CATARRH CURED, HEARING RESTORED.

After 25 Years of Suffering with Catarrh, Which Caused Deafness, Mr. W. Scott Was Completely Cured by

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY

W. SCOTT.

3758 N. Fifteenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa., March 10, 1901.

Dear Sir: I have now used four bottles of your Malt Whiskey, and thank you for my life to this whiskey. I am 67 years old and have had catarrh of the nose, throat and head for twenty-five years or more. I am hard of hearing. About six weeks ago I was so sick I could not eat, sleep and hardly able to walk. Felt more like dying than living. Was under a doctor's care and taking all kinds of drugs and medicine, douches, solutions in nose, etc. The doctor nearly blew my head away with a powerful air pump—medicated air, he called it. It did absolutely nothing in my case. I threw everything away—medicine, air pump, douches—and commenced on Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I felt better from the start. I take one ounce with water before and after each meal and at bedtime, and now, after using four bottles, I can eat and drink and sleep well, and I feel better to-day than I have for twenty years. I was opposed to all kinds of liquor and used none for twenty-five years. I use Duffy's as a medicine only, and shall continue to use it as long as I live, if I can get it. I know it will keep me alive, and may in time improve my hearing. I hope it will. Yours very sincerely, W. SCOTT.

A LATER LETTER.

Dear Sir: I have improved some since writing you before, only occasional cough and very little discharge from nose. Feeling much better. My hearing is much improved now; not so much roaring in my head since Duffy's has brought my blood to a healthier condition and motion. Sincerely yours, W. SCOTT. March 21, 1901.

A Fox Necessitates a Fox.

A recent dispatch from Singapore, Siam, gave a curious account of how a fox had adopted a fox and raised it. The mother of the fox was killed in a trap last fall, and a farmer gave the little one into the care of one whose lamb had been killed by wildcats shortly before. The fox had learned to walk, and the affection between the fox and orphan seems to be an original if the little fox were its own offspring.

The Value of Expert Treatment.

Everyone who is afflicted with a chronic disease experiences great difficulty in having the case intelligently treated by the average physician. These diseases can only be cured by a specialist who understands them thoroughly. Dr. J. Newton Hathaway, of Atlanta, Ga., is acknowledged the most skillful and successful specialist in the United States. Write him for his expert opinion of your case, for which he makes no charge.

Obligation of Wealth.

It was a saying of John Wesley that no man should die rich. The same thought is to be found in a remark of Jeremy Taylor that all the rich men will perceive, and all the world will perceive for them, that it is "but an ill recompense for all their aches that all that shall be left will be this, that the neighbors shall say

He died a rich man?

How many have lived to their final ineffectualness in the spirit, if not the letter, of Wesley's saying? How many have become in a slight respect the administrators of their own ruin? They are not rich, but they are rich in our esteem, and they are rich in the hearts of the many who have come from unknown benefactors. The country shocked by the yearly chronicle of crimes, of violence, thefts, defraudations and breaches of trust, illustrating the seamy side of life; but ever against these things is the bright story of benevolence flowing in countless rills of helpfulness.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Best Prescription for Malaria.

Chills and fever is a bottle of Groves' Tasteless Chili Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, no pay. Price 50 cts.

Hunting Trouble.

It is announced that President Roosevelt has decided to appoint the negro, Dr. Cram, collector at Charleston. There have always been a few people in this country who will persist in blowing into a loaded gun barrel. President Roosevelt seems to belong to that class.—Chattanooga News.

Mouse's Nest in Her Hat.

A woman who thought she would wear her last winter's hat just one more season caused ructions the other day in a Clinton avenue trolley car, says a Newark special to the New York Sun. Before starting downtown for her shopping she went to the attic and dragged out the old hat and put it on without a close inspection. Then she boarded the car in which there was nothing left but standing room. Of course they all spotted the newcomer's hat and knew its vintage at a glance.

"She's a parlor trick lady," suddenly exclaimed the small boy to his mother. "She can move her bonnet without shaking her head."

The bonnet was surely wobbling a little and there was also an uncanny upward movement. The small boy's mother called the attention of her neighbor to the moving hat and the word passed down the line of seats, so everybody was more or less prepared when the real calamity came. That was when the passenger suspected of being a parlor trick lady felt something herself and began to wriggle. A moment later she shrieked and then she threw last winter's hat on the floor of the car, thereby releasing five small but very lively mice that were born in the hat and might have been raised in it if the woman hadn't tried to make it do for two winters.

The keeper of the trolley car Camden was foully murdered the other night. He was found dead next morning with a bullet wound in his body. There is no clue to the murder.

Evidence of Blind Stagnation.

During the past few years the country has been afflicted with a kind of blind stagnation. This is not a new thing, but it is a new thing in its extent. It is a stagnation of the mind, a stagnation of the spirit, a stagnation of the soul. It is a stagnation of the whole human race. It is a stagnation of the whole human race. It is a stagnation of the whole human race.
