A PRIVATE LETTER.

September 15 1897.
 Rogers & Bro.
 16 Cortland St.
 New York City.
 Mr. R. Branch, Chester, S. C.
 Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 11th is duly at hand and when you buy our knives you get the original and the genuine goods and not a counterfeit "Rogers" and we assure you that you get your money's worth and that you can recommend and warrant these goods to your customers to give them perfect satisfaction, and we stand behind you every time. We only use the best quality of steel in the knives, whereas the bogus goods are made of the cheapest steel they can buy.
 We should be very happy to receive another good order from you when Mr. Ryland calls upon you.
 The 24 dozen Dessert Knives & Forks we expect to send tomorrow.
 Business is getting to be very lively with us now and the good times have at last returned, and we have no doubt that you will receive your full share.
 Mr. White acknowledges your letter with thanks and shall be very glad to receive the newspapers you refer to, and he is also glad to have become personally acquainted with you, as he knew and esteemed your good father for many years and always paid him a call when in Chester. I should like very much to see how you have improved the store and have no doubt it looks very fine.
 With kind regards, and being always ready to serve you to the best of our ability, we remain,
 Truly yours,
 ROGERS & BRO.
 G. C. White.

Too Much Water.

Rev. G. M. Tolson, formerly pastor of the Baptist church at this place, now connected with the Episcopal Mission near Wilmington, N. C. had a narrow escape from drowning out from the beach near Wilmington. He was rescued by some fishermen just in the nick of time, as he was nearly exhausted trying to keep above water. He was nearly gone and was not able to be removed to his home in Wilmington for several hours.

A Cure for Bilious Colic.

RESOURCE, Screven Co., Ga.—I have been subject to attacks of bilious colic for several years. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the only sure relief. It acts like a charm. One dose of it gives relief when all other remedies fail.—G. D. SHARP. For sale by J. F. Mackey & Co. and B. C. Hough & Co., Lancaster, S. C.

He Knows, I Guess.

"One more unfortunate" is preparing to engage in semi-weekly journalism. Mr. J. T. Bigham of Chester is going to try his hand at a business that has brought but little satisfaction to any publisher that we know of who has tried the fun of running a twice-a-week paper in any town in this State. The Herald embarked in the business nearly three years ago, being one of the pioneers in the "advanced" idea, and it is only because it would look like taking a step backward that we have not returned to the publication of a weekly paper. Brother Bigham will find after a while when he has a semi-weekly outgo with a weekly income that the fellow who has to hold the bag will not feel much comfort, very little glory, but rivers of tribulation in running a semi-weekly paper. However, if he has a plethoric pocket-book all his own it may be that nothing herein contained will apply in his case.—Rock Hill Herald.

It Saves the Croupy Children.

SEAVIEW, Va.—We have a splendid sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and our customers coming from far and near, speak of it in the highest terms. Many have said that their children would have died of croup if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given.—KELLAM & OURREN. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. F. Mackey & Co. and B. C. Hough Co., Lancaster, S. C.

Shot Gun Used.

Mr. Frank Perry was shot last Saturday morning by Mr. J. L. Barton. The load, which was No. 1 shot, took effect in the rear portion of his hip and thigh. Dr. W. M. Crawford was called and was able to get out a number of the shot. He found the wound a pretty ugly one and very painful, though not serious. The shooting took place near Mr. Vandlingham's ginhouse in Dry Creek, near where both parties live. Perry was on his way to town and he and Mr. Hendrix were riding side by side in a wagon when he was shot.

Mr. Barton was at the ginhouse with his gun and says, so we understand, that he started towards

Mr. Perry to ask him about a certain report when he says Mr. Perry drew his pistol, whereupon he used his shot gun, with the result aforesaid.

Another report says that Mr. Barton had been at the ginhouse some time apparently waiting for some one, with his gun on his shoulder, and that when the wagon got up pretty close to him he raised his gun and shot and began loading to shoot again, but that the bystanders interfered and prevented him from shooting again.

Just what the trouble was that brought about this shooting is enveloped in some uncertainty, one report being that a woman was at the bottom of it; another that Perry had accused Barton of attempting to steal his cotton.

Turned Over to the Treasurer.

Our efficient and accomodating County Auditor, Mr. Jno. A. Cook, has turned over to Treasurer J. E. Blackmon the tax duplicate as prepared by him, and from which the Treasurer will collect the taxes this fall.

Through the kindness of the Auditor we are able to give our readers the total taxes to be collected and the items composing the total, as follows:

State	$10,594.15
County	10,594.15
Special County (L. & C. R. R.)	6,356.49
School Tax (3 mills)	6,356.49
Special School	2,401.99
O. R. & C. R. R.	3,244.86
Poll Tax	$2,850.00
Total	$42,398.13

Auditor Cook's books and abstracts are models of neatness, and testify to his efficiency as an officer.

Brought Back by the Sheriff.

Sheriff L. M. Clyburn returned from Marlin, Texas, Monday on the 1 o'clock L. & C. train, bringing with him Mr. W. J. Horton who is wanted here to answer the charge of breach of trust with Capt. J. V. Welsh of Kershaw. As we understand the charge, Capt. Welsh turned some horses and mules over to Mr. Horton to sell for him, and that he sold them and used the money. He afterwards left for Texas. He gave bond here Monday afternoon for his appearance at the October term of court and was released.

Dig down to the cause of your sickness, if you want to get well and stay well. Most likely it's indigestion. The irritating poisons of fermenting, putrid food, left in the stomach by indigestion, cause headache, neuralgia, nervousness, dizziness, stomachache, nausea, irritability, and all the other well-known symptoms of indigestion.

They also cause many pains and disorders which are often laid to other causes and hence are not easily cured. But as soon as the poisons are removed, all these symptoms and disorders disappear, because there is nothing left to cause them. Nothing succeeds in this like Shaker Digestive Cordial, because it prevents the undigested food from fermenting in the stomach and helps the stomach to digest its food.

Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

Death of Miss Annie Caston.

Miss Annie E. Caston died suddenly of apoplexy last Friday morning about half past six o'clock at the home of Mr. A. B. Rollings, of Oakhurst. She made complaint soon after rising that morning of feeling nauseated and lay down across the bed, calling for some camper. When breakfast was announced, she said she did not wish any breakfast. A little later she uttered a deep groan and began gasping for breath and in a few moments her spirit had taken its flight to its maker, and the body lay lifeless.

Miss Annie was about 59 years of age, being the youngest daughter of the late Wilkes Caston and sister of the late T. W. Caston of Camden and the late Mrs. A. Mayer of this place.

She was kind hearted and sympathetic and took great delight in ministering to the wants of the sick and afflicted. She had been a member of the Methodist church ever since early girlhood and adorned her life with many christian graces.

Her remains were brought up on the 4 o'clock train Friday afternoon and taken to the home of Mrs. M. F. Jones, one of her nieces and at 11 o'clock Saturday morning were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives. Dr. Weber conducted a brief service at the grave.

A GIFT FOR FURMAN.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Miles, of Greenville, have made a deed of their valuable Caesar's Head property, consisting of the buildings of the famous Caesar's Head resort and 2,231 acres of valuable land to Furman University. Dr. and Mrs. Miles refused $20,000 in cash for this property a few years ago.

The conditions named by the donors are that the Furman trustees pay them an annuity of $800 and give them free board in the hotel, or one of the cottages, when the hotel is open. The trustees are given absolute control of the property after the first of next month. The annuity is to be paid during the life of both, or either, of the donors.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros.' Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound, and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. F. Mackey & Co. and B. C. Hough & Co., Lancaster, S. C.
