is now regarded as the STANDARD AUTHORITY, and is so recommended by Bryant, Longfellow, Whittier, Sumner, Holmes, Irving, Winthrop, Agassiz, Marsh, Henry, Everett, Mann, Quincy, Felton, Hilliard, and the majority of our most distinguished scholars, and is, besides, recognized as authority by the Departments of our National Government.

The volumes before us show a vast amount of diligence; but with Webster it is diligence in combination with fancifulness. With Worcester, in combination with good sense and judgment. WORCESTER'S is the soberer and safer book, and may be pronounced the best existing English Lexicon.—London Athenaeum.

The best English writers and the most particular American writers use WORCESTER as their authority.—New York Herald.

After our recent strike we made the change to WORCESTER as our authority in spelling, chiefly to bring ourselves into conformity with the accepted usage, as well as to gratify the desire of most of our staff, including such gentlemen as Mr. Bayard Taylor, Mr. George W. Smalley, and Mr. John R. C. Hassard.—New York Tribune.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE SAVING WINE TILL IT RIPENS. There is a curious story about some native wines which are extensively advertised nowadays, and have only recently been put upon the market. Dr. Gray, the well-known grape-grower of Croton Point, died in 1877. Some of his heirs entertained temperance views of such extreme kind, that they were unwilling to allow the stock of wines then on hand to be sold or any more to be made.

The grapes have sometimes been sent to market, and sometimes left to decay upon the vines. It is only now that the other heirs have succeeded in arranging for a settlement of the estate and the sale of the wines on hand. Among these is a wine of the vintage of 1864, described as a "Sweet Tokay Port," but suggesting the Imperial Tokay more than any other European wine, and being wholly unlike any other wine of America in growth. Its purity, age and mellowness are remarkable, and both physicians and wine-fanciers have a special interest in it as the oldest native wine now accessible in any considerable quantity. The whole stock is in the hands of the well-known wholesale grocery house of the Thurburs.—N. Y. Tribune, Nov. 19, 1877.

The above speaks for itself, but we would add that this is the pure juice of the grape, neither drugged, liquored nor watered; that it has been ripened and mellowed by age, and for medicinal or sacramental purposes it is unsurpassed. It can be obtained from most of the leading Druggists throughout the United States, and at wholesale from the undersigned, who will forward descriptive pamphlet, free of charge, on application.
