NEWS OF THE DAY.

Another Ohio treasurer has defaulted.

A pocket-book containing $200,000 in bonds, stocks, &c., is missing from the bank safe at Cortland, New York.

The yellow fever is raging at Fernandina, Florida. Aid has been sent from Savannah, Charleston, New York and other cities.

The New Jersey Republicans have nominated a dark horse, Williams for governor. He has been put up for McClellan to knock down.

Fifty thousand workmen of Northumberland and Durham, England, gave General Grant a reception at Newcastle on the 22d inst.

The Chicago grand jury has indicted certain officers of the State Savings Bank for embezzlement of $700,000. None of them are in the city, nor are their whereabouts known. The Fidelity Savings Bank of the same place has also closed its doors.

Gambetta, the French Republican leader, has been sentenced to 2000 francs fine and three months imprisonment, for assailing President MacMahon in a public speech. A number of Republican papers have been suspended.

Very heavy frauds are reported in the management of the Philadelphia City Passenger Railway Company. Stock representing over three million dollars has been fraudulently issued, of course with the connivance of the officers, one of whom is the president of the Philadelphia Permanent Exhibition.

Strenuous efforts are now making to consolidate the friends of the Texas Pacific Railroad in asking aid from Congress for its construction. A systematic plan of operation is matured, into which enters the subject of the election of a Speaker of the House favorable to the project.

The New York Herald reports that there is a formidable movement on foot to defeat Gen. James A. Walker, the Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor, because he openly opposes a readjustment of the State debt. An Independent candidate is proposed.

Leverrier, the great French astronomer is dead. It was he who first suggested the existence of a planet nearer the sun than Mercury, which planet was subsequently discovered and named Vulcan, and which is only 13,000,000 miles from the sun, and revolves once around it every twenty days.

A telegram from General Sturgis represents that he has been reinforced. He followed the hostiles thirty-eight miles Sunday, killed five, and regained six hundred head of horses. The Crows are fighting the Nez Percés and have brought into the agency seven hundred horses.

Sitting Bull, with 1,000 warriors, is in the heart of the Canadian buffalo country, near Wood Mountains. Joseph's band is heading straight north. Nearly all the northern tribes are believed to be ready for the revolt, and all can cross the Canadian border in three days, and would number over 4,000 warriors, exclusive of Sitting Bull's 1,000, and all will join the latter if it is thought politic. Sitting Bull is amply supplied with ammunition, and other tribes are rapidly procuring it from the Canadians. All the Indians profess an utter contempt for United States troops and the government. Sitting Bull told a Catholic priest he would never conform or have anything to do with the American officers, as they were all liars.

Hon. Louis V. Boggs, the deceased Senator from Missouri, was of French extraction. He spoke with great ability on all subjects that came up before the Senate. He characterized Judge Bradley as the American Norbury. His latter days were clouded by the pecuniary misfortunes of his son.

CLEANSSES the bowels without violence. It purges the system, promotes healthy perspiration, relieves the system from unwholesome humors, tranquilizes the nerves, acts upon the blood as a depurative, and forms one of the most certain LIVER REGULATORS known. WHAT IS MORE DISTRESSING THAN A BILIOUS ATTACK? Who is not more familiar with the well-known symptoms? Oppression across the stomach and chest, low spirits, restlessness, gloominess of mind, weakness, dull headache, dirty, greasy appearance of the skin, yellow tinge of the whites of the eyes, loss of appetite, and constiveness. Few indeed, of the mercurial ills of life are more widely prevalent than the bilious disorders, and yet they may readily be got rid of by using Simmons' Hepatic Compound.

Sarsaparilla

For Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Eruptions and Eruptive diseases of the skin, Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Blotches, Tumors, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine disease, Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, General Debility, and for Purifying the Blood.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives—Stillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock—with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure.

Its ingredients are so skillfully combined that the full alterative effect of each is assured, and while it is so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the confidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it proves their experience of its usefulness.

Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sarsaparilla over every other alterative medicine. So generally is its superiority to any other medicine known that we need do no more than to assure the public that the best qualities it has ever possessed are strictly maintained.
