Best cotton on Monday brought 10.10

The storms of the past week have been hard on cotton.

The Mount Zion Society will meet on Thursday to consider matters of importance to the school. It is hoped that there will be a full attendance.

Mr. Jas. A. Brice has returned. Mrs. J. O. Boag has returned with a full line of supplies.

The farmers of Township Twelve are to meet Saturday at Paul's Spring to take into consideration the fence law. They have no idea of being fenced out, or made a common pasture ground for other townships, through the stupidity or malignity of non-taxpaying voters. They are right.

Owing to the prevalence of the quincennial storm the anniversary celebration of the Hampton Rifle Guard, of Ridgeway, was postponed until Thursday September 27. Ladies are particularly invited to take part in the pleasures of the occasion. Col. H. C. Davis will award the prizes.

Why doesn't some enterprising individual erect a few neat cottages in town? Every January there is demand for small dwellings which cannot be satisfied. It would seem that a house costing from eight hundred to a thousand dollars could be a paying investment.

The Women's Auxiliary Association have turned over their funds in hand, amounting to over sixty dollars, to the Mount Zion Society for the improvement of the school. This is a most liberal donation, and well timed. There could not be more worthy object.

The incomparable Sol Smith Russell will visit Winnsboro on Saturday night. His impersonations at the entertainment of the Berger family several years since, furnished food for laughter for weeks. Sol is said to be better than ever, now, and everybody should come and hear him.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Dr. Isaiah Simpson, Surgeon Dentist, Charlotte, N. C., respectfully informs the citizens and public generally that he will visit Winnsboro, S. C., professionally, on the 24th day of September, and remain ten or fifteen days. Call early and save confusion at the last. Teeth extracted without pain. Terms Cash. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The article on German Millet has been kindly handed us by Mr. Dunn, of the firm of Doty & Co., who have had large experience with the cultivation of millet, and have been very successful. Millet has now been tried three or four years, and it seems admirably adapted to our wants. Good crops can be raised from land after wheat or oats are cut.

Mr. Phillips' new furniture store is a vast improvement on his old one. It is situated on the old Hilliard corner. The building is quite handsome in appearance. The lower story is devoted to furniture, and is well filled with new and tasty articles, at moderate prices. His stock in undertakers' goods is kept in the second story. Mr. Phillips is able to accommodate persons of all ages, from the cradle to the grave.

OPEN AIR FESTIVAL.—We take great pleasure in announcing that an open air festival will be opened to-night in the grove of Mr. Reynolds' residence. Refreshments of different kinds will be served, and music furnished by both the brass and string bands. The proceeds of the festival will be donated to Mount Zion Institute. We commend this enterprise to the patronage of the whole community.

As previously announced, the Adjutant and Inspector General will visit Winnsboro on the 10th of October to review the military companies of the county. The volunteer companies will be inspected at 4 p. m. The following is an extract from the order:

Whenever companies are not uniformed, they will appear in dark colored clothes, with black felt hats, and neatly arranged. Care should be taken to present as much similarity of color and style as possible. White gloves, and boots carefully polished, will add much to the general appearance of such commands. Not less than fifty men will pass inspection, and no excuse for arms or equipments out of order, or showing indications of neglect will be allowed. Commands which cannot pass inspection will be disbanded, and all companies which cannot be prepared had as well surrender their arms and equipments.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.—The Rev. W. W. Mills exchanged pulpits on Sunday with the Rev. C. E. Chichester. The latter having tendered his resignation as pastor of Scion Presbyterian church, a congregational meeting was held to consider it and decided not to accept it. Mr. Chichester is a zealous laborer, and we should be sorry to lose him unless his sphere of usefulness could be enlarged.

The Rev. W. H. Campbell is now rector of St. Paul's church, Charleston. This is a larger field than that offered by St. Luke's to which he was first called. Mr. Campbell is very popular in Charleston.

Some time since the Presbyterian church in Columbia called the Rev. Mr. Brackett from Charleston. His congregation refused to give him up. We have not heard what his determination will be.

The sun entered the Sign Libra on Saturday, thus marking the beginning of autumn. The moon also instead of rising as it usually does, later on one day than on the preceding one, has risen on three or four successive evenings just as the sun sinks out of sight in the evening. This phenomenon is owing to the fact that the moon is in Aries when the part of the ecliptic below the horizon makes the least angle with it. The farmer, busy with his harvest, an opportunity is given him for several evenings with light sufficient to continue his operations after sunset. In former times husbandmen, not doubting that it was so ordered on purpose to give them an increased supply of moonlight for their greater convenience in reaping the fruits of the earth gave the name of "Harvest" moon to this particular full moon. The planets Mars and Saturn were in conjunction with the moon on Friday, and all these bodies shone with unusual brilliancy.
