POLITICAL NOTES.

On the bench is the only place where Hayes can put Stanley Matthews out of the reach of the ballot-boxes.

Congress ought to go to work with a knowledge of the fact that the people of this country loudly demand a resumption of reform.

The Democrats of Bucks county, Pennsylvania, have resolved that Hayes' inauguration was a fraud. Information of this kind is becoming very general.

The only man defeated on the Republican Legislative ticket in Cleveland, Ohio, was the colored nominee. The colored man can no longer depend upon his "friends."

Packard to Hayes on the Ohio election—"I told you so." Evidently somebody fished in Ohio very successfully with Packard's bait and tackle.

Stanley Matthews was sworn in as Senator from Ohio on the 15th, and the soft winds about the Capitol whispered of forty-two Democratic majority just elected in the Ohio Legislature.

An ex-Confederate soldier sits in the Hayes Cabinet, and the ex-Vice President of the ex-Confederacy nominated Mr. Randall for Speaker in the Democratic caucus.

Cameron hasn't delivered himself on the Ohio election, and hasn't been interviewed since the Buckeye majorities have pretty much all been flooded away and the Democratic river is still rising.

Cox lost his temper because the New York delegation decided that the State would not claim the Speaker. He had the constitutional right to differ from them, and he did it with violent and profane energy.

The Cincinnati Commercial is of the opinion that the President wasn't sufficiently indorsed in the Republican platform. There seems to be a lack of something of that kind in the returns from the Western Reserve also.

Sergeant-at-Arms French, of the Senate, promptly denies the statement, originated by the Washington correspondent of a Cincinnati paper, that he has been doing anything so foolish as the signing of duplicate certificates.

Judge Black goes to New Orleans to prosecute the Louisiana fraudulent returning board, and ex-Congressmen Shellabarger, of Ohio, and Wilson, of Iowa, are to defend them. Is the game worth the powder that's to be wasted on it?

The Chicago Tribune has joined the army of Secretary Sherman's enemies and demands that he either abandon his resumption scheme or resign. Public opinion all points that way, but Sherman is loth.

And now if Tilden joins Conkling to overthrow Kelly and swings New York into the Republican column, while Massachusetts tumbles over to the Democracy, where will the confusion end? In that case who could straighten out the tangled political skeins of 1877?

The Nebraska Republicans met in State Convention, nominated a ticket, and, after lively filibustering over the issue, tabled a resolution indorsing the President by 131 to 129. Judging by the result in Iowa and Maine, they will now be able to give an increased Republican majority.

Patterson is sometimes logical if not always honest. He says that if Wade Hampton is the proper man for Governor of South Carolina, Butler must be the proper man to represent that State in the Senate. Patterson being right once in his life, we record it for the sake of reference.

West thinks it was Matthews; Matthews thinks it was West; Garfield thinks it was both; Sherman thinks it was all three; Halstead thinks there were four of them, and Deacon Smith thinks it was all of them and pretty much everybody else, who lost Ohio. Probably none of them are entirely wrong.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

This is a compound remedy, prepared with scientific skill from vegetable ingredients, which rarely fails to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever and the concomitant disorders. Such a remedy the necessities of the people in malarious districts demand. Its great superiority over any other medicine yet discovered for the cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no quinine or mineral, and those who take it are free from danger of quinine or any injurious effects, and are as healthy after using it as before. It has been extensively employed during the last thirty years in the treatment of these distressing disorders, and so unvarying has been its success that it has gained the reputation of being infallible. It can, therefore, be safely recommended as a sure remedy and specific for the Fever and Ague of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South. It counteracts the miasmatic poison in the blood, and frees the system from its influence, so that fever and ague, shivers or chills, once broken up by it, do not return until the disease is again contracted.

The great variety of disorders which arise from the irritation of this poison, such as Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Splenic Affections, Hysteria, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which become intermittent or periodical, have no speedier remedy than AYER'S AGUE CURE, which cures them all alike, and protects the system from future attacks. As a preventive, it is of immense service in those communities where Fever and Ague prevails, as it stays the development of the disease if taken on the first approach of the premonitory symptoms. Travelers and temporary residents are thus enabled to def these disorders, and few will ever suffer if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity, it is an excellent remedy; it stimulates this organ into healthy activity, and produces many remarkable cures where other medicines fail.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.—This may be called the demon of disease. Rev. Henry Ward Beecher says, "It is a very difficult matter to save the soul of a man who has had indigestion; of small avail to cast the devil out of his heart while he still lurks in his stomach." SIMMONS' HEPATIC COMPOUND will cure this disease. The unfailing remedy for this disease in its stages is SIMMONS' HEPATIC COMPOUND. It regulates the liver, expels all morbid humors from the system, and acts as a gentle tonic. A few doses will relieve and a little perseverance cure the worst cases. If you are bilious and languid, you may save a doctor's bill by the timely use of Simmons' Hepatic Compound. Many who have used it say that it is worth its weight in gold.
