Furniture and Stoves!

We sell more Furniture and Stoves than all the rest of the

There is no use quoting prices on these two articles, for our competitors are just simply not in it. It would be only a waste of space and printer's ink to do so.

Groceries and Hardware!

Mr. J. H. Carnes, assisted by Mr. W. B. Cauthen and Mr. J. F.
Culp are the presiding genii in Rio 9 pounds to the $1.00. Now it is a well known fact that the New Tariff has advanced Guns 40 per cent.—We anticipated this fact and bought our Guns in June.

So you can have them at the old price. It is also as well known that we carry the only complete stock of Guns in Lancaster.

Our Buyer, Mr. T. M. Fitzpatrick, when he left for the Northern Markets, was bouyed up by the promising crop prospect and bought the largest STOCK he ever bought. The last four weeks of dry weather has cut the crop off. So we intend throwing profits to the wind. The Goods will have to be sold. No matter at what sacrifice. WE HAVE GOT TO HAVE THE MONEY.

Advanced to Priesthood.

New York Churchman

The Rev. George M. Tolson was advanced to the priesthood in St. James' church, Wilmington, on Oct. 3, by the bishop of the diocese, the Rev. Edward C.
Wootten and the Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., assisting in laying on of hands. The Rev. Mr. Tolson was formerly a Baptist minister and had charge of a church in this city. He was ordained deacon a year ago, since which time he has been doing faithful and effective work at St. James' mission, the Chapel of the Good Shepherd.

Have it Ready for Them.

Messrs. R. R. Riddle and R. L.
Hicklin are authorized collectors for collecting subscription to the ENTERPRISE. If you owe anything on your paper, try to pay it to them when they call on you. If you can't possibly pay it all, be sure to pay a good portion of it.
We need the money and need it now.

Join the Golden Chain.

A fraternal assessment insurance order is now being organized in our city. State Deputy A. A. Nolan will be here for a few days getting charter members for the new lodge. See him and have him explain to you the low rates at which you carry Golden Chain Insurance.

The Golden Chain is now established in 28 states and has 24 lodges, in 22 of the most prominent towns in South Carolina.

The Golden Chain offers you insurance from $500 to $2,000 payable at death, and half this amount during life should you become totally or permanently disabled. It also gives sick benefits from $5. to $15. per week to such members who desire to participate in that fund.

Twenty Charter members must be obtained to organize the lodge, fifteen have already been written up. Get your name on the charter list and be present at the organization early in November.

Shot While Running.

On Wednesday morning Sam Duncan, col., in the employ of Mr. John H. Caskey, gave Mr. C. some very impudent talk when Mr. C. ordered him from the yard.
Sam refused to go, and when Mr.

C. started towards him for the purpose of ejecting him he grabbed up the axe. A young son of Mr. Caskey's seeing this ran for his father's gun. As soon as Sam saw the boy come out of the house with the gun he began doublequickening from the premises. Mr. Caskey grabbed the gun from his son and fired at Sam, several shot taking effect in his hip.—Sat. Ledger.

Convicted, and Paid Up.

Dick Stewart, colored, was convicted in Magistrate Burns' court last week on the charge of stealing two new blind bridles from the stables of H. J. Gregory & Co., and was sentenced to 30 days on the chain gang, or pay a fine of $16.40. He paid the fine.
The bridles were recovered.

ADVISED TO HOLD COTTON.

Farmers And Mill Men in The South Asked to Wait For a Rise.

The officers of the Farmers' Alliance in South Carolina and North Carolina and other influential persons of this section are sending out circular letters advising cotton growers to hold their cotton, as the price is bound to rise before the end of the present year. The same position is being taken by the cotton manufactures of the South. Lately a considerable percentage of the mills began running on extra time and some on double time, on account of the heavy orders being received.

The Board of Governors of the Southern Cotton Spinners' Association held a meeting a few days ago and sent out a circular letter to all the members of the Association, appealing to them to refuse orders rather than run on extra time to fill them at present prices. The letters are signed by J. T. Anthony, president, and George B. Hiss, secretary, of the Southern Cotton Spinners' Association, and are having the desired effect.
