stores in Lancaster put together.
There is no use quoting prices on these two articles, for our competitors are just simply not in it. It would be only a waste of space

Culp are the presiding genii in that we carry the only complete stock of Guns in Lancaster.

Our Buyer, Mr. T. M. Fitzpatrick, when he left for the Northern Markets, was bouyed up by the promising crop prospect and bought the largest STOCK he ever bought. The last four weeks of dry weather has cut the crop off. So we intend throwing profits to the wind. The Goods will have to be sold. No matter at what sacrifice. WE HAVE GOT TO HAVE THE MONEY.

Leaders of Low Prices.

LANCASTER ENTERPRISE
Published Every Wednesday
The Enterprise Publishing Company A. J. CLARK, Editor.

OCTOBER, - - - 20, 1897.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway Company has cut its rates both freight and passenger 33½ per cent. to go into effect the 25th of this month. This is probably the beginning of another rate war between this company and the Southern similar to that of a year ago.

Dr. A. P. Montague, the new president of Furman University, has reached Greenville and was formally received and inducted into office Tuesday morning, for which occasion an elaborate program had been prepared. This marks the beginning of a new era for Furman's already illustrious career.

Governor Ellerbe's circular letter sent out to the preachers asking for certain information is said to be bringing a host of replies and a variety of views as to the liquor question. It is said that most of them express a preference for prohibition, some for the dispensary plan and a few for high license. Governor Ellerbe has not seen fit to give these letters to the public, and the Columbia dailies appear to be rejoiced at the refusal. Just why, we do not know.

Chas. A. Dana, Editor and proprietor of the New York Sun, died Sunday night. He was one of America's most illustrious journalists.

The case of the State against Luetgert, a Chicago sausage maker, who is charged with murdering his wife and dissolving her body in a vat filled with caustic potash, was given to the jury Monday evening after a trial of about eight weeks. At 1 o'clock Tuesday morning the jury had not rendered a verdict.

"Duncan" League.

Editor Epworth Leaguer: At the last meeting of our League ("Duncan") we determined hereafter to patronize The Leaguer, and have subscribed for several copies. Our League, though small, is a very good and bright one. At a recent meeting several historical papers were read by the lady members, any one of which would have made excellent reading in a religious and literary periodical. At our last meeting, Col. R. E. Allison, of the Lancaster bar, read us a most interesting sketch of Judge L. Q. C. Lamar. At the meeting before that, the Pastor read his recollections of one of the brightest poets South Carolina has ever had—William Maxwell Martin who lies in Washington Street church yard in Columbia. Our next meeting is to be on Japan.

We claim that our League is an assured success. They (the League) insist, over his protest, that the Pastor must be the President.

SAMUEL A. WEBER.

Lancaster, S. C., Sept. 21, 1897.

At Kershaw Next Year.

The meetings of the Mohah Association at Buffalo church last week were well attended and the work was characterized, we are told, by a spirit of harmony.
Messrs. D. A. Williams and W. S.
L. Porter attended from here.
Sheriff L. M. Clyburn who was a delegate was unable to attend on account of official work.

The Association will meet at Kershaw next year.

One a Day.

Mrs. Coffey, an aged lady of the Debar section, was taken to the hospital for the insane last Tuesday. Mr. J. J. Perry accompanying her.

On Friday Sheriff Clyburn conveyed Mrs. George Funder-back of the Stevens' mill neighborhood, to the same institution for treatment.

Saturday Deputy Sheriff Wilson went to Columbia to take Charley Funderburk, colored, to the same asylum.

Dwelling Burned.

Mr. I. L. Wilson of the Dixie section had the misfortune to lose his dwelling and all his household and kitchen furniture by fire last Thursday night about 10 o'clock. Mr. Wilson was at home by himself, his family having gone to his father's in-law to spend the night. He had gone to bed and was awoken by the smoke and noise of the flames to find the rear portion of the house enveloped in flames and beginning to fall in.

He had hauled a couple of bales of cotton out of the house that day, or his loss which is heavy on him as it is, would have been still heavier, with not a dollar of insurance.

A dwelling occupied by Messrs.
B. D. Plyler and H. D. Thompson in the O. K. neighborhood was burned together with all its contents. The origin of the fire is unknown. No one was at home when the fire occurred, all having gone off on a visit to relatives.
No insurance.

Rev. J. W. Little's Tent Meeting.

Rev. J. W. Little, evangelist, is here to hold a series of meetings on factory hill as soon as his tent arrives. He preached in the Baptist church Sunday night Monday and Tuesday nights, and will continue to preach there nightly till the tent arrives.

Brother Little's fame as a preacher was known here before he came, and it is expected that his efforts for the conversion of his fellow man will result in much good. Wherever he has held meetings he has done much good, in both North and South Carolina.

I feel like a new man and life is worth living's nee I took a course of Dr. E. C. Wes's Nerve and Brain Treatment.
