CAMPAIGN ROT.

A few days ago we mentioned that in some of the Republican platforms trusts were condemned...

The test vote came up in an amendment to the army reorganization bill. It was proposed that, other things being equal, that the quartermaster's department in the purchase of articles and supplies for the military service, should give preference to producers, manufacturers and merchants...

It is said that the statement of H. H. Rogers, of the standard Oil Company, that the breaking off of the negotiations for the purchase by the United States of the Danish West India Islands, was due to the influence of the corporation which he represents...

Why should it cause convulsion in the Republican ranks? Do not the Republicans always vote for the trust? That's strong evidence the Standard Oil Company's claim is well founded.

THE GEORGIA newspapers are urging the importance of a full and representative meeting at Macon to discuss the cotton situation.

PROF. STONE and Instructor Lyon, of the University of Virginia, are both in town, and will remain during the rest of the month.

We are authorized to announce that Prof. Benj Sloan, of the South Carolina College, will be invited to deliver a lecture on astronomy especially as to eclipses.

MR. JOSEPH W. BARNWELL has withdrawn from the congressional race in the First District, leaving the field to Col. Elliott.

We haven't heard from anyone on the new cotton mill. What have the people to say about it?

CHARLESTON shows grit in undertaking her exposition. It involves the expenditure of a great deal of money, and the rest of the State should encourage the "city by the sea."

OUR WINTHROP LETTER.

Rock Hill, May 3.—As a usual thing, the college concert always given in April, is considered the best of the Star Course.

Miss Lila Neal, as Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B. Miss Ella McDaniel, as Captain Corcoran.

Many were the compliments showered upon them, and they were not given unadvisedly.

On Saturday night the Juniors entertained the "Class of 1906" at a charming reception. The college parlors, which are handsome within themselves, were this evening unusually resplendent.

Why should it cause convulsion in the Republican ranks? Do not the Republicans always vote for the trust? That's strong evidence the Standard Oil Company's claim is well founded.

At a "reasonable hour" the guests were ushered into the dining room where the beautifully set tables were laden with everything most tempting to the palate.

Professor Stone and Mr. Lyon are very pleasant gentlemen, and we hope that their stay in Winnsboro will be made pleasant.
