The "working men" of Ohio have nominated a State ticket. Its supporters will be strikers and Communists.

The Massachusetts voter will have to choose between Rice and Gaston this year, as he did two years ago.

Kentucky has elected a Democratic State treasurer by a hundred thousand majority, an increase of thirty thousand.

If Ohio is lost, says the New York Commercial Advertiser, "it will be in consequence of the ridiculous and crazy utterings of Judge West and Stanley Matthews."

"Brick" Pomeroy and Stanley Matthews stand lovingly together on the Ohio Republican platform. Matthews is a Communist after Brick's own heart.

The Greenbackers of Ohio have held a meeting and determined to keep their ticket in the field. Speakers are going upon the stump, and in a few weeks the State will be inflated with repudiation oratory.

The Northern papers are almost unanimous against the government's granting subsidies for Southern improvements. The North had a full swing for years at the public treasury.

The Prohibition party of Wisconsin, to the overwhelming number of fifty-six, assembled at Ripon the other day and nominated a full State ticket, with J. C. Hall, of Oshkosh, for governor, and winding up the ticket with Rev. J. W. Carhart, of Oshkosh, for superintendent of public instruction.

The Dayton Democrat, which may possibly be prejudiced, announces that the colored Republicans of Ohio are very indignant at the course things are taking under the Hayes administration, and they are going to improve matters by voting the Democratic ticket this fall.

Mr. Hamm, of the Dubuque Herald, is the leading Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial nomination in Iowa, and a Mr. Eggs, at present a member of the Legislature, is suggested for lieutenant-governor. Those who are suffering from hard times would go for Hamm and Eggs with a decided relish.

The Mint investigation at San Francisco progresses well. At a recent hearing it was proved that a Sacramento politician, while under indictment for a cold-blooded murder, was for two years an employe of the Mint and was drawing pay from the government while at Sacramento trying to get his case continued.

Colonel Holliday, the Democratic candidate for governor of Virginia, left an arm on the battle-field of Cedar Mountain. He is a brilliant orator and an indomitable worker, but has heretofore persistently refused office. He is a strenuous opponent of repudiation.

The Georgia Convention is dragging its slow length along, and seems to be pleasing nobody. It has repudiated several millions of Bullock's bonds, and is cutting down salaries generally. The trouble is that it is going too much into details.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer makes the point on Judge West, Republican candidate for governor of Ohio, that when he was in the Legislature he was the leading champion of an unjust apportionment of the State in order that he might get into Congress. He scoured the passage of his gerrymander, and ran for Congress in the district that he had cut out for himself; but such was his personal unpopularity that he was defeated. This doesn't make a wary good beginning.

A San Francisco newspaper, which is not altogether friendly to the Democrats, notes the fact that the party is making splendid nominations for the Legislature in California. In no instance have they nominated a candidate of questionable antecedents or inferior ability. They have judiciously selected their representative men—men of character, men of experience, men of ability, men of influence." There is a determination to beat Sargent, which is going to succeed.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL FRED GRANT doesn't find military life such a luxury as he did a few short weeks ago, when he had more influence with the administration. A few days ago the Lieutenant Colonel was ordered to do duty with the troops stationed at Chicago, and on Sunday, accompanied by his wife, called on his friend, Mrs. Potter Palmer, at one of the hotels. While engaged in performing this important social duty a squad of regulars, in command of an officer, marched to the hotel, and in spite of all protests, marched Lieutenant Colonel Fred back to camp. The young man will not be very likely to go roaming around again without leave of absence—he will have to learn to be a real soldier now.

SENATOR MERRIMON, of North Carolina, has been talking plainly to his people in an address at Chapel Hill. Tracing the history of North Carolina from the day when it stood third in the Union until now, when it stands fourteenth, he dwelt upon its natural resources and its extent, and then pointed indignantly to its poverty, the paucity of its mines and manufactures and the illiteracy of its people, of whom, he said, 338,000 cannot read. He did not hesitate to draw a comparison with Ohio in order to humble the State pride of his hearers, still further, and as the great remedy for the ills of the Commonwealth he recommended work.

GENERAL TOOMBS, in discussing the corporation question in the Georgia Convention again avowed his intention to defend his cause before the High Court of Heaven. Is it not a little imprudent for the General to make arrangements for appealing his many cases to a tribunal in which he may not be admitted to practice?

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

VEGETINE

Is not a vile, nauseous compound which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy, which is sure to purify the blood, and thereby restore the health.

VEGETINE

Is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

VEGETINE

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a fictitious appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

VEGETINE

Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

VEGETINE

Instead of being a ruffed-up medicine, has worked its way up to its present astonishing success by actual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

VEGETINE

Says a Boston physician, "Has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory, and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots, and herbs, out of which is highly effective; and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE

Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries as the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

Boston, Feb. 13, 1871.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: DEAR SIR:—About one year since, I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health. Respectfully yours,

U. L. PETTINGILL, Firm at S. M. Pettingill & Co., 10 State St. Boston.

I HAVE FOUND

THE RIGHT MEDICINE.

BOSTON MASS.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: DEAR SIR:—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly affected with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the VEGETINE'S wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

This is a compound remedy, prepared with scientific skill from vegetable ingredients, which rarely fails to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever and the concomitant disorders. Such a remedy the necessities of the people in malarious districts demand. Its great superiority over any other medicine yet discovered for the cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no quinine or mineral, and those who take it are free from danger of quinine or any injurious effects, and are as healthy after using it as before. It has been extensively employed during the last thirty years in the treatment of these distressing disorders, and so unvarying has been its success that it has gained the reputation of being infallible. It can, therefore, be safely recommended as a sure remedy and specific for the Fever and Ague of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South. It counteracts the miasmatic poison in the blood, and frees the system from its influence, so that fever and ague, shakes or chills, once broken up by it, do not return until the disease is again contracted.

The great variety of disorders which arise from the irritation of this poison, such as Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Splenic Affections, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which become intermittent or periodical, have no speedier remedy than AYER'S AGUE CURE, which cures them all alike, and protects the system from future attacks. As a preventive, it is of immense service in those communities where Fever and Ague prevails, as it stays the development of the disease if taken on the first approach of the premonitory symptoms. Travellers and temporary residents are thus enabled to defy these disorders, and few will ever suffer if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity, it is an excellent remedy; it stimulates this organ into healthy activity, and produces many remarkable cures where other medicines fail.
