WE KEEP DRAWING THE CROWDS.

FOUR WEEKS TO CHRISTMAS, AND THE AGONY IS OVER.

Your Chance of the Season.

"Opportunities," said the old darkey, "are sure to come to every man and woman, but it's only a bright man and woman dat knows 'em when they come." It won't take a "bright man or woman to see the opportunities we offer now."

Our Prices Speak for Themselves.

Thousands of dollars worth of Goods come into and go out of our stores every week at ridiculous reductions. We sell them at a shadow of profit to you. If all the people knew all the advantages to be gained by trading at GANSON'S for the next thirty days, then all the people would do their trading here.

DRESS GOODS! We talk a good deal about our Dress Goods; so do the hundreds of customers who see and buy them. Our Third Stock—what we name our Christmas Stock—is just in. Fancy Jacquards, American Novelties, English Serges, Silk-warp, Henriettas, Scotch Plaids, etc., are here in profusion from 8 cents up. We sell more Dress Goods than all of them combined.

Our Millinery, under the management of Miss Brown, is simply splendid,—best we've ever had. You can't expect us to represent our tremendous stock in a small advertisement. You just come in for what you want.

Are Some of These To Your Liking!

Ladies $1.25 Sunday Shoes, only 75cts. Men's solid Sunday $1.50 Shoes, only $1.00. Children's stout Shoes, only 25cts. No other store can afford such Shoe Bargains. We smash their prices into "smithereens." Our Shoe business is steadily increasing.

Colthing Bargains. Our second stock straight from Sheriff's Sale. Going to be busy days at our Clothing counters. 128 Men's Suits, 62 Overcoats, 30 Capes at 62 cents on the dollar.

To Arrive this Week:

$800 worth of blankets and Underwear, Tickings and Flannels just received. 1100 yards of that 25 cent wool Jeans at 15 cent It has come. It had to come. Capes and Jackets made for winter wear, were not sold because there was no weather to sell them. We've secured a lot of them at 75 cents on the dollar.

You must buy here.
