

"Original Package" Defined.

Judge Simonton's decision as to what constitutes an original package has been handed down. He gives this definition: "The package" delivered to the carrier by the importer at the initial place of shipment in the exact condition in which it was shipped. If the box or barrel is opened and bottles removed such box or barrel ceases to be an original package, under this decision.

The State authorities are very well satisfied with the decision as to original package establishments, and think that it will so embarrass the agents as to render the business undesirable and ultimately do away with that class of competition to the dispensary.

The newspapers are jumping on Dr. Strait on every side for his criticisms of Tillman and McLaurin. At Fort Lawn week before last he was understood as criticising their tariff views, and again at Tirzah last Thursday he was so understood, though he denied it there the next day.

Dr. Strait's objection to Tillman and McLaurin seems to be that they are trying to do something. The doctor does not think that anything can be done, and is, therefore, on the opposite side from those who hold to a contrary opinion. But this is not surprising. Little fellows who can't swim naturally have an aversion to deep water.—Yorkville Enquirer.

STEVENS, HEATH & ELLIOTT.

When your stomach begins to trouble you, it needs help. The help it needs, is to digest your food, and, until it gets it, you won't have any peace. Stomach trouble is very distressing, very obstinate, very dangerous. Many of the most dangerous diseases begin with simple indigestion. The reason is that indigestion (or non-digestion or non-nourishment) weakens the system and allows disease germs to attack it. The antidote is Shaker Digestive Cordial, strengthening, nourishing, curative. It cures indigestion and renews strength and health. It does this by strengthening the stomach, by helping it to digest your food. It nourishes you. Shaker Digestive Cordial is made of pure herbs, plants and wine, is perfectly harmless and will certainly cure all genuine stomach trouble. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

Tired, Weak, Nervous,
Than because of the work itself. Every physician says so, and that the only remedy is in building up by taking a good nerve tonic, blood purifier and vitalizer like Hood's Sarsaparilla. TIRZAH ENCAMPMENT.

Concluded from First Page.
The people of Charleston would agree to enforce the dispensary law. Seven or eight of the city council refused to resign the agreement and until they did Charleston would continue to be afflicted with metropolitan politics.

The Governor turned to Senator Tillman, and charged that he had said at Abbeville on Wednesday that if necessary to the enforcement of the law he would resign his seat in the Senate and come home and run for Governor.

Senator Tillman—Tell it all. I said that I preferred to remain in the Senate, but I would come and run for Governor if Gonzales had to run the State.

The Governor—no doubt; no doubt. But I notify my distinguished friend that he had better stay in the Senate for if he comes home and runs for Governor there might be a statesman out of a job.

After some further remarks the governor took his seat.

Dr. Strait asked and was accorded permission to make a statement. In a telegram in the Columbia Record Thursday it was stated he had made an attack on Tillman and McLaurin in the interest of Irby, Evans & Co. He said the statement was unfair and untrue.—Rock Hill Herald.

Death of Mr. John T. Copeland.

The death of Mr. John T. Copeland occurred at his home in the Primus section Monday at noon, from the combined effects of old age and a fall received several days ago. He was upwards of 75 years of age and had been a school teacher for some 50 years. He was a member of Fork Hill church and was an honest, upright man and an excellent citizen. He leaves a wife, two sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. His remains were laid to rest in the graveyard at Fork Hill church yesterday in the presence of a large assemblage of sympathizing friends. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. S. Croxton, for many years the personal friend and pastor of the deceased.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A rather large man, well built and of good appearance, good looking from the right side and not good looking from the left; with a right eye that penetrates like a cathode ray, and that looks black and malevolent, or keen and piercing, or bright and sparkling; according as his humor is, and with a place where his left eye once was; with firm square cut lips, and strong, determined jaw; clean shaven; wearing a short black coat, black pantaloons, and a white waistcoat; a wide flat gold watch chain and a large ring on the little finger of his right hand; with gestures and mannerisms peculiarly his own; with a clear, penetrating, but well modulated voice—that was Ben Tillman on the platform at Black Jack last Saturday; Ben Tillman, the men who shook up South Carolina politically in '90 as the Charleston earthquake had shaken it up physically, or terrestrially, in '86; Ben Tillman, who put in motion the fast stagnating politics of this State and put the people to thinking on all matters pertaining to their welfare as they think in no other Southern State; Ben Tillman, the equalizer of taxation and the benefits to be derived from the taxes; Ben Tillman, the improver of our public school system; Ben Tillman, the father of Clemson and Winthrop; Ben Tillman, the abolisher of the barrooms, and the author of the Dispensary system,—incomparably the best system, whatever its enemies may say, ever yet devised for the control of the sale of liquor; Ben Tillman, "the maker of white faces in Beaufort"—the author of the all but entire elimination of the negro in South Carolina politics,—and of the other best things in our new Constitution; Ben Tillman, whose great speech in Washington did more to draw the lines last year that threw off the incubus of Clevelandism, and brought the Democratic party back to what it originally was,—the party of the people,—than any other cause; Ben Tillman, the brainiest and bravest man in American politics to-day,—the one and only, the unique, the original, irrepressible Ben Tillman.

Tillman's speech was practically the same that he delivered at Abbeville and Tirzah, and as a synopsis of these has already been published, I will not attempt to tell any of the things he said.
