detect. Beware of the glib people who are going to give you something for nothing; beware of all circulars that emanate from Bond or Bleeker Street, and pay no attention to any kind of an advertisement that has only a post-office address. The latest swindle out is the Louisville Lottery Association, aided by Russell & Co., 37, Bond Street. Look out for their circulars, and if you have won a gold watch don't send for it. While no mail is impenetrable to the rascals who make bogus advertising a calling, if what I have written shall save a single reader from being swindled I shall feel that I have not labored in vain.

At seven o'clock last evening Miss Lizzie Graham, a most estimable young lady, died, after intense suffering, and at a later hour Miss McCall was lying at the point of death. Mrs. Graham and her little boys are all in the same condition, with little hope of their recovery.

Miss Lizzie Graham was a young lady of great culture and refinement, having graduated at Miss Etta A. Kelly's Seminary, but two years ago, with the first honor, and since that time she has assisted Miss Kelly at her school.

She has a host of friends in this community, who are sadly stricken at her untimely end. Last night a large concourse of the afflicted friends of the family remained at the house to assist the four physicians who remained, in ministering to the suffering family.

In consequence of the death of Miss Elizabeth H. Graham, the coroner requests us to say that he will have the analysis of the contents of the stomach, with the stomach itself, the liver and other organs of the colored girl, performed by Professor Shephard, at his own expense if necessary.

ELEGANT HAIR is woman's crowning beauty. When it fades, she fades as well. While it is kept bright, her personal attractions are still maintained. By preserving the hair fresh and vigorous a youthful appearance is continued through many years. Those who grieve over their fading hair turning gray too early, should know that Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents it, and restores gray or faded hair to its natural color. It is a clear and healthful preparation, containing neither oil, dye, nor anything deleterious, and imparts to the scalp what is most needed—a sense of pleasant and delightful freedom from scurf or dandruff.—New Bern (N. C.) Times.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
