

Short Locals.

Wednesday, March 9, 1904.

—Eliza Price, colored, died last Saturday.

—Cotton is bringing 15½ cents on this market.

—Supervisor L. J. Perry is confined to his home with grip.

—Mrs. Hall Witherspoon has accepted a position with Williams-Hughes Co.

—Mr. D. B. Stover of the Heath Springs section has moved his family to Lancaster.

—The small grain crop looks more promising as spring approaches, and our farmers are more hopeful.

—The closing exercises of Prof. Sharp's school, Tabernacle High school, will take place on the 27th, 28th and 29th of this month.

—The 8-months-old child of Mr. Strickland died at the cotton mill Monday, and was buried yesterday after a funeral service by Rev. T. A. Dabney.

—The Lancaster and the Shiloh A. R. P. churches have extended a call to Rev. Paul Pressley who will complete his theological course at Due West in June.

—The election in Kershaw last Saturday resulted overwhelmingly in favor of issuing $10,000 worth of bonds for erecting a graded school building. The vote was 117 to 3. Those Kershaw people are hustlers.

—Cedar cross ties are something unusual in these parts, but several have been hauled through the streets recently and sold to the L. & C. R. R.

—If you have not paid your state and county taxes you have only till the 15th to do it. After that executions will be issued and placed in the sheriff's hands for collection.

—Mr. R. Miles, who for three years past has been doing a gents furnishing goods business here, left last week for Mullins where he will engage in a similar business. We wish him liberal success.

—Rev. Paul Pressley will preach at Shiloh next Sabbath morning and at Lancaster, in the A. R. P. church, at 4 o'clock p. m.

—36-inch Madras, nice styles, the 10-cent kind, at 7 cents. Nice assortment of 10-cent Gingham at 8 cents. Everything else cheap at Lancaster Mer. Co.

—There will be services in the Episcopal church next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. and at 4 p. m., conducted by Rev. G. Croft Williams.

—Died, Tuesday morning of last week, at Lando, Mrs. Mary J. Adams, widow of the late John Adams, aged about 71 years. She was a sister of the late J. J. Graham and lived here many years. She leaves several children, among them Mr. W. G. Adams of Rock Hill.

—Mrs. J. B. Oauthen, whose arm was amputated some weeks ago, mention of which was made in these columns, has had about two inches of the stub amputated, and is doing as well as could be expected. The operation was performed by Drs. Moore and Hinson of Heath Springs.

—Mr. Walter Bowers who has been clerking for Williams-Hughes Co. for several months past, moved to the country last week to resume farming.

—Married, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. N. Estridge, on March 6, 1904, at White Bluff, by J. M. Hilton, N. P., Mr. Luther Williams and Miss Almetta Estridge, daughter of the late J. N. Estridge, all of the White Bluff section.

—In the list of grand jurors published last week the name of W. Thurlow Beckham appeared by mistake of this office. It should have been W. Thurlow Blackmon.

—Mr. P. J. Walkins, of Greensboro, N. C. came down Monday and delivered a check for $3000 to Mrs. I. W. Moore in payment of policy carried by her late husband in the Knights of Pythias.

—Mr. J. E. Funderburk of Dudley lost $35 on the streets here last Thursday. Thirty dollars of the money was in bills, and five dollars in silver. Up to this writing he had not found or heard anything of it.

—The Ladies of the Lancaster Baptist church will serve dinner at the next court on Monday, March 21, 1904, at the Riddle building near the bank. The dinner will be satisfactory in every respect and all are invited to come and partake.

—Died, March 4, 1904, Mrs. Mary Davis, of the Heath Springs section, widow of the late Sylvester Davis, aged about 70 years. She leaves three children, Mrs. Hattie Johnson and Mrs. Lucy Bailey of this county, and Mr. James Davis of Georgia. She was buried at New Hope Baptist church Saturday.

—The Lancaster county pension board concluded its work and forwarded the returns to Columbia last Friday. The roll contains the names of 233 old pensioners—i. e., those who have been on the roll previous to this time—and 27 new applications were approved, making a total of 260. Allowing for deaths and removals.

—The Ithica Conservatory of Music, whose quartette will appear at the school auditorium on Monday night, the 14th instant, comes to us very highly recommended. Be sure and secure tickets for same, as we seldom have an opportunity of hearing such high class talent. Tickets can be obtained of J. T. Thomason or at Crawford's drug store.

—Died, on factory hill, Monday, Mrs. — McFadden, aged about 50 years. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. P. Garrison, who lives in the mill district. The remains were taken to Richburg yesterday evening, her original home, for interment.

Williams-Hicklin.

In accordance with advance announcement made in these columns, Mr. James A. Williams and Miss Freddie Hicklin were married last Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Mr. A. W. Hicklin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Chalmers Fraser. That night a delightful reception was given the happy couple at the home of the groom's mother, and all present greatly enjoyed the occasion. Much happiness and liberal success to them in their journey through this world.

Two Banks for Kershaw.

In last week's issue we announced that Kershaw would soon have a bank. It now appears that Kershaw will soon have two banks. The secretary of state has issued a commission to the Bank of Kershaw, to be capitalized at $50,000, the incorporators of which are Leroy Springs, J. T. Stevens, J. M. Carson, T. J. Gregory and W. A. Ingram; and to the People's Bank of Kershaw, to be capitalized at $50,000. The incorporators of this are: O. P. Heath, S. W. Heath, R. L. Blackmon, J. W. Truesdale, R. S. Floyd and John M. Hinson. Efforts have been made to unite the two banks into one.

admitted fully into Christendom until some changes are wrought. The abolition of the censorship of the foreign press just decreed by the czar is a long step forward, and the end of the present war may find Russia ready to make still further changes in her government.—The State.

Held For Mutiny.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, March 7.—The United States lighthouse tender Nina, the sailors of which recently were charged with mutiny, has sailed for Pensacola for repairs, manned by a crew from the gunboat Gloucester. The members of the crew of the Nina, who were arrested for mutiny, have been discharged and several of them will remain here to wear a complaint against Capt. Vm. G. Cutler for false imprisonment.

The prisoners say they were hanghaied in New York last April and that when they recently signed what they believed was the payroll they learned that they had unwittingly contracted for service on the Nina for a year.

—The death of Miss Eva Blackwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Blackwell in her fifteenth year, and so soon after returning to Kershaw to live, was very sad indeed. She was stricken with pneumonia in its most violent form and died Saturday night, just one week after stricken. Her remains were interred in our village cemetery Sunday afternoon after funeral services by Rev. Jabez Ferris, of Camden, assisted by Rev. D. C. Freeman. Her deeply grieved parents and brothers and sisters have the sympathy of the entire community. May a kind providence help them to bear their grief.

Interesting News

Baltimore, Md.,
March 5, 1904.

Mr. J. T. Wylie, Manager,
Lancaster, S. C.

Dear Sir:

I am working hard, getting the cream of the dry goods and clothing markets. Have had unusually fine luck since I came on. Have gotten on to some big jobs that ought to sweep our competitors off the earth. We will be able to sell a great many things for less than our competitors pay for them. Am rushing you goods as fast as I can. Think we can, in two weeks time, show the greatest line of Spring merchandise Lancaster has ever seen. I am highly pleased with the great success of our big cost sale. You must have given our competitors the dry grins. Will get home in a week or ten days.

Yours truly,
E. E. CLOUD.

Maj. Miller Resigns as a Trustee.

The board of trustees of Lancaster school district met Thursday to act upon the resignation of Maj. B. F. Miller, who has been a most efficient member of the board for a number of years. It was with regret that the resignation was accepted. T. S. Carter was elected to fill the vacancy. Maj. Miller's reasons for resigning are fully set forth in his letter to the board, which follows:

To the Board of Trustees of Lancaster Graded School:

Gentlemen: I respectfully tender my resignation as a trustee of your honorable body. My long term of service and declining health admonish me that I would retire from this public duty. With many thanks to the members of the board for kindness and favors extended, and best wishes for their continued success individually and collectively, I ask that the resignation be accepted at as early a day as may be possible.

Respectfully submitted,
B. F. Miller.

The Spinsters' Return.

"The Spinsters now are back in town, gay and happy, smiling. And now will tell of our renown Out in Oklahoma."

Yes, the spinsters are much in evidence in Lancaster just now; and being filled to overflowing with their vivid experiences in Oklahoma, they have decided, with singular unanimity, to unburden themselves for the benefit of their numerous friends and admirers? and the public generally at the graded school auditorium next Friday night. They guarantee to make "any old thing" laugh, from a melancholy monkey to a dignified divine.

The gay and fascinating spinsters will throw wide open their hot air valves promptly at 8 o'clock, so don't miss the opening performance. Be on hand in time to get a good seat, and do your best to hold it down while the lurrid sallies of wit electrify the whole audience.

The admission fees will be as follows: Adults, 25 cents; children, 10 cents; reserved seats, 35 cents. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the public library fund.

In order to give the public an idea of how they look, since their return, as well as a taste, so to speak, of the night's feast, the obliging spinsters will give a free street parade Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

At the conclusion of the night performance the Spinsters will remain in and about the building a reasonable length of time with the confident hope and expectation of running down and pouncing upon any stray matrimonial propositions they may be so fortunate as to find.
