WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Many republican leaders who, in the recent erstwhile, were going about wearing a worn, haggard and hunted expression, are now walking the streets of the nation's capital wearing a broad and expansive smile that somewhat resembles a crack in a frozen liver. Wherefore? Simply because on the 31st of July last the statute of limitation ran and they are forever barred from prosecution for the misdeeds and speculation they indulged in while they held positions of honor and trust under the national government three years ago. There are many men who ought to have been indicted and would have been had not President Roosevelt told Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow not to investigate any of the cases where the statute of limitation would run this year. It was known here also that Perry S. Heath, the secretary of the Republican National Committee, would have been one of the first to be indicted, along with Machen, if the republican leaders had not stepped in and put a veto on the thing. Mr. Heath knows too much of the inside workings of the cogwheels and oiling the different parts of the machine received in the last two national campaigns. He might, as Rathborne threatened to do, "pull down the pillars of the temple," and that would be dangerous to many in high places and leave the republican skeleton exposed in all its hideousness. The man who invented the statute of limitations should have a monument erected to his memory by the republican leaders, for they know how much tribulation he saved them. The next convention of that party should pass the hat around, and no one should be more liberal in his donation than President Roosevelt, for it has saved him a world of annoyance and publicity, that might have jeopardized his political future. An excellent slogan for the republicans next year would be: Vive la Statute of Limitations.

YOUNG HUSBAND'S FEARFUL DEED.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Kent Stowe shot his wife, Pauline, dead in their bedroom at their home in this city today. Stowe then turned the revolver against himself and sent a bullet through his head. He was removed to a hospital, where he died this evening. The tragedy occurred shortly after the pair arose. Mrs. Stowe had attended to her infant, after which Stowe took the baby and carried it down stairs, giving it over to his mother's care. Returning to the bedroom Stowe shot his wife through the back of the head, killing her instantly. He then went to the bed and shot himself.

The police can find no motive for the crime. The married life of the pair, their parents declared, was happy. The family physician insists that Stowe was temporarily insane. He has suffered from malarial fever and at times was much depressed.

Stowe was a graduate of the Boston Institute of Technology and was employed by the Lake Shore railway. He was 21 years old. The wife was 20. The marriage, an elopement, the police say, occurred before

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by J. F. Mackey & Co., druggists.

he left college. Stowe was a grandson of James Tillinghast, at one time vice president of the New York Central railroad.

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Charter, 705 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all mothers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Crawford Bros.
