The negroes held a grand Liberia pow-wow at Ridgeway on Saturday, the 15th inst.

The Hampton Rifle Guard met Mr. J. Q. Davis at Ridgeway on his return, with three rousing cheers for himself and his bride.

The young men of Ridgeway have invested heavily this fall in long tail blacks. Do they mean business?

Ridgeway boasts of a bowling alley, and a billiard and bagatelle room is in course of erection.

The following are the prices of cotton for the past two days: Saturday, 9½; Monday, 9½.

A constant reader of the THE NEWS AND HERALD writes: "I read it with interest, and think it the best weekly in the State."

Rev. Jno. W. Kelly preached on Sunday night in the Methodist church to a large congregation. The sermon was an able one.

We have been pleased to meet Mr. E. A. Nelson, formerly of Winnsboro and now of Columbia. He is on a short visit to his relatives here.

The town council at Ridgeway is building a bridge across the Railroad cut opposite the Methodist church.

Mr. A. F. Ruff, of the firm of Ruff & Cloud, has returned from a business trip North. Mr. J. A. Grigsby, of the firm of Gladden & Grigsby, has returned from a similar trip to Charleston.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Dr. Isaiah Simpson, Surgeon Dentist, Charlotte, N. C., respectfully informs the citizens and public generally that he will visit Winnsboro, S. C., professionally, on the 24th day of September, and remain ten or fifteen days. Call early and save confusion at the last. Teeth extracted without pain. Terms Cash. Satisfaction guaranteed. 3w7

On the afternoon of the 11th inst. during the rain, the citizens of Ridgeway were surprised at the novel spectacle of a fawn running through the town. The animal had evidently been chased from its haunts, and losing its bearings ran through Means street, thence up Church street, and down Palmer street, and up the Rocky Mount road. It was caught by dogs on Saturday morning within the corporate limits. Twenty-years ago, a deer ran through Ridgeway taking the same direction.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mr. W. G. Roche, merchant tailor, announces that he has removed to the store next to the post-office. He has recently added to his supply of samples, and is now ready to suit the taste of everybody. We bespeak for him a liberal patronage.

Mr. Charles Muller, the popular watch-maker, announces himself ready to receive any business that may be brought to him. He is too well known to require commendation.

Mr. U. G. Desportes offers, in addition to his usual good assortment of articles in his line, some extra fine cheese. This is an excellent article, and cheese lovers should get some at once.

At the annual meeting of the Hampton Rifle Guard of Ridgeway, on September 13th, the following officers were elected: R. S. Desportes, Captain; W. G. Hinnant, first lieutenant; J. A. Grigsby, second lieutenant; A. F. Ruff, third lieutenant; E. P. Davis, R. W. Bolick, T. J. Price, W. McQuarters, Charles Lowther, sergeants. The corporals will be chosen subsequently. It was resolved to celebrate the anniversary on the 20th inst., and Captain Desportes, and Messrs. E. P. Davis, John M. Edmunds and W. H. Ruff were appointed a committee, to prepare a programme of amusements.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Most Excellent Remedy.

ATLANTA, GA., March 12, 1870.
I have examined the recipe of Bradford's Female Regulator, and from my knowledge of the ingredients, believe it a most excellent medicine, and well suited to that class of diseases designated. I have no hesitation in advising its use, and confidently recommend it to the public.
