George W. Julian is to be editor of a new Democratic organ in Indianapolis. Mr. Julian is looking for some honors.

George William Curtis officiates as minister regularly every Sunday at a Unitarian church at New Brighton, Staten Island.

After the first of January, the North American Review is to be published in New York, instead of in Boston, with the imprint of D. Appleton & Co.

The Emperor William will celebrate his golden wedding next spring, and Queen Victoria is one of the crowned heads whose presence is expected.

The younger Gladstone also takes to literature and art. He has translated and written a preface for Thibaut's "Purity in Musical Art."

It is denied that there has been any misunderstanding between Speaker Randall and Colonel Polk, doorkeeper of the House, regarding the latter's appointments.

William Gale, of Cardiff, England, has accomplished a walk of fifteen hundred miles in a thousand hours, which is said to be the greatest pedestrian feat on record.

Joe Jefferson's re-entry upon the American stage at Booth's Theatre, New York, on Monday evening was greeted by a crowded house and great enthusiasm. The engagement promises to be the chief dramatic event of the season.

General Harlan is the third lawyer who has risen from the bar directly to the United States Supreme Court bench, Justice Bradley and ex-Justice Davis having enjoyed the same distinction.

Harry St. George Tucker, a son of Hon. J. Randolph Tucker, was married last week near Lexington, to Miss Hennie Johnston, a daughter of Colonel William Preston Johnston, and a grand-daughter of General Albert Sidney Johnston.

Mr. Joaquin Miller says the Billy Piper of his "Danites" is a true picture of himself and his life, when, as a boy, he had run away from home, and after escaping from the Indians lived among the miners. All the people of the play he declares are real.

The proprietor of the hotel in the White Mountains, where the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher spends his summer, has been appointed keeper of the Senate restaurant at Washington, at Mr. Beecher's suggestion. This is better than the dime did for himself, when a candidate for Chaplain of the House.

President Hayes doesn't find Washington life so expensive as some of his predecessors have. He is reported as saying that during the first six months of his term he has spent only $4,000 of the $25,000 which he has drawn, and that he thinks of recommending Congress to reduce the Executive's salary from $50,000 to the old figure of $25,000.

An oriental traveller describes this busy scene witnessed on historic shores: "Our steamer landed on a beach which was the port of Antioch, where the disciples were first called Christians. There was no town at the water's edge, no people, no wharf. The passengers and the merchandise were put ashore in lighters, which ran up into the sand. A troop of camels, with their drivers, lay on the beach, ready to transfer the goods into the interior. Among the articles landed were boxes marked 'Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.', showing that they contained medicines and when they came. These with other goods were hoisted on the backs of camels, for transportation to Antioch. Thus the skill of the west sends back its remedies to heal the maladies of populations that inhabit those eastern shores, whence our spiritual manna came." — Wind sor (Va.) Chronicle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

The reputation it has attained, in consequence of the marvellous cures it has produced during the last half century, is a sufficient assurance to the public that it will continue to realize the happiest results that can be desired. In almost every section of country there are persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. All who have tried it acknowledge its superiority; and where its virtues are known, no one hesitates as to what medicine to employ to relieve the distress and suffering peculiar to pulmonary affections. CHERRY PECTORAL always affords instant relief, and performs rapid cures of the milder varieties of bronchial disorder, as well as the more formidable diseases of the lungs.

As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, it is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued and restored to health.

This medicine gains friends at every trial, as the cures it is constantly producing are too remarkable to be forgotten. No family should be without it, and those who have once used it never will.

Eminent Physicians throughout the country prescribe it, and Clergymen often recommend it from their knowledge of its effects.

Mount Zion Collegiate Institute

THE fall session of this well known Institute began on Monday, August 27th.

The course of instruction embraces Mathematics, the Classics, Science and the usual English branches. Special attention will be paid to education, reading, spelling and writing. Pupils will receive that careful drill in the rudiments which is essential to securing a thorough education. Black-board exercises will enter largely as a method of instruction. The college building is commodious and conveniently located. The Principal hopes, with the political and material improvement of the State, to secure a liberal patronage, by means of which the Institute may be restored to its former popularity and usefulness.
