The A. M. E. Conference.

The African Methodist Conference was in session here last week. It adjourned Monday morning. The body was presided over by Bishop Arnett, of Ohio, who was a good presiding officer and an able preacher. He preached to the white people in the court house Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and every one of the vast crowd that heard him was delighted with his style, his matter and his eloquence.

Rev. F. R. McCoy, the pastor of St. Paul church, where the Conference met, has been returned by the Bishop to this same charge.
