

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Episcopal Church at this place is undergoing repairs.

Died on the 24th inst., near Mountain Shoals, Mrs. C. M. FRANKS.

See advertisement of Assignee's Sale at Waterloo, in this issue.

Mr. R. F. FLEMING's brick house, on Harper Street, is being painted.

We are sorry to learn that Major J. D. McLUCAS is quite sick at Glenn Springs.

Rev. P. B. REID, of Woodruff, preached in the Presbyterian Church here, last Sunday.

Spartanburg has organized a Board of Trade. Mr. GEO. COFIELD was elected President.

Unless some thing happens very soon, we will have to borrow from imagination for locals.

The G., L. & S. is now in full operation, the first through trip having been made on Tuesday last.

We regret that several letters from our "County Correspondents" fail to come in on time this week.

We are indebted to Dr. A. R. STANBORN, of Corns, Tex., for valuable copies of the "Globe Democrat and the Whip."

The hardest thing we have yet undertaken is to send this paper to all subscribers without making a mistake.

Rev. J. Y. FAIR attended the Synod of the Associate Reform Presbyterian Church, which met at Due West on the 24th.

There are 82 students enrolled in the Female College, an increase of 17 since the day of opening. Several others will enter soon.

The new hotel is steadily growing upward. We notice that the brick and mortar is carried to the third floor by means of a mule and pulley.

Miss ROSA FOCHE, one of the teachers in the Female College, was summoned home on Sunday, on account of the serious illness of her sister.

MR. JOHN D. SHEAHAN has placed a mammoth sign over his two stores in Fowler's Block, and gives astonishingly low prices in this issue of the ADVERTISER.

Rev. J. D. BURKHARD, the Evangelist, who has been preaching in this State for some time, has accepted a call from the First Presbyterian Church of Montgomery, Ala.

MR. GLAZENER, the Photographer, would inform the public that he will be absent during the next week. He left on Monday for Pickens, where he is visiting his family.

DRS. McCoy, Todd and Dial performed an operation a few days ago, which is said to be among the most difficult known to the profession. The patient is speedily recovering.

Between thirty and thirty-five tickets to Spartanburg and return over the new Railroad, were sold at this point on Sunday last. The schedule allows only one hour in the city, and consequently several of the boys "got left."

MR. L. G. BALLE has just returned from the Northern markets, where he has bought an elegant stock of fancy groceries, Confectioneries, &c. Having disposed of their entire stock a short time since, all the goods now on hand are fresh, and you may depend upon getting full value for your money at L. G. BALLE & CO'S.

In another column will be found an address to the Lisbon Farmers' Club by Col. A. P. BETLER, which he was prevented from delivering in person by sickness in his family. It contains much interesting matter of a practical nature, in regard to fertilizers, and also an account of the work accomplished by the Department of Agriculture.

We learn that on Friday afternoon Mr. A. V. Eichelberger was going home, carrying a double-barrel shot gun which was very heavily loaded, and wishing to discharge the load, he pointed the gun at a large oak tree and fired. Part of the load struck the side of the tree and glanced in the direction of Mr. G. W. CORNETT'S residence. It broke through a glass window and buried itself in the wall within a few inches of CORNETT'S CORNER. From this narrow escape, we learn another lesson—Be careful where you shoot.

Good Work. The Council are hauling rock preparatory to macadamizing the street leading to the new depot.

New Clerks. Mr. MC. H. FOWLER is clerking for MARTIN & FULLER. MR. CHARLES MYERS is clerking for Messrs. MINTER & JAMISON. MR. W. L. HEMBLE, of Cross Anchor, is clerking for the Cash Co.

Newspaper Improvements. The Spartanburg Herald comes to us this week in a new dress. The type is new and the paper neatly printed. The Honea Path Plaindealer has been greatly enlarged. It comes out now a forty-column paper.

An Augusta Failure. The well-known firm of JOHN. M. & CLARK & SONS, flour manufacturers, of Augusta, Ga., made an assignment on the 24th inst. Liabilities $10,000. Assets unknown, but supposed to be sufficient to cover liabilities.

His First Effort. Mr. C. J. HUNT, who was admitted to the bar at the last term of the Supreme Court, made his first speech in the Circuit Court on Thursday, in defence of JOHN BENSON, who was tried for murder. Though the evidence was against his client, he left no stone unturned and made a splendid impression on all present.

Removals. Mr. E. S. MCKINLEY and family have moved back to town.

Mr. C. J. LOWRY has moved into the Bradford House, near the G., L. & S. Depot.

Mr. W. H. FRANKS has moved into one of the McGowan Houses, on Laurens Street.

Mr. MAY RIDGEE has moved into his recently finished dwelling in "Jersey City."

Death. Mrs. MARY N. FAIR, wife of WILLIAM FAIR, of Newberry, died at the residence of Dr. JOHN A. BARKSDALE, on the 22d inst. Her remains were carried to Newberry on the 23d for interment.

The deceased had been sick for some time at home, but had improved somewhat after visiting this place, but was finally overcome by the fatal disease and passed quietly into eternity on Tuesday morning. Many friends and relatives, as well as a bereaved husband and five children remain to mourn her loss.

Newspaper Men. Col. JAS. A. HOYT, of the Baptist Courier, was in town one day last week.

Mr. W. W. TAYLOR, agent of the News and Courier, visited our town in the interest of that excellent paper, during Court week.

Also, we notice Rev. A. W. MOORE, of the Centenary, who has been canvassing in the County. Mr. MOORE is well known in this part of the State and we are glad to learn that our people appreciate his paper.

Lynching in Laurens. On Friday night about ten o'clock the town bell was tolled, as a signal that something out of the ordinary course of events had transpired. Everyone anxiously awaited the light of day to disclose the nefarious work. On Saturday morning the facts were brought to light when six babies, (wooden doll-babies) were seen suspended by the neck from the top of the scaffold around the new hotel. These babies are the property of L. A. CHAFFIN, and have been exhibited on our streets for several days. For ten cents you are allowed to throw three times at the babies and if you hit, you get the worth of your money in cigars. No clue to the perpetrators. Boys will be boys, you know.

Two Papers for the Price of One. The ADVERTISER has received on all sides the hearty support of the people. Two months of its existence have passed and we can now show a subscription list equal to the average county papers of this State. Its stock has increased one hundred per cent. No pains will be spared in order to make it a good County Paper, with all the leading news of the day in a condensed form. At the low price of one dollar, no family can afford to be without it.

Persons who desire to subscribe to the Augusta Chronicle, a twelve-page weekly, as good as any in the land, can do so at low figures. We will send the ADVERTISER and the Chronicle one year for $2.00. Each of these papers is worth the money we ask for the two.

The Laurens Bank. There is now no doubt as to there being a bank at this place. It is a certainty. At the next meeting of the Legislature application will be made for a charter, and in January next, Mr. M. S. BAILEY will begin operations. The capital stock will be $75,000. It is needless to add anything as to the benefits the County will derive from such an enterprise. With our growing town, numerous railroads, excellent cotton market, and flattering prospects generally, a bank at Laurens seems to be an absolute necessity. Under the management of Mr. BAILEY, we are safe in predicting, not only that it will prove to be a paying institution, but it will do more for the town and county than any enterprise that could be mentioned.

Court. During this Term of the Court of Sessions the following cases were disposed of: The State vs. WM. COLLINS, charged with arson, which resulted at the last Term in a mistrial, was acquitted. ALF DEAN, charged with killing MACK BYRD, was acquitted. The cases against MAX ZAREK and JOHN D. SHEAHAN, charged with retailing liquor without license, were continued. JOHN BENSON, charged with the murder of ROBERT BYRD, both colored, was convicted of murder but recommended to the mercy of the Court.

On Friday morning Judge WITHERSPOON passed the sentence of death upon him, and unless the Governor interferes he will be "hanged by the neck" on the 20th day of November next. The Juries were allowed to go home on Thursday evening but returned on Monday, when the Jury cases on the civil sides of the Court were commenced. Personal. MR. J. R. MINTER, of Sealeville, Union County, was in town last week. Miss HORTENSE WOLFF has returned from a visit to Honea Path and Easley. N. S. HARRIS, Jr., returned to the Citadel Academy in Charleston yesterday. Miss ANNE SIMPSON, who has been spending the summer at Glenn Springs, returned home on Saturday. MR. JOHN M. CLARK and wife, of Augusta, were registered at the McAnt's Hotel on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. SIMPSON, of Woodruff, visited relatives and friends in town last week. Miss CORRIE WHITESIDES, of Union, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. SPARKS, has returned home. Messrs. J. F. J. CALDWELL and JNO. B. JONES, of Newberry, and J. C. HASKELL, of Columbia, Mr. W. C. BENEY, of Abbeville, Col. JOHN CRANINGHAM, of Charleston, and Mr. S. J. STANBORN, of Spartanburg, are visiting members of the Bar in attendance upon Court.

Correspondence. POWER P. O. BROKENBROOK. H. J. G. CURRY is busily engaged making sorghum molasses. September gales have commenced in earnest, which is bad on cotton in the field that is open and has not been picked. Mr. J. A. BURDET's child has been very sick with pneumonia, but is now convalescent. Corn generally good—as good as the land and the amount of work it has received can make it. There will be bread, and bread to spare. Mart McColey and Davie Stoddard, Jr., are thinning out the opoponss in a hurry. They caught twenty-seven last week, and still continue hunting.

Cotton picking has commenced in earnest, but is not going to be as great a job as was at one time anticipated by the farmer. Cotton in this section is not any better than it was last year, and in many places, not as good. Hiram Mulhaffey of Lickville, has just returned from a trip to Texas, where he has been to look him out a future home, and is visiting a friend at Power's Shop. He gives a glowing account of Texas and speaks of starting back shortly. Some persons went seeing a few nights ago in the carp pond of W. B. Stoddard, Esq. He does not think they caught any of his large carp, but thinks that they caught some of his Spring spawnings. Rev. A. W. Moore has been traveling through this country canvassing in the interest of his paper, the Centenary. We are sorry to hear that an accident happened to him, which came near being a fatal one. While sitting in his buggy at the gate of James Taylor, a calf came running down the road and his mule became frightened, and turning round in the road turned the buggy over and ran some distance after throwing Mr. Moore out. The buggy was literally demoralized. Mr. Moore was not badly hurt.

SIMPSONS MILL. [These Items were intended for last week, but were unavoidably kept from the Editor.] We had a fine rain of Sunday and Monday, 29th and 21st. Cotton is still opening and picking is progressing rapidly. A short crop will be realized. Capt. J. J. Culbertson will have the gin at McDaniel's Mill ready for ginning by Monday, the 27th. Farmers are housing more rag-woods and hay this year than we have ever known in this section, which is one step towards a change in farming. Rev. J. A. Martin baptized thirty-three converts at Union Church on the 13th instant. The ordinance was administered before one of the largest congregations we ever saw present on such an occasion. We were invited to attend the closing exercises of Prof. J. A. Madden's school, which closed on Wednesday last. We are sorry we could not attend, as we felt sure of spending the time pleasantly, for Mr. Madden knows how to close a school pleasantly, as well as to teach profitably.

WATERLOO. BKRAP. Mr. J. H. Wharton will buy cotton here this Fall. The white rat and medicine man was in town Saturday. Dr. J. W. Kennedy and Mr. Smith here put up extra shelving to make room for new goods. Waterloo merchants complain of high freights, yet they are plucky and go ahead in the world. Trade is increasing every day. Capt. Jas. Hudgens fell from a wagon last Saturday and a bale of cotton fell on him, but fortunately he was not seriously hurt. The protracted meeting at Tip Top has been attended by the young people of Waterloo, who report a good time. We hope so. W. B. Wharton & Co. open in J. T. Harris' new brick store this week. Mr. Wharton will buy cotton, and we predict for them a large trade. More lawlessness in Waterloo, as the citizens have decided that the next time Sheriff Bailey comes to town he is to be arrested and held for trial on his guitar, however.

Delegates to the Presbytery at Cross Hill enlivened our streets in going and coming. We had hoped to hear Sunday's sermon, but it was impossible for us to attend. Waterloo hopes to entertain them before many years. Presentment of the Grand Jury. To the Hon. J. D. Witherspoon, Presiding Judge at the September Term of Court, for Laurens County. The Grand Jury having completed their duties for this Term of Court would submit the following presentment: As far as time would permit they have carefully examined the office of the Auditor, the Clerk, the Judge of Probate, the Sheriff, the School Commissioner, the Treasurer and County Commissioners. They find the books and papers belonging to each of these offices plainly and neatly kept. They find the mode of conducting business in these offices simple and of easy understanding, and all their arrangements and appointments well adapted to the convenience of the public. They find the Clerk's office insufficient for the business accumulating therein, and they recommend that he be enlarged by adding thereto the office formerly occupied by Trial Justice Miller. This can be done by connecting the two rooms by means of a suitable door. They recommend that the added room be supplied with necessary furniture and conveniences. They find the office of the School Commissioner smoked because of a defective stove pipe. They recommend that this receive immediate attention. They find that the County jail is not kept with that neatness necessary to the health and comfort of the prisoners. The rooms need cleaning and the walls need whitewashing. They find that the prisoners are in want of some necessities in the several cells—such as mattresses or matting and blankets. In all other respects, the management of the jail is satisfactory. They recommend that the deficiencies named receive immediate attention. The repairs on the building recommended by the Grand Jury at the last Term of Court have been made. They find the building in good condition with the exception of the flooring in the second story—this they find too open. They recommend that this flooring receive attention and that it be properly closed. By committee they have visited the County Poor House and find the condition of the inmates much improved under the efficient management of the present Board of County Commissioners. They find eight inmates all of whom are well and properly cared for. They have examined the books of Trial Justices Miller, Henderson, Copeland, Ellison and Stoddard, and find them all properly and orderly kept. They regret to inform the Court that the other Trial Justices of the County have not presented their books during the year for examination. As to the Public Roads, the Grand Jury find them generally in better condition than formerly; still, there is some complaint from certain sections of the County. This complaint arises, in the opinion of the Grand Jury, wholly from the inefficiency of certain township supervisors. They find much complaint made of the Railway crossings of the public roads. These crossings are defective, and in some instances troublesome, if not dangerous to vehicles. At the crossings of the streets in the town of Laurens, they are informed that the streets are often blocked with standing trains, and travelers have been compelled to await the pleasure of trains for thirty minutes or more. They recommend that these public troubles receive such attention as the law provides. In conclusion they would express their thanks to your Honor for the kind courtesy and constant aid extended to them in the discharge of their duties. All of which is respectfully submitted. W. A. SHANDS, Foreman.
