PROSPECTUS.

HISTORY of South Carolina,

—BY—

REV. R. LATHAN.

SO soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are secured to warrant the enterprise, I propose publishing a

HISTORY of SOUTH CAROLINA.

The work will embrace a complete history of the State from the first discovery of the soil; the settlement of the territory at different periods; the history of the State under the Proprietary Government, under the Royal Government, and through the Revolutionary period, or to the close of the Revolutionary war.

The movements of the several Whig military chiefs are accurately traced, and the several battles fought during the Revolution are minutely described.

The whole will make a book of more than 700 pages of the size of Stephens' History of the United States. It will be printed on good paper, with clear type, and bound in substantial cloth. To subscribers the book will be delivered for FOUR DOLLARS per copy.

Persons desiring to canvass for the work are requested to communicate with the author at Yorkville, S. C., for terms, &c.

Mount Zion Collegiate Institute

THE fall session of this well known Institute began on Monday, August 27th.

The course of instruction embraces Mathematics, the Classics, Science and the usual English branches. Special attention will be paid to elocution, reading, spelling and writing. Pupils will receive that careful drill in the rudiments which is essential to securing a thorough education. Blackboard exercises will enter largely as a method of instruction. The college building is commodious and conveniently located. The Principal hopes, with the political and material improvement of the State, to secure a liberal patronage, by means of which the Institute may be restored to its former popularity and usefulness.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

On dit, that Grant is to be minister to England.

Two and a half million bushels of wheat passed through Buffalo, New York, in one day last week.

New York will pay her militia $250,000 for services rendered in suppressing the late riots.

Great complaint is made in Mississippi of the stealage of seed cotton. The farmers are banding together to suppress it.

The Pennsylvania delegation have recommended Simon Cameron for minister to England. Hayes objects.

General Grant has written to a friend at Washington that he does not expect to return home till December, 1878.

Recorder Hackett, of New York, has imposed the full sentence of the law (ten years) on a child stealer, recently convicted in his court.

The New York cigar makers are on a prolonged strike. They have opened a kitchen and are feeding five hundred persons.

Bayard, Thurman and Morgan are the Democrats of the committee of seven to mature a mode of declaring the President and Vice-President.

The French situation is unchanged. The government organs continue to declare that the Marshal will not submit nor the Ministers resign.

A European syndicate proposes to lend Louisiana nearly thirteen million to ease her finances. Louisiana is afraid her constitution prevents an acceptance.

The wife of William C. Gilman, the New York forger, has become insane. She is to be sent to a lunatic asylum. The unfortunate lady is a niece of Henry Ward Beecher.

Fort Worth, Texas, but a few years since in a "howling wilderness," is now a brisk town rivaling Dallas. It has just completed a hotel costing $50,000. Thus the tide of empire rolls along in this go-ahead country.

The proper translation of the Sioux chief's name should be "The-Bull-that-Squats," instead of plain Sitting Bull. The name has reference to the way in which he sits down.

According to Spanish advices from Cuba the imperial forces have captured the President of the Republic, the Secretary of the Chamber of Representatives, and several members of that body.

The Secretary of War grants his clerks ten days leave to go to Pennsylvania and New York for voting purposes, not to be deducted from their regular vacation.

Representatives of the Union and Central Pacific Railroad companies are in Washington urging the government to accept their offer of a compromise for the money advanced by it to build the roads.

The number of bishops now in the Episcopal church in the United States is twenty-eight, of whom Bishops Garrett, Elliott, Winkfield, Delesky, Jaggard, Brown, Perry, Pennick and Adams were appointed during the past three years.

At the recent Legislative primaries in Richmond, the liquor dealers put out a set of anti-Moffett-bell-punch candidates, but were beaten out of their boots. This is a great victory for the punch, as the chief opposition to it is in Richmond.

The Radicals and workmen put out a joint municipal ticket in Baltimore, but were disastrously defeated on the 23d inst. Kane, Democrat, receiving 33,178 votes, Thompson, Workingman, 17,369, and Warfield, Reformer, 535. The Democrats made a clean sweep of the city council.

The great two and a half mile race at Baltimore, which Congress adjourned to go and witness, was won by P. Lorillard's horse, Parole, in 4:37 1/2. Tenbroeck, the Kentucky horse, second, and Tom Ochiltree third. Tenbroeck was by long odds the favorite, and Parole was third choice in the pools.

Sitting Bull has met the commission, and refuses to accept any terms with the United States. He prefers to remain in the land of his "great mother"—Queen Victoria.

He told the commission that they had come to lie to him as all their people had done. Among the Indian speakers was a squaw named "Wife-of-the-man-that-scatters-the-bear. She scattered the commissioners.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Aiken wants a fire engine.

Hog cholera in Newberry.

Chester has had a slight frost.

Wild pigeons frequent the forests of Pickens.

Richland will nominate a senator on the 6th of November.

A fine mine of asbestos has been developed in Pickens county.

Capt. F. P. Robertson, of Anderson, and Capt. W. F. Prescott, of Edgefield, are dead.

Governor Hampton, with his staff, will review the State troops at the fair.

The recent meeting of Synod in Columbia was well attended. Its proceedings were interesting.

The cause of the Charleston poisoning has not yet been discovered. The chemist has not completed his analysis.

Col. Chas. S. McCall has been unanimously nominated for senator from Marlboro, vice Maxwell. He is the Democratic county chairman, and a splendid organizer.

A Northern lady has generously contributed to the completion of the Aiken Presbyterian parsonage.

The New York Times says Governor Hampton wants Patterson's seat in the Senate, as well as his scalp.

Treasurer Robertson, of York county, has received about $15,000 of the taxes, which sum was paid in by 3,156 taxpayers.

Mr. Shoppard seems to be the coming man for speaker of the House, if General Wallace is made judge.

Col. A. C. Haskell, Judge Maher, Hon. W. D. Porter and Gen. W. H. Wallace are mentioned in connection with Wright's seat.

Senator Corwin, of Newberry, has stopped down and out. Capt. J. N. Lipscomb, the Democratic contestant, will doubtless be seated.

Some one proposes a prize at the fair for the handsomest bride in the State.

The Rev. J. C. Furman has dissolved his connection with the Laurensville Baptist church.

The sentence of Wade Hampton McElvin, the Aiken boy murderer, has been commuted by the governor to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. What's in a name?

Bishop Lynch has recovered from the effects of the surgical operation recently performed on him, and is expected to return from the North next month.

Mr. W. R. Brockinton has been appointed clerk of court of Williamsburg county, in place of Mr. Jacobs, who was unable to give a satisfactory bond. Mr. Brockinton was clerk some years ago. The appointment gives general satisfaction.

The Charleston News and Courier of Thursday, says: "Lieutenant Flipper expects to start to-day for Texas. While he has been in this city he has made friends with whites and blacks by the sensible course he has pursued."

The Columbia Register thinks it hardly possible that President Hayes contemplates resurrounding the Republican party in South Carolina with such slender material as Simeon Corley, of Lexington.

The Investigating Committee in Newberry county find the face value of the claims against the county to be $27,820.19. By reductions and cancellations they brought this amount down to $20,373.04, thereby affecting a saving to the county of $7,447.15.

The Abbeville Press and Banner says: "The work of grading the Greenwood and Augusta Railroad is progressing finely during the present good weather, and the Lowdesville and Calhoun Mill's neighborhood have, during the past week, held enthusiastic meetings in the interests of the Savannah Valley Railroad."

Hezekiah McGhee, the simple-minded fellow who used to amuse the people of Cokesbury and the railway passengers by such feats as standing on his head and repeating the Lord's Prayer, died last week at his brother's residence. Before dying, he said he was going "where all good people go." He was fifty-one years of age, and of a good family.
