The Laurens Railroad is said to be in a better condition than it has been for years. "A new coach also has been added, and it is probable that a mail agent will be placed on this line.

A petition is being circulated asking for a change of schedule on the Laurens Railroad. At present the mail leaves very early and arrives very late, which is a great inconvenience.

We understand that the Building and Loan Association is assuming definite shape. Application for a charter will be made at the next session of the legislature, and it is hoped that those interested will take the matter in hand promptly, so that as soon as practicable, a permanent organiziation can be effected. Such an association will not only be of great benefit to the community, but under proper management, we believe, will be a capital investment to the stock-holders.

Personal.

Mrs. N. J. Holmes has returned from the mountains. Chief Justice SIMPSON and family are visiting in Laurens. Mrs. P. J. Pyles and son, of Spartanburg, visited our town last week. Miss Abbie Holmes is teaching music class in Dial's Township.

Messrs. PAUL and CASPAR SIMPSON paid us a pleasant call last week.

Dr. J. P. SIMPSON and family are left on Saturday for Glenn Springs, where they will spend a few days.

Miss Sallie Jones left on Saturday last week for Edgefield County, where she will spend several months.

The Entertainment given at the Female College, on Friday evening, was in every respect a decided success. At an early hour the patrons and friends of College began to assemble, and in a short while almost every available seat in the chapel was occupied. The programme for the evening consisted of recitations and music by the young ladies of the college and various members of the faculty. The young ladies displayed thorough preparation and training in elecution, while the music was simply grand. Mrs. MILNER and Miss King, who have charge of the department of music, are not only thoroughly competent teachers but, they are also excellent performers. We can only say that it has been a long time since the people of Laurens have spent a more pleasant evening, and we trust that Frof. Malker may not let this be the last entertainment of the kind. Under its present management our college has grown to be a power and isaccomplishing a work that will be of many lasting beneat to the community.

JOSEPH T. JOHNSON, one of the most promising young lawyers of the Lau-Bar, left this morning for Edgefied, on professional business. He will be in Abbeville next week attending Court, and to assist in the defence of W. L. Wood, Jr., charged with the killing of CHARLES CARTER.

An Unfortunate Affair.

We learn that a few days ago several men committed an outrage upon a negro near Goldville, in this county by cutting off his ear, and since then have attempted to kill him. We are not informed as to the cause of such conduct, but surely nothing could justify this cruel and barberous treatment. The negro left on Tuesday last for Spartanburg to consult the Solicitor who will probably cause a thorough investigation to be made.

Bill Arp to Lecture in Laurens.

One of the most interesting features of our County Fair, which comes off on the 28th and 29th inst., will be a lecture by Mr. CHARLES H. SMITH, the celebrated "Bill Arp." To the people of this county not a word is necessary to insure a full attendance. We all know the celebrated humorist and gladly embrace the first opportunity of listening to the excellent address which he is sure to make. He has not yet fixed the exact day of his visit but it will be either on the 28th or 20th. We will give the particulars more definitely in our next

The Narrow Gauge Boom.

On Friday last a meeting of the incorporators of the proposed narrow gauge railroad was held at Ninety-Six. The route was located from Fruit Hill, Edgefield county, to Ninety-Six, Cokesbury, and to cross the river at Warrior's shoals, running through Sullivan, Dunklin, Oaklawn townships, by Kirk's Survey of 1882. Subscriptions to the amount of about fifty thousand dollars were reported, fifteen thousand of which was subscribed by Piedmont and Pelzer factories conditioned upon the road touching at these towns and establishing depots. The stockholders will meet at Ninety-Six on the 13th inst., to elect a president and directors.

The Golden Opportunity.

For the past few years the great drawback to the improvement of our town has been the difficulty in procuring town lots. This week we advertise several valuable lots in town, which will be sold on sale-day in November. All who have money to invest will do well to give their attention to this matter. Town lots are as cheap now as they ever will be in Laurens, and nothing can pay better than to buy and improve them. It is true we have a boom, but it is not of an ephemeral nature, but the result of natural advantages and increased railroad facilities, which makes it permanent. The great improvement made in our town in the past few years has been forced upon us; but such an awakening has been made that we see the possibilities of the future, and those far-seeing business men who are ever on the alert, graspingfor new territory, and those who come first will reap the greatest harvest. All who desire to move into a wide awake town; who desire good schools; or to find a pleasant place to live, should purchase lots in Laurens immediately and improve them. Five years from today you will regret it if you do not, and you may wonder how you failed to see the finger of destiny as it pointed to Laurens, the magnificent city, which a few more years will develop.

Fifty-two bales of cotton in town Sauurday

The bridge over Cane Creek is finished. Now to have it received. A. C. Anderson left for the South Carolina College on Monday. The railroad authorities have authorized the building of a platform. Several car-loads of lumber arrived ast week to improve our town. Pat Anderson, colored, picked 358 pounds of cotton one day last week. Who can beat it?

Reduced rates on cotton and on traffic generally, places our little town on an equal feeting with other railroad towns.

Farmers complain of the rough road from Woodruff to Spartanburg. To show how much our Railroad Commission know when a railroad is ready to be received and operated, is shown by an engineer of one train getting off his engine here and going to the engineer of the commissioners' train and saying to him, "be careful when you pass this or that place on the road, or you will ditch your train," and yet the Commissioners report the road safe and in good order. The A. & K. and G., L. S. Road is admitted to be one of the best built roads in the State, but twice in its existence it has been nasafe to travel, and yet pronounced safe by the Railroad Marriage notices will be in order from Clinton very soon. Madam Rumor says some half dozen or more, and half of these "Old Baches."

About one thousand bales of cotton have been sold here within the last forty days. The price for the past week has been nine cents per pound.

Wash, one of Mr. Griffin Pitts' twin sons, aged about seven years, was very seriously hert by falling from a wagon loaded with seed-cotton, and the wheel striking the little follows head as he lay on the ground. A severe scalp wound was inflicted necessitating the use of in bringing the wounded paris together. He is now doing well.

farmers. Mr. W. B. Fuller and Mr. John Henderson left for the "Land of Flowers" on Monday, the 5th inst. We wish them

We learn that twenty-five families will leave High Point for the West, on the 25th of November. They are said to be all whites. Mr. John Y. Boyd, who went to Texas last Spring, made a crop there and returned in August to this section, has returned to Texas, leaving on the 7th inst.

It is rumored that Dr. John R. Culbertson is going to locate at High Point for 1886. We hope such is not the case, for we do not see how we can do without him in this section.

We regret to announce the death of a little son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Martin, who died of diptheria, on the morning of the 4th. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to the bere to parents.

ENORBE, S. C., Oct. 1st, 1885.

MR. EDITOR:-Allow me a short space

Mr. Editor:—Allow me a short space in your much valued paper. I value it for its independence, and that it dares to speak out on issues before the country, before consulting the popullar mind, and advocates matters of progress boldly and fearlessly.

My purpose is to urge upon our people the importance of drainage. There is no question in which the prosperity of South Carolina is so much concerned as the drainage of our low and wet lands; not only as a source of wealth, but as a hygienic measure. In our State are thousands of acres of river and creek lands lying waste and uncultivated, of the greatest fertility, as rich as Mississippi bottoms, which are now valueless so far as productiveness is concerned and are also hot-beds of malaria. This should not be so. It can and should be drained. The convict labor increasing so rapidly in our State, could not be more profitably or well employed than in reclaiming said lands, under the Superintendant and penitentiary guards, as they are werked it. North Carolina and ntendant and penitentiary guards, as they are werked it. North Carolina and other States on railroads, most success-other States on railroads, most successfully.

I know there is a sickly sentimentality prevailing in South Carolina, gotten up mostly by the newspapers and penitentiary officials, that they should be worked alone in the penitentiary; that the poor "creatures" should be dealt very gently with, and kept in the penitentiary to enrich a few Yankee contractors, making stockings, shoes, &c., to be scattered over the country, at low prices, to compete with the labor of our honest mechanics. Then again, the opponents of letting them outside for Railroad purposes and drainage, are aspirants, or friends of the officials who enjoy rich, fat offices without much labor. Let these officials and their guards, (many sons of our gentry) go out into our swamps and reclaim them and fit them for the husbandman.

We must come to this rolley. Drain

(many sons of our gentry) go out into our swamps and reclaim them and fit them for the husbandman.

We must come to this policy. Drain, ditch and level our alluvial lands, the expense to be paid by the land-owners, by convict labor under the immediate supervision of the officers and guards of the penitentiary.

The plan I suggest is entirely practicable, feasible, and in every way most desirable for the wealth and health of the country, and well-being also of the poor convicts. That it is so, I point to Worrior Creek, in Laurens County, ditched by convict labor a few years ago. It is now the little Egypt of Laurens County. On plantations which before the drainage did not make cornenough to feed and support the place, this year the yield will be from 3000 to 3500 bushels of corn, and many places in like ratio. This region produced chills and fever in any quantity, and often enough to interfere greatly with gathering the cotton crop; now its health is unparalelled. These are facts I know, coming under my observation as a physician and agriculturist.

I hope our people will arouse from the apathy which has so long possssed them, and look to their true interests. Let no maudlin philanthropy or desire to pamper and enrich a few lucky officials in their places of case and power, stem the spirit of progress and reform, More anon.
