Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you, if you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, your weakened nerves will soon so affect your heart's action as to bring on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nerve tonic, which quiets the nerves, so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seemingly stop beating and at others it would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours would pass and I would not know it. I could get. One week in last September I never closed my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure at a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $300.00 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in three days have derived more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies."—W. H. HUGHES, Fox Creek, Ky.

CHRISTIAN FORLORN HOPE

Advance of Salvation Army into Mountains of Kentucky.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 13—Col Richard E. Holz, who will command the Salvation Army corps during its trip into the mountain districts of Kentucky and Tennessee, where it will work, striving to bring about a more Christian condition of affairs than now exists, was given a farewell by the local Army branch tonight. Tomorrow Col. Holz, with Salvation Army officials from Cleveland, Pittsburg and Cincinnati, will leave the latter city for the field of work. In an interview today Col. Holz said:

"Our object is to carry Christianity to the mountaineers of the southern states that will be visited. These people are practically without Christianity. We feel that we should get in touch with these mountain people; have a band of our Salvationists personally visit them and try our methods on them. You see we really hardly know how to get at them, and that is the purpose of our coming trip. We will feel our way and study the situation thoroughly. We are very hopeful that the methods of the Salvation Army will prove just the thing to awaken this peculiar people and bring them out of their present condition. I can only say that we are hopeful; our methods may not work at all. The coming trip will tell the tale."

A Remarkable Record.

Chambelain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium, or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. F. Mackey & Co., druggists.

NOT TOO PROUD TO WORK.

Derby, Conn., Cor. New York Herald.

Heir to several millions and the recipient already of a life income of many thousands Franklin Farrel, Jr., 21 years old, Yale graduate, owner of fast horses and a $10,000 touring car, works ten hours a day in his father's foundry. He can be seen daily bending over a grindstone at the grimeiest and lowest labor in the whole plant.

Determined to learn and master the complicated business of his father's large foundry here, young Farrel last Monday began his apprenticeship.

Franklin Farrel, Sr., one of the wealthiest men in Connecticut, his estate being variously estimated at from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000, was unaware of his son's purpose until the latter had actually gone to work. Young Farrel is obliged to enter the mills with the other workmen at 7 o'clock every week-day morning and he passes out with the oil-begrimed crowds at 6 o'clock in the evening, hurrying home in his overalls and jumper to Tower Hall, the handsome Farrel residence.

He is beginning to abandon society, as the hard work in the mill drives him early to bed. Only the fact that he had undergone severe training as a candidate for the Yale crew enables the youth to stand the exacting work. On express orders from the office no favors are shown him.

Franklin Farrel, Jr., was graduated from Yale last June, standing high in his class. He was a D. K. E. man, but failed to make a senior society, a circumstance that occasioned much comment.

In the class statistics he was rated the best dressed man of 1903. He was a member of the famous "Jolly Eight," who were innocently instrumental in bringing about Carrie Nation's visit to Yale. Some wags sent an invitation to the famous bar-breaker to come to New Haven at a stated time, signing the names of the "Jolly Eight."

Mrs. Nation arrived at the appointed time and found the "Jolly Eight" just finishing a reunion supper in Vanderbilt Hall. She snatched away the cigarettes they were smoking and delivered her usual lecture, after which she was taken away by another party of students.

Young Farrel has just returned from a summer's automobile trip with his sister, Miss Elsie Farrel. While he is serving his apprenticeship he will receive $4 a week, but in the course of six months or a year, as he may show his proficiency, he may be paid at the rate of 12½ cents an hour. He carries his dinner in a pail and eats with the other workmen.

His cousin, Alton Farrel, has been appointed to a position in the office of the foundry, where he will learn the commercial end of the business.

Miss Elsie Farrel recently caused a stir by abandoning society, in which she was prominent, taking a course at a business college and entering the foundry office as stenographer and typewriter, assisting her father in his correspondence and assuming in a measure the duties of private secretary. She later gave up the work.

Franklin Farrel, Sr., besides controlling the Farrel Foundry and Machine Company, is extensively interested in silver mining properties near Salt Lake, Utah, and copper mines in the Lake Superior district. A few years ago he reaped a profit of several million dollars by the sale of the Parrot copper mine. He is also a half owner in a large sugar plantation in Cuba.

Tower Hall, the home of the Farrels, is considered the handsomest residence in the Naugatuck Valley.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Crawford Bros.

ANTICIPATION.

Mabel—Yes, dear, I will be a helpmeet to you and try to enlighten the daily troubles and worries of your life as best I can.

Arthur—But I have none, darling.

Mabel—Oh, you old goose! I mean when we are married, of course!

WHAT A RELIEF.

"Who's there?" called the poet. "I am the wolf at the door," came the dire reply.

"Come in, come in!" cried the poet. "I thought at first you might be a man with a bill."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Morphine

Can Morphine and Other Drug Habits be Cured?

It has been long contended by physicians that there is no cure for the drug habit. This is true so far as the rank and file of the medical profession are concerned. The reason, therefore, is that they are ignorant of the full scope and nature of the disease; but fortunately for the cause of suffering humanity we have demonstrated that the morphine or other drug habit can be cured and guarantee an absolute, permanent and painless cure to those addicted to the use of drugs if they will take our treatment and follow our instructions.

Each case submitted to us receives individual attention and treatment from an experienced nerve specialist. We do not detain you from business. We give immediate relief. Appetite for drugs is destroyed and appetite for food is restored.
