

Tabernacle Letter.

For the Enterprise.

Mr. Editor:—Having seen nothing in your valuable paper from this section in some time the writer will offer a few dots of a local nature, and if deemed worthy of publication may be inserted in your next issue.

The Bethel school house, a neat building recently built was destroyed by fire on the 13th inst. It is thought to have been of an incendiary origin. The citizens of the community held an indignation meeting on the day after the fire, and made every effort to ascertain the guilty party requiring many present to state where they were at the time of the fire, 8 o'clock p. m. One arrest was made, but failing to secure satisfactory evidence the suspected man was released. It is hoped the guilty party may yet be found and punished to the full extent of the law. The patrons, we understand, will rebuild at once.

We are glad to report the Tabernacle Academy in a healthy condition with encouraging prospects for a successful session. This is the third year the writer has had his life-boat anchored within Tabernacle's harbor, as principal of her school, and it is pleasant to be located in a community where energy, enterprise, kindness and hospitality predominate. Possibly there is no life-work in which greater perplexities, difficulties and oftentimes unpleasantness, are to be met with than in the life-work of a conscientious teacher. Such is the case for the reason that those who constitute his patronage imagine his labors are light; that he is a being who needs no sympathy or encouragement in his efforts to train the minds of the young who may happen to be placed under his tutelage. When therefore it happens that his lot is cast among a people who recognize the fact that his lot is not without its difficulties and perplexities then it is the teacher feels that his labors are appreciated and is impelled to fit himself more thoroughly for his noble life-work.

Mr. J. F. Carnes, one of Tabernacle's most successful farmers, (and by the way a man who lives at home,) celebrated his 45th birthday by giving a royal dinner recently. Indeed a most bountiful and delightful dinner it was. Sixty present. We wish him many returns.

It was the pleasure of your correspondent to witness a very pretty and interesting double marriage at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday, 17th inst. The contracting parties were Mr. J. M. Stewart and Miss Fannie Carnes, Mr. Nardy Carnes and Miss Alice Sullivan. Early in the evening, about 6 o'clock, the bridal party arrived, and very soon thereafter the happy young couples were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by their popular pastor, the Rev. L. L. Bedenbaugh. After receiving the congratulations of friends the invited guests repaired to the hospitable home of Mr. J. W. Carnes, the father of one of the brides, where a most elegant wedding supper was served. A reception was given the newly married couples on the day following at the home of Mr. J. H. Stewart which was enjoyed by all present. The writer was "specially" invited over at noon and needless to say did justice to self. We again congratulate our young friends and hope they may live long to enjoy conjugal felicity. The Sunday school at this place we are glad to say is in good working order under the judicious management of the Superintendent, Mr. A. C. Rowell. In conclusion of this hastily written communication, may we not exclaim, let the grand work of the Sabbath school go forward!! Let the children of our land, and all other lands be carefully instructed in that "Book of God's glorious Truth" over the realms of which (as a distinguished one has so beautifully said) "An Arch-angel might fly from eternity to eternity and yet never reach the limits." Let the great chain of Sabbath school work—the first link of which was forged on English soil, continue to be increased until it shall encircle the whole world in its mystic tie. Then as a grand result the Bible will be acknowledged as the true Word of God by millions now in utter ignorance of its existence. G.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

CHIEF CAUSE.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail. Mention the ENTERPRISE and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

Teddy's Lesson.

"Come, Teddy" said Mrs. West. "It's time for the cows to come home."

But Teddy was reading a story about a shipwreck, and did not want to be disturbed just then.

"O mother, wait a little while," he said.

A little later Hester came to the door.

"Teddy, you ought to get the cows," she said.

"Bother the cows!" replied Teddy, crossly; and his sister went away.

Soon a man's face appeared at the window.

"Edward, the cows!" said Mr. West; and when his father spoke like that, Teddy lost no time in obeying.

Sulkily, he laid down his book and walked through the kitchen, where his mother and sister were cooking the supper and his father was piling up the kindling-wood for the morning's fire.

"I hate cows!" Teddy grumbled, as he walked slowly across the pine floor.

"They're a bother, and I wish we didn't have any. Cows are no good anyway,—just in the way. I hate cows!"

An hour later the cows were safe in the barn for the night, and Teddy was in a better humor. He was hungry, too, after the walk to the meadow and back in the fresh, bracing air.

A fine round of meat was smoking on the table but there was none on Teddy's plate.

"This is beef," said Mr. West. "I did not give you any because you hate cows, Teddy." Teddy opened his mouth, and then closed it again without a word.

"I won't give you any butter, Teddy," said Mrs. West, "because we get our butter from the cows; and you hate them so."

Hester poured out the milk for the other children, but to Teddy she gave a glass of water.

"Cows are such a bother," she said soberly. "I know you don't want any milk."

Teddy looked wistfully at the plate of creamy cheese, but it was passed to every one but him. But, worst of all, when the custards were brought in, sweet and brown, in their little white cups, Teddy was passed by.

"Of course you wouldn't eat custards, for they are made mostly of milk; and cows are no good, said Aunt Hetty.

Teddy looked as if he would cry. "I—I haven't had anything to eat," he blurted. "Just bread without any butter, or potatoes and water. I wish I hadn't said those things about the cows."

Everybody smiled then, and no one objected when Hester shyly passed to him a cup of custard.—Youth's Companion.

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL FITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought on the and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.
