

Crews Heavily Scored.

The conduct of the Cotton Plant since our last meeting has been a disgrace and an insult to the Alliance. * * * In the issue of May 27, a sudden and radical change took place [in the editorial conduct of the paper]; the constitution of the Alliance was ignominiously trampled under foot, and since that time the Alliance organ has been conducted as a degraded partisan sheet."

As will be seen the notice of Capt. Jno. G. Richards, Jr., published in this week's ENTERPRISE, Senator B. R. Tillman will deliver an address at the picnic of the Liberty Hill Rifles at Black Jack on next Saturday, the 7th inst. As Capt. Richards says, the reputation of Senator Tillman as a speaker and his great popularity with the people will insure a large audience on this occasion.

Burglars Get in Some Work.

The homes of Rev. W. C. Ewart, Editor Connors and Mr. J. C. Elliott were visited by burglars last Wednesday night and these gentlemen relieved of what change they had in the pockets of their clothing. The burglar entered the houses through windows which they found open, with the exception of Mr. Ewart's, which they opened.

It seems that the burglars were after money only, as that is all they took from any of their sleeping victims, though they had opportunities of getting gold watches, knives, pocket-books, etc.

Burglars also went to Sheriff Clyburn's, J. T. Green's, L. S. Elliott's and Dr. R. M. Gallo-way's, but were frightened off before they effected entrance.

Bridge Across Lynch's River.

The chain gang has done some good work on the Charlotte road. On the 9th inst., it will be moved to Bull's Ford on Lynch's River where it and the Chesterfield gang will unite in the building of a bridge, under the supervision of Mr. J. C. Chisholm, an expert trestle man. The job will probably keep them two weeks, Supervisor Perry says.

Fort Lawn's Picnic.

The picnic and barbecue at Fort Lawn last Thursday was largely attended. The counties of Chester, Lancaster, Fairfield, York and Chesterfield furnished the crowd, the bulk of which came from Chester and Lancaster. The crowd was variously estimated at from 1200 to 2500. Although the crowd was large, there was plenty to supply the wants of the inner man.

It is an unusual thing these times for a crowd like that not to have in it some who are possessed of political aspirations and great anxiety to serve the "dear people" and this occasion furnished no exception to that condition of affairs.

There were five in that crowd in whose ears the Congressional bee has been buzzing for some time, all of whom made speeches, namely: Congressman Strait, Attorney General Barber, D. E. Finley, State Senator from York, Hon. J. M. Hough, of Chesterfield, and Solicitor J. K. Henry. All were accorded a respectful hearing, and each had some friends and admirers on the grounds.

The Fort Lawn Dramatic Troupe gave a free entertainment that night, and, it is fair to presume, reflected much credit upon themselves as amateur dramatists. Lancaster and the surrounding country furnished about 300 persons, and all returned on the evening train delighted that they had the opportunity of spending a day in our neighboring town and of mingling with its excellent people.

THE ONLY True Blood Purifier prominently in the public eye today is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Therefore get Hood's and ONLY HOOD'S.

A Serious Charge.

Mr. J. R. Stevenson, of the Pleasant Valley section, was brought to town last Wednesday upon a warrant sworn out by his daughter Lula Stevenson, charging him with committing a rape on her on Sunday morning before. He was taken before Magistrate Howie on Monday for a preliminary who sent the case up to the higher court. The daughter who is prosecuting the case is about 19 years of age, unmarried and the mother of two children.

Through his attorney, John T. Green, Mr. Stevenson applied to Justice Jones Thursday at his residence here for bail which was granted, and upon giving bond for the $1500 required, he was released to await the next term of court.

More Liquor.

Lancaster is soon to have an original package store, so it seems. An Atlanta man was here Monday looking out for an agent and a store room. He will probably make Mr. J. W. McWhirter his agent, and the thing is to open up as soon as the stock can be gotten here.
