Rev. C. E. Chichester, for some years past the pastor of Scion Presbyterian Church, delivered his farewell sermon before that congregation on Sunday. In leaving our town, Mr. Chichester will carry with him the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

RAILROAD MEETING.—Active steps are being taken towards the building of the proposed road from Ches-tor to Georgetown. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Georgetown on the 22d ult., and it was then determined to vote $100,000 in county bonds in aid of the enterprise. It was also resolved to hold a convention of delegates from all the counties interested, at Sumter on the 20th of the present month. Fairfield should be represented at that meeting, and we trust that immediate steps will be taken to send the proper delegation.

The following, from the Union Times, will be read with interest by the many friends of our former young townsman, Mr. Fleming Brown:

In Goudeysville township it was my privilege to attend the exhibition of Mr. Fleming Brown's School, held at Elbethel church. In declamation and recitations his pupils acquitted themselves with much credit. The patrons of the school report that his every-day work is fully equal to what they might expect from an earnest, active young man. The people of that neighborhood are able to keep up a good school. It is their plain duty to do it. If they can secure the services of such men as Mr. Brown for the next ten years, they will have no cause to be ashamed of the mental attainments of their children. About three hundred people attended this exhibition, showing the interest they felt in schools. Such meetings do good. They excite the people to thought and action. Let every school in Union imitate the example of Mr. Brown, and get the patrons and pupils together and have a good time. C.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Zeb Vance will positively be at our State fair.

Charleston is not taking much interest in the State fair.

Governor Hampton was at the Darlington fair, and made a speech.

Rev. W. H. Campbell assumed charge of St Paul's church, Charleston, on Sunday.

Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, have been regularly chartered by the Grand Encampment of the United States.

A desperado named Coleman stabbed a colored hostler in Orangeburg on Thursday, then shot the policeman in the leg and escaped. A posse is after him.

Moses Wilson, the outlaw, was hung at Sumter on Friday, for the murder of John Murphy last year. He declared his innocence to the last. All passed off quietly.

Some one has sent President J. B. Palmer a letter, containing the fare from Charlotte to Columbia, five dollars, saying that he rode recently on the train without paying.

They are renewing the canal discussion in Columbia. Colonel McMaster wishes the State to compromise with Sprague and help develop the property with convict labor. Colonel Palmer wants the State to oust Sprague, if it takes five years. He says the income from the water power should pay one-third of the interest on the State debt.

Thursday afternoon, while six convicts, under the charge of one the colored guards, named Crawford, and who were employed on the Lexington side of Broad River to carry wood, were being conducted by the guard up the river bank to get drinking water, one of them broke from the line and ran into the thicket. The guard fired upon him, and the convict dodged behind a large tree. The guard, who was in pursuit, happened to pass this tree, and was knocked senseless by the convict, who then made good his escape. None of the remaining five convicts attempted to escape. The same day another convict, in the penitentiary enclosure, assaulted a guard, but was cowed with a pistol.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.—A new era is dawning upon the life of woman. Hitherto she has been called upon to suffer the ills of mankind and her own besides. The frequent and distressing irregularities peculiar to her sex have long been to her the "direful spring of woes unnumbered." In the mansion of the rich and in the hovel of poverty alike woman has been the constant yet patient victim of a thousand ills unknown to man—and these without a remedy. "Oh Lord, how long!" in the agony of her soul, hath she cried. But now the hour of her redemption is come. She will suffer no more, for Dr. J. Bradford's Female Regulator—Woman's Best Friend—is for sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken at $1.50 per bottle.
