Notice—R. L. Dannenberg.

Every man should do his whole duty to day.

Judge Kershaw passed through Winnsboro Saturday on his way to hold court in Yorkville. He is looking well.

There was a match game of base ball yesterday between Jackson's Creek and Winnsboro. We have not yet learned the result.

The Southern Cultivator for September has been received, and is full of reading matter. This magazine is one of very long standing—a circumstance strongly indicative, in these hard times, of its great excellence.

AN ESCAPE.—On Saturday last, Trial Justice Elkin had before him Jim Crump, a somewhat notorious character, on the charge of burglary. The evidence against him being sufficient, he was committed to the guard-house temporarily, with a view to keep him secure till he could be put in the county jail. But on Saturday night he broke out of the guard-house, and is again at large. Crump has quite a notoriety in Kershaw and Richland counties, and he should be recaptured, that he may receive his deserts. People should be on the lookout for him, that he may be brought to justice.

A SENSATION AT THE SPRINGS.
 The Mysterious Revelation that Put to Flight the Lady Guests at the White Sulphur.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, under date of August 24, makes the following mention of a sensation at that place:

"Thursday furnished somewhat of a female sensation, the details of which have not yet fully transpired. It appears that a certain lady visitor from Washington has for some past been endeavoring to make a little notoriety by a recital of her experience in New Orleans under the administration of General B. F. Butler. The lady formerly lived in Savannah, Ga., but moved to Washington some time previous to the war. When hostilities began this lady took every occasion to display her secession proclivities by words and acts, and made herself considerably obnoxious to the authorities there. As a consequence of this Mr. Seward, in order to rid himself of a troublesome customer, sent the lady South—to New Orleans—where she was when it was taken possession of by General Butler. Here her rebellious sentiments got the better of her discretion, and for jeering at the passing funeral of a Union officer she was imprisoned for six months. This imprisonment is the subject of the story which she has to tell. Now for the sequel. Finding it impossible to obtain a select audience before which she could relate her prison experience under the immaculate Ben, she summoned the ladies from the parlor to the ball-room. They came in force and accompanied by male escorts. When all had entered the lady ordered all the gentlemen to withdraw, as her revelations were such as could not be made in the presence of both sexes. The gentlemen then withdrew and the revelations began. What the nature of these were cannot be ascertained, but certain it is that when they reached a certain point, an allusion being made to the relative of a lady present, the audience broke up and the ladies fled precipitately. Perhaps General Butler can rise and explain. Certain it is that those here who would cannot, and those that can will not. The matter remains an impenetrable mystery, and since it occurred has been the chief topic of conversation among all the male and female gossips at the Springs."

A quantity of steel rails have been purchased for the Air Line railroad.

Another Falshood Exposed.

WASHINGTON, August 30.—A special to the New York Times says: "Chief Justice Carter, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, says that he has made up his mind to refuse to honor any requisition from Governor Hampton in case the latter should call upon him for the arrest of Cardozo and other South Carolina Republicans, now in Washington, who are said to have been indicted by a Democratic grand jury in that State." Judge Carter says that he has not thought about the matter, and will not give it any consideration until it becomes necessary for him to do so. In that case he will probably consult the President, who can very soon tell him whether or not Hampton is recognized as the legal Governor of the State.

ALBERT MEYER, of Boston, during twelve years paid the premiums on $25,000 of life insurance. The burden was too heavy for his business, and was the cause of his bankruptcy; but he struggled hard and successfully to make the payments, believing that by doing so he was securing his family against poverty after his death. Within two years one after another of the companies in which he was insured have gone to pieces, and when he died, several weeks ago, all his policies were worthless. His wife and children are penniless.

THE NEW TOWN HALL AT AYER.—This elegant structure is now complete. In beauty of design it surpasses anything of the kind in the State. Constructed of brick and dark marble, it is as permanent as it is charming. The English architects have adorned it in subdued colors, which please without tiring the eye. Dr. J. C. Ayer built and gave it to the town in acknowledgment of the distinction they conferred upon him in taking his name. Although it is a generous gift, still the hearty good wishes of a whole people are of greater value, and the generous donor has doubtless secured them.—Groton (Mass.) Journal.

Blind Tom is now in New York under the tutelage of Joseph Poznanski, a well known musical professor, and is said to be improving marvelously. His wonderful gift appears to increase as he grows older. Of course he continues to learn everything by ear.

WHAT is more common or distressing than a bilious attack? Who is not familiar with the well known symptoms? Oppression across the stomach and chest, low spirits, restlessness, gloominess of mind, weakness, dull headache, dirty, greasy appearance of the skin, yellow tinge of the whites of the eyes, loss of appetite, and costiveness. Simmons' Hepatic Compound will cure you.

Is mild and gentle in its action. It removes the bile from the whole system. It gives tone and strength to the whole frame. It gives the Liver a healthy character, and restores the sinking and drooping body to health and strength. This medicine has been tried by thousands and never found wanting. Under its influence the face will have the bloom of health, the eye its lustre, the brain its power. It will invigorate the feeble, and prove the greatest blessing to those who suffer.

Try it for yourselves and you will recommend it.
