

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Work of Miss Clara Barrett-Strait Complimented by Member of the Old Command.

The portrait of Gen. Micah Jenkins which was painted by Miss Clara Barrett-Strait has been accepted by the committee, the members of which express their satisfaction. Col. Asbury Coward, superintendent of the Citadel academy, expressed his opinion of the work in the following language:

"Having had an opportunity to inspect the portrait of my lamented hero-friend, Gen. Micah Jenkins, I take pleasure in saying that I think it a faithful copy of the photograph from which it was taken, and as good a likeness of the original as can now be hoped for. The texture of the work is excellent. In my judgment the work should be accepted as satisfactory."

"I think Miss Strait has executed a fine portrait, worthy of the subject in whose honor she has worked with loving devotion, as I understand her father was a friend and comrade of General Jenkins; and the thanks of every survivor of that gallant command are due to the gifted young artist for the excellent portraiture she has produced" writes Col. Jas. A. Hoyt of Greenville.

The following from a member of Gen. Jenkin's command is a sincere testimonial* from Capt. W. B. Smith, formerly captain of Company G, Palmetto sharpshooters "I have the picture of Gen. Jenkins and I think it very fine. I was the last captian that commanded his old company after he was promoted to colonel; was present at the wilderness when he was killed. No braver, grander man ever lived or drew a sword than general Micah Jenkins."

Mr. D. A. Pressley of this city says: "I have called at Hon. Joseph Pope's residence and viewed the portrait of my late colonel, Micah Jenkins. I think it as near perfect as it could be, as I remember him 42 years ago. I was a member of the Fifth regiment, Company D."—The State.

Couldn't Remove Cavity.

(From The Philadelphia Ledger.)
A certain Philadelphian, who is at once a minister of the gospel and a registered physician, had an amusing experience in his attempt to corner a Christian Scientist.

Every time they met this scientist took occasion to scoff at medical science and to dwell upon the wonders that could be performed through faith.

"You are convinced that, through faith, you can do anything," said the medical man one day.

"Yes" he replied, "faith will move mountains."

A week later he was in the doctor's office with a swollen jaw, due to toothache,

"What! You here?" the doctor exclaimed with feigned astonishment.

"Oh doctor," he said, "I have suffered agony all through the night. I simply can't stand this pain any longer."

"Have you tried faith?" the physician asked him, "You know you told me faith could move mountains."

"But this is a cavity, doctor."

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by J. F. Mackey & Co., Druggists.

Camden's New Bank.

A special from Camden to The News and Courier says: The Commercial Savings Bank and Trust Company, the new bank recently organized in Camden, has opened its doors for business. Mr. E. S. Vaux is president; Mr. D. R. Williams, Jr., vice-president; Mr. John T. Mackey, recently with the Bank of Lancaster, cashier; Capt. W. M. Shannon, solicitor. They have opened in the Capers building, one door south of the postoffice, where they will do business until the first of September next, when they expect to move into a new and handsome bank building to be erected for them this summer. Architect Wilson, of Columbia, is drawing the plans for the building. This bank starts out with every indication of success. Its officers are all well known and reliable business men.

Prospects of a Coal Famine.

Altoona, Pa., March 6.—Sub District No. 1, of District No. 2, United Mine Workers, of the central Pennsylvania bituminous field, has unanimously adopted a resolution insisting on the continuation of 66 cents a ton for pick mining, 59 cents a ton for machine mining, an increase of 40 per cent over the old rate, and an increase for drivers and day laborers. The annual District convention will be held here next week. The delegates have been instructed to resist any reduction, even to the point of striking. The central Pennsylvania delegates led the fight for no reduction at the Indianapolis Convention.

If it's a bilious attack, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick recovery is certain. For sale by J. F. Mackey & Co., druggists.

Evolution in China

There are reports of Nihilist conspiracies against the czar on the part of the several thousand Russian students in Paris. At a large meeting of students the other day at which revolutionary utterances were made, four persons, supposed to be spies, were caught and would scarcely have escaped with their lives but for the interference of the police. For a number of years the Nihilists have been quiescent—whether through the repressive measures of the government or the more sensible views of reformers; but Russia is always on the brink of some social or political crater and any untoward event may cause an eruption.

This is one of the chief menaces to which Russia is subjected during her present war with Japan. Whether successful or unsuccessful in Manchuria, Russia cannot suffer in the east and will hardly be attacked by her rivals in the west; but the empire embraces so many diverse and discontented elements that if it emerges from war without intestine troubles it will be fortunate. The Russian government is an anomaly in this age and generation. All other civilized countries have a constitution of some kind and a representative government, but the White Czar is still the autocrat of all the Russians, and his word is absolutely law from the Niemen river to Behring straits. This form of government is in itself an evidence of semi-barbarism, and Russia cannot be admitted fully into Christendom until some changes are wrought. The abolition of the censorship of the foreign press just decreed by the czar is a long step forward, and the end of the present war may find Russia ready to make still further changes in her government.—The State.

Held For Mutiny.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, March 6.—The United States lighthouse tender Nina, the sailors of which recently were charged with mutiny, has sailed for Pensacola for repairs, manned by a crew from the gunboat Gloucester. The members of the crew of the Nina, who were arrested for mutiny, have been discharged and several of them will remain here to swear a complaint against Capt. Wm. G. Cutler for false imprisonment.

The prisoners say they were shanghaied in New York last April and that when they recently signed what they believed was the payroll they learned that they had unwittingly contracted for service on the Nina for a year.

R. E. WYLIE
Attorney-at-Law.
Lancaster, S. C., Sept. 16, '03—6m.

Mrs. Rosa Adams, niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C. S. A., wants every woman to know of the wonders accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot tell you with pen and ink what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me, suffering from the ills peculiar to the sex, extreme lassitude and that all gone feeling. I would rise from my bed in the morning feeling more tired than when I went to bed, but before I had used two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began to feel the buoyancy of my younger days returning, became regular, could do more work and not feel tired than I had ever been able to do before, so I continued to use it until I was restored to perfect health. It is indeed a boon to sick women and I heartily recommend it. Yours very truly, MRS. ROSA ADAMS, 819 12th St., Louisville, Ky."

Any women who are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, general debility, and nervous prostration, should know there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other medicine for women has received such wide-spread and unqualified indorsement. No other medicine has such a record of female cures.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am very pleased to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for womb and ovarian difficulties from which I have been a sufferer for years. It was the only medicine which was at all beneficial, and within a week after I started to use it, there was a great change in my feelings and looks. I used it for a little over three months, and at the end of that time I suffered no pain at the menstrual period, nor was I troubled with those distressing pains which compelled me to go to bed, and I have not had a headache since. This is nearly a year ago. I always keep a bottle on hand, and take a few doses every week, for I find that it tones up the system and keeps me feeling strong, and I never have that tired out feeling any more. I certainly think that every woman ought to try this grand medicine, for it would prove its worth. Yours very truly, MISS ELSIE DANFORTH, 203 De Soto St., Memphis, Tenn."
