Masonic Meeting—Wm. N. Chandler, Secretary.

A north-west wind on Thursday night froze things up generally.

The regular day passenger trains will begin to run next week, it is said.

A meeting to consider the proposed narrow gauge road is spoken of for next week.

There have been about four thousand seven hundred bales of cotton shipped from Winnsboro this fall, a much smaller quantity than was shipped up to this time last year.

There is a large hole in the bridge at the corner of Dr. Robertson's residence, which should be fixed at once. It is very dangerous to persons crossing it at night.

Several young ladies from Columbia have been visiting friends in Winnsboro, and the town has been somewhat lively in consequence.

A small boy, in Winnsboro, making his first essay in the art of composition, the subject being "Fairfield," wrote, "the surface is billy," and then announced that the chief productions are "cotton, wheat, potatoes and corn." A palpable hit, though not intended.

Ridgeway Notes.

First mail for several days arrived at Ridgeway on Wednesday. One person received such a bundle that he offered to hire a boy and wheelbarrow to take it home.

The steveds are in a bad condition and we are glad to see hands employed on them.

All stores were closed here on Thanksgiving Day.

Fire—No Loss.—On Thursday night, during the prevalence of the high wind, the fire bell sounded the alarm, and, in a moment, the people had left their cosy fireplaces and were running pell-mell down street. It was discovered that the alarm was caused by the burning out of a chimney in Mr. J. W. Law's residence. The chimney was quite foul, and sparks fell in showers on the roof. A sufficient force soon gathered to extinguish them without damage. Strange to say, the chimney had been burned out two weeks before, as was thought, quite thoroughly. As chimneys are burned out in wet weather, it is possible that some, of considerable height, with a straight flue, become damp for a certain distance from the top, and the soot does not ignite then, but waits, as on this occasion, for dry weather.

TAKE YOUR COUNTY PAPER—It has transpired that a large number of persons in Fairfield whose property has been levied on, or advertised for sale, for delinquent taxes, are not subscribers to THE NEWS AND HERALD. They, of course, had not seen the advertisements of the auditor and treasurer relative to taxes; and while they were jogging along in ignorance, the forfeits were running up on them to ten times the amount of a year's subscription to the paper. This is a practical lesson of the importance of taking one's home paper. THE NEWS AND HERALD, while keeping abreast with the march of events and presenting a good family paper, contains, also, the advertisements of the merchants and business men of Winnsboro, the notices of all the sheriff's sales, and court sales, the announcements of the county and school commissioners, and all tax and assessment notices. In a word, being the only paper in the county, it contains every publication of interest to the property holder and taxpayer. If every one would come forward and subscribe to the paper, it would be able to become still more valuable, while the people would never be caught napping, as some have just been in regard to taxes.

Winnsboro Chapter, No. 2, R. A. M.

THE regular convention of this Chapter will be held at Masonic Hall on Monday evening, December 3rd, at seven o'clock. Officers for the ensuing Masonic year will be elected. Companions are requested to come prepared to pay dues.
 WM. N. CHANDLER,
 Secretary.

FAIR NOTICE

TO FINE OPPORTUNITY & CO.

In THE NEWS AND HERALD of the 7th inst., I find an advertisement by D. Sugeneimer, offering for sale my store and adjoining premises in Winnsboro, and occupied by B. Sugeneimer & Co.

And in same paper, under date November 14th, I find J. J. McClure, Adm'r of Est. of Geo. W. Melton, offers for sale, on the first Monday in December next, tract C. of the Cathcart land on Dutchman's Creek. Those two pieces of property, together with all others sold at the mock auction of my property in January, 1875, I claim as mine still, and expect to establish my title to the same in due time, although temporarily deprived of possession by fraud and violence. Violence and fraud.

Persons, therefore, who might be disposed to purchase either of the above described, or any of said property, will do well to consider what I say, before they put any money into it.

JOHN H. CATHCART,
 Winnsboro, S. C.,
 Nov. 28th, 1877.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

BY virtue of sundry executions to me directed, I will offer for sale before the court-house door in Winnsboro, on the first Monday in December next, within the legal hours of sale, for cash, the following described property, to wit:

Three bales cotton and eight and a half bushels corn, levied upon as the property of Preston Smith at the suit of W. R. Doty & Co.

ALSO,
 One bale cotton and small lot of seed cotton—levied on as the property of Henry Belton and Ab. Mitchel, at the suit of W. R. Doty & Co.

ALSO,
 20 bushels corn, 500 bundles fodder, 1000 pounds seed cotton, 270 pounds lint cotton, 30 bushels cotton seed, all more or less, the property of Benjamin Crosby, at the suit of Henry Jeffers and T. D. Colman.

ALSO,
 One bale cotton, 40 bushels of corn, 1000 pounds of fodder, all more or less, the property of Randal Gooding, at the suit of Ruff & Cloud.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NEAR Marietta, GA. March 21, 1870.
 Messrs. Wm. Root & Sons:—About one year ago I bought a bottle of BRADFORD'S FEMALE REGULATOR from you, for one of my daughters who had been suffering with suppressed menses for some time. I have had several physicians attending, but met with no success until I was persuaded to buy a bottle of the Regulator, and it is the very thing for which it is recommended. She is now in perfect health. I hope all suffering females will at least try one bottle and have health again.
 Very respectfully,
 D. DOBBINS.
