andy Stewart is working along the Wateree, while John Gibson, Joe Thompson, Isaac B. Smith of Rhode Island, and others are moving in the Eastern portion.

COUNTY POLITICS.

A Rejoinder from "Straight Out."

FAIRFIELD, S. C.

August 4th, 1877.

Messrs. Editors:

We have again been enlightened in this bright corner by the reception of THE NEWS AND HERALD, and learned for the first time that those who live nearest to the Democratic nominees for clerk will not support the ticket.

Now, with regard to this "one-sided selfish mob," Messrs. Fant and McCarley took a very active part in the organization of that "mob," particularly Mr. Fant.

Of whom was this "one-sided selfish, persecuting mob" composed? Of delegates elected by the different clubs or "mobs" of the county.

We are now told by Messrs. Fant and McCarley that in order to save the county from Radical rule and a Democratic defeat, we must vote a ticket suggested by the chairman of the Republican party, and endorsed by themselves—which ticket can only expect or claim the support of perhaps one or two hundred white votes in the county, and that vote mainly attributable to the family connections and strong personal friendships existing between their candidate and certain citizens of the county.

It may be, Messrs. Editors, that this "Citizens' Ticket" was gotten up with the best intentions, but in this dark corner where the moon seldom ever shines, think it a scheme concocted by members of the Winnsboro "mob" and endorsed by the Republicans, to defeat the will of the majority of the county "mob."

We are also charged by the card of Messrs. Fant and McCarley as having ignored the invaluable services rendered by Captain Clowney in time of great need. Now these services may be real or imaginary, we care not.

But our organization is not one of rewards and punishments. We base our action on the broad Democratic principle, that the majority shall rule, and had Captain Clowney or any other than our present nominee, however "weak" he may be, been nominated, we should have given him our strongest support, not as a reward for services rendered, but because he was the nominee of the county "mob."

We are satisfied, notwithstanding that Messrs. Fant and McCarley disclaim any but the best intentions in their coalition with the Republican party, that there is a right smart "nigger in the woodpile" somewhere.

No possible good could come from the proposition to withdraw our ticket, and have a mass meeting. What guarantee have we that this mass meeting would not be also termed a "one-sided, selfish, persecuting mob?"

As to the remark about seeing for the first time a Republican clerk in Fairfield, of that more anon. I will passingly remark, however, that there are people in this county of the opinion that we have had a Republican; to say the least of it, one that has never publicly denied that he was such, and if he is one we honor him all the more for being true to his convictions.

To protect ourselves from a "Republican Clerk," about which Messrs. Fant and McCarley are afraid, we would have only to stick together, and then, even if the Radicals out-voted us, refuse to go upon their candidates' bonds.

We also think, Messrs. Editors, that the charge of "rule or ruin" is misapplied in this case, for it does seem to us that the cap exactly fits the "Citizens' Ticket."

In conclusion, we appeal to the gentlemen on the simple ground of right and of justice, of doing as they would be done by. Lay aside all personal considerations in this matter, and give your support to the regular nominees of the Democratic party.

Messrs. Fant and McCarley reply to "Hope."

Messrs. Editors:

Hope deferred maketh the heart sick. The communication of "Hope" deserves a passing notice. If we were not following in the path marked out by the noble Hampton; if we were departing from the sound judgment of Fairfield's Executive Committee, then would he have added charity to "Hope" in his offers of amnesty.

petition of these Union Leaguers by the Executive Committee, and other and various acts looking to the disorganization of the Radical party, and that we are not those who have left the ranks of the true Democracy, but that we occupy the same position that all of us occupied last fall, but must say that "Hope" has strayed with his party into forbidden paths.

A Novel in one Chapter.

The following is from a Paris paper. It may be true, but it is more likely to be a product of the imagination. As a story it is rather good: "Here is the story of an unfortunate young lawyer. This unlucky wight was head over heels in love with a beautiful girl, and was about to be married to her. On the eve of the wedding day he was called in to defend an awful miscreant—a man of thirty—who had poisoned his mother and father.

NOT THAT WAY.—Seated on the extreme end of a narrow bench in the Central Market yesterday was a boy who seemed to have made up his mind that life was a sham and happiness, a myth. He was solemnly and intently gazing at a collection of four cabbage heads, six beets, a peck of onions, and three cucumbers, when along came a young man and asked:

"What ails you?" "Struck!" was the solemn answer. "Have, eh? How'd you come out?"

"I was working for dad at fifty cents a day," sadly explained the boy on the bench. "I was the only hand, and I thought if I struck for a dollar a day he'd lay to shut up shop and be bursted, or come to my terms."

"And did it turn out that way?" queried the other.

"Not quite. The old man didn't seem a bit terror-stricken, but he bounced me through a window, and hired another boy to do my work at three shillings a day!"

"And what then?" "Well I s'pose I'll have to go around telling the boys that capital has ground me into the dust" was the fearful reply.—Detroit Free Press.

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

VEGETINE

Is not a vile, nauseous compound which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy, which is sure to purify the blood, and thereby restore the health.

VEGETINE

Is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

VEGETINE

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a feigning appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

VEGETINE

Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

VEGETINE

Instead of being a puffed-up medicine, has worked it way up to its present astonishing success by actual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

VEGETINE

Says a Boston physician, "Has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory, and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots, and herbs, each of which is highly effective; and they are compounded in a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE

Is recognized and recommended by physicians and apothecaries as the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

PROOF.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

Boston, Feb. 13, 1871.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: DEAR SIR:—About one year since, I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for these complaints, for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health. Respectfully yours,

U. L. PETTINGILL, Firm of S. M. Pettingill & Co., 10 State St. Boston.

I HAVE FOUND

THE RIGHT MEDICINE.

Boston Mass.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: DEAR SIR:—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was a quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions, and I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. I will make mention also of the VEGETINE's wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.
