

A Shattered Nervous System.

FINALLY HEART TROUBLE.
Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nerve.

MR. EDWARD HARDY, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co's. great store at Braceville, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick a day in my life until in 1890. I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure, the greatest blessing of my life."
Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

TILT WITH TILLMAN.

Speaker Reed Encounters The Senator.

Senator Tillman's hobby is the enactment of a law to enforce the dispensary liquor law in South Carolina. He has always been dubious of success in trying to pass it through the house and yesterday he sought to relieve his uncertainty by an interview with Speaker Reed, who happened to stroll over to the senate.
"Look here, Mr. Speaker," said Senator Tillman, "I wish you would agree to a special rule by which the dispensary bill can be called up in the house."
"Let me see," drawled the Speaker, with his characteristic blandness, "that is a bill to override the decision of a United States court."
"No, sir," retorted Senator Tillman hotly, "it is to express the wishes of the people."
"The people of the United States or the people of South Carolina?" inquired the Speaker, with a tantalizing smile upon his round, fat face.
"The people of South Carolina," replied Senator Tillman quickly, beginning to realize that he was not making much headway with his request.
"The legislature of South Carolina legislates for the people of that State," was the Speaker's non-committal, but exasperating response to the Senator.
"That fellow Reed thinks he is Atlas, with the responsibility of the world on his shoulders," remarked Senator Tillman in disgust, as he retired from the tilt with the Speaker, minus an assurance of a special order for his pet bill.—Washington Post.

IT'S FALSE.
Speaking to-day of an alleged interview printed in yesterday's Post between him and Speaker Reed in reference to the Latimer bill, Senator Tillman said, "The report is absolutely false and without the shadow of an excuse for its publication."

International Bimetallism.

The only countries that have escaped the financial embarrassments of the past ten years and continued to improve industrially have been silver standard countries, while the country that has suffered more perhaps than any other is gold standard Australia. Australia had more gold per capita than any other nation except France and Belgium, and practically no silver or paper money, yet she experienced a financial storm far more severe than any which we have passed through.

Practically all the banks in Australia suspended, and were enabled to resume only by forcing the depositors to take bank stock for their deposits.

Had such steps been taken by the United States the cry of repudiation would have been sounded on every hand, but it has come to pass that anything that an Englishman does financially is eminently proper, so we have heard nothing of Australia repudiation, yet we are deferred from bringing financial relief to the world by the cry "repudiation."

Lord Lidderdale, formerly governor of the Bank of England, is perhaps the most distinguished banker London has known in this generation. This great financier, at a banquet given at the Mansion House in London last year, used this language: "If the American people had the courage of conviction and adopted the double standard of gold and silver, no matter what the ratio, they would, inside a year, command the trade of the East India straits, China and Japan. Unless England should follow suit and adopt a bimetallic standard, she would inside of eighteen months, cease to be a commercial factor in the markets of the world." Yet it seems that nothing can move the American people to assert their financial manhood.—Chicago Dispatch.

A word of kindness is seldom spoken in vain; while witty sayings are as easily lost as the pearls slipping from a broken string.

The Democratic party has never been a free trade party. It has always been an antimoney party and has repeatedly thwarted the rapaciousness of home monopolies by lowering the duties on foreign products. The Democratic party has simply used the tariff as a weapon to protect consumers from the high prices and greed of the home manufacturers. On the other hand the Republican party has used the tariff as a club to help the home manufacturers to maintain exorbitant prices. That's about all there is to the tariff question. The party is proud of its record on this question, but will not put the financial issue aside to go into the tariff. Money is the issue.
