The famous signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

—Mrs. M. J. Moore has moved her family into the Methodist parsonage. Dr. Weber will board with them.

—Ernest Willie who has been in attendance upon the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Wilmington, will visit Mr. W. C. Cauthen of the Oakhurst section, on his return therefrom, and will give an entertainment in that community complimentary to Mr. Cauthen, which by the way, is a nice compliment indeed. The entertainment will be given probably the latter part of this week, or the early part of next. Ernest Willie may lecture here also, though nothing definite has been arranged as to that. He lectured to delighted crowds while in Wilmington, and if he comes this way all should hear him.

Senator Tillman has our thanks for a copy of the Congressional Directory which contains brief sketches of all the Senators and Representatives composing that body, the Committees of the two houses and much other valuable and interesting information on the affairs of the Government at Washington.

Shot in the Neck.

Joe Cherry and Joe Barnes, both colored, became involved in a difficulty Friday morning last, which resulted in the former getting shot in the neck. The ball entered just in front of the coratid artery on the right side of the neck and was cut out by Dr. M. P. Crawford at the upper edge of the breast bone on the opposite side.

The wound is not considered dangerous. A woman was the cause of the difficulty.

A Grand Offer.

In this issue of the ENTERPRISE will be found the "ad" of Mr. R. Brandt, the Jeweler of Chester, S. C. He is offering to clean all kinds of silverware free of charge. The firm is a reliable one and thoroughly responsible for anything sent them to be cleaned. This is a good offer for our readers, for not often do they have the opportunity to have their silverware cleaned by one who understands it free of charge.

Death of Mrs. S. L. Mobley of Heath Spring.

Again death has entered the home of Mrs. S. L. Mobley, widow of the late J. B. Mobley. First, several years ago, a son, Munterlyn, and her husband, were taken, almost without warning, and within a few hours of each other. Then a few years later, a daughter, Mrs. Nettie Carson, died, suddenly. Then, about three months ago, another daughter, Miss Clem, was taken from her, followed in a few days by the unexpected death of a sister living near her—Mrs. W. B. Mobley. And now Mrs. Mobley herself is dead; has been taken "home"—where there is no more trouble and sorrow, and where the weary and heavy laden are at rest. Her death was not unexpected. It has long been known that, though she was able to be up, she could not be spared a great while longer—that her life hung by a very slender cord that was liable to break at any time. She herself fully realized her condition, and was prepared to go whenever the Master might call. Just before her daughter died she told her that they would not be parted long. And when she took the last sad farewell of her—the farewell of the living to the dead—she said, "Goodbye, sweet one; I am coming soon." She took worse Sunday 2nd., and though she had every care that attentive physicians and loving, tender daughters could give her, she gradually sank until Friday evening when, just after the sun had gone down, she breathed her last, and her spirit went to the God who gave it.

After the toil and trouble,
There comes a day of rest;
After the weary conflict,
Peace on the Savior's breast;
After the care and sorrow,
The glory of light and love;
After the wilderness journey,
The Father's bright home above.

After the pain and sickness,
The tears are all wiped away;
After the flowers are gathered,
No more of earth's decay;
After the deep heart sorrow,
The glory of light and love;
After the daily crosses,
A glorious crown of love.

Mrs. Mobley left five children—Mrs. A. J. Evans, of Rock Hill, Misses Blanche and Cora; Clarence and Julia, the latter about thirteen years of age; an aged mother, Mrs. Sarah Robertson, five sisters—Mrs. R. E. Croxton, Mrs. W. D. Ussury, Mrs. L. J. Cauthen, Mrs. Berry Mobley and Mrs. W. J. Hammond, and a brother, Mr. Z. L. Robertson, and many other relatives, and friends to mourn her loss. For her children now left alone, there is the deepest sympathy.

Mr. H. J. Gregory and Miss Gertrude Cox Married.

Miss E. Gertrude Cox and Mr. H. J. Gregory were married last Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father at Landsford, Chester County, S. C. It was the desire of the bride and groom that the affair should be as simple as possible, so there were no attendants, not even a best man or maid of honor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Hutson, pastor of Elbethel Church, in the presence of only the relatives and most intimate friends.

Carriages were in waiting and immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded, with several friends, Messrs. Sam Rhea, Uriah and John Jordan, friends of the groom who accompanied him, were driven to Lancaster, reaching here about 8:30 p. m. At the home of Mr. Gregory an excellent wedding supper was served, only relatives and a few special friends being present.

The bride is the only daughter of Dr. D. M. Cox, of Landsford. She is very accomplished and attractive and cannot fail to make many friends in her new home as she had done in her old home.

The groom needs no introduction to the people of Lancaster. Everybody knows "Capt. Jack," that he is clever whole-souled, jovial, and one of the most successful business men in the up country. He is the head of the firm of H. J. Gregory & Co., has the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends and has at all times proved himself worthy of it. May he and his young bride live to enjoy many years of connubial bliss.—Saturday's Ledger.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla has over and over again proved by its cures, when all other preparations failed, that it is the One True BLOOD Purifier.

To be Married Thursday.

Mr. T. B. Clyburn, formerly of this county, but now of Chester, S. C., and Miss Belle Williams, daughter of Mr. J. W. Williams, of the Douglas neighborhood, will be married to-morrow at Douglas church at 2 o'clock, p. m. The young couple will leave on the afternoon train for Chester where they will reside in the future.

Dwelling House Burned.

On Sunday afternoon last, between 3 and 4 o'clock, Mr. J. D. Hinson, of the Primus section, lost his dwelling by fire which is supposed to have originated from a defective stove flue. Mr. Hinson succeeded in saving most of his household effects. No insurance.

Barn and Wagon Shed Burned.

Mr. John Blackmon, of the Primus section, lost his barn and wagon shed, together with a lot of corn, a wagon, etc. by fire early Sunday morning last. The fire is thought to be incendiary. No insurance.

NERVOUS Troubles are due to impoverished blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier and NERVE TONIC.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States will convene in Charlotte, N. C., on Thursday, May 20. The following delegates have been selected to represent Bethel presbytery: Ministers, principals—J. K. Hall, Guthrieville; J. G. Herndon, Ridgeway. Alternates—C. W. Humphreys, Lancaster; J. B. Swann, Bullock's Creek. Elders, principals—James Hemphill, Chester; John Shillinglaw, Leslie. Alternates—G. L. McNeel, Yorkville; J. C. Foster, Lancaster.

Old Hickory Laboring Under a Misapprehension.

Old Hickory says: "The action of the out-going Board of County Commissioners on the first Monday in April in voting themselves pay for that day and refusing to pay the Township Commissioners who were called there for the same purpose, was a little arbitrary in our estimation, and is condemned by all fair minded men."

Now, Old Hickory, you know, at least you ought to know, that the County Board of Commissioners have no authority whatever to vote pay to themselves or any other official. That is fixed by the General Assembly of the State. As a matter of justice I believe the Township Commissioners should have been paid, at the same time the County Board is not responsible for such. Well, Old Hickory may say, the County Board had no authority to meet that day. If he will look up the County Government law, he will find it says: The County Board of Commissioners shall meet on the first Monday in January, April, July and October provided that the chairman of each Board may call an extra meeting at any time and also that we should serve until our successors are appointed and qualified. Had those two Commissioners been appointed and qualified previous to the first Monday in April? I as one of the members of the out-going Board received pay for that day because it was provided by law. If I had not I should not have made any complaint.

Now, Old Hickory, with a spirit of kindness I state these facts that we may not be condemned by those fair minded men that you speak of when they understand the true situation.

The Southern Baptist Convention.

The editor has just returned from Wilmington, N. C., where he attended the meetings of the Southern Baptist Convention, some account of which he hopes to give in next week's ENTERPRISE. In many respects this is said to have been the greatest session ever held by this great Convention, composed of some eight hundred delegates representing fourteen States, many of whom were among the greatest preachers and pulpit orators of this country.

Rev. Mr. Boldridge who went one day ahead of us, has not yet returned. The Convention goes to Norfolk, Va., next year.

"Going into a decline." How often do we hear this expression. What is the matter? It means that people are losing flesh, growing thin, wasting.

The way to correct this condition is to improve the digestion. The condition arises from an inability to eat and digest food. In fact food does more harm than good because it ferments and putrifies in the stomach, developing poisonous substances which when absorbed cause various disorders.

What is required is that the stomach be made to perform its duties. The Shaker Digestive Cordial is a food already digested and a digester of foods as well. It will make the stomach healthy. Get a book from the druggist and read about it.

A California chemist has robbed Castor Oil of its bad taste. Laxol is its name.

Card of Thanks.

EDITOR ENTERPRISE:—Please allow me space in your columns to thank my many friends for so generously contributing to me in cash, clothing and household articles since my recent loss by fire. Especially do I desire to thank, from the depths of my heart, those of my neighbors who aided me so much in saving my out-buildings, and those who labored so earnestly and contributed so liberally in my efforts to re-build. Charity has been bountifully bestowed upon me by them as well as by White Bluff Lodge A. F. M., and Hanging Rock Lodge K. of P. for all of which I am indeed grateful.

ASLEEP IN JESUS.

Mrs. Emma J. Belk was born in Union county, North Carolina, June the 1st, 1867 and died April 28th, 1897. She was married to H. L. Belk, December 17th, 1885. Three children were born to them—two girls and a son. Moved to Arkansas in 1894. Sister Belk professed religion in her early days and joined the M. E. church. She was a sweet spirited christian, faithful to her church and to her God. She was kind and devoted to her husband—sharing with him the sorrows, cares and trials of life. As a mother she was devoted to her children. She taught them to love the church, the Sunday school, their teacher and all good religious people. She strove to bring them up in the admonition of the Lord and to lead them along the path of the just. Her suffering was great; but God's divine grace had taken away the sting of the last enemy which is death. She often expressed herself to her friends as being ready and willing to go. Her death was peaceful, yet triumphant. Her life had been full of anxiety, labor and care, but the weary worker is now at rest and her sweet spirit lives forever in that home where not a wave of trouble rolls across the peaceful breast. May God bless the bereaved husband and little ones. May God be a companion to him and a mother to his children. May they remember with joy that earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal. Sister Belk leaves a companion, three children and a host of warm friends in Arkansas, a father, mother, sisters and brothers in North Carolina to mourn her loss.

Her brother in Christ Jesus,
J. L. JETTON.
