DIALS NEWS.

Dials, Feb. 11.—According to the ground hog, who certainly couldn't find a trace of his shadow during the impenetrable gloom of the 2nd, we have a guarantee of future sleetless days. Not to be out-done the "weather prophets" are working overtime on predictions for an early spring. However, as it may be there can be no doubt that the general wish of everyone is that the weather man has exhausted the supply of weather that has been handed us lately, and from now on may sunny skies and fairer weather be ours.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Harris and children, Jack and Nell, were the guests of Mr. Heskell Gray and family Monday night.

Mrs. Nenie Owings, formerly of this place, but now of Columbia, where she has accepted a position of efficiency and trust in Epworth Orphanage, spent several days last week with Mr. Claude Owings and family.

Mr. John Simmons was a recent visitor in Greenville, where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Owings.

Prof. Charles F. Brooks, of the Carlisle faculty, Danberg, returned to that place Monday, after enjoying a brief visit with his mother, Mrs. I. S. Brooks and other relatives here.

While there has been no excessive sickness in the community, a number are on the sick list. Mr. Arthur Harris is still confined to his room from an illness of a month or more. His friends trust he will soon recover sufficiently to be out and among them again. Liberty mingles have also been prevalent and quite a number of our people have succumbed the enemy. However, there is by no means a widespread epidemic of the disease.

Miss Olivia Curry, was a recent visitor in Gray Court, where she spent several days with Mrs. Geo. Moore.

Mrs. B. A. Sullivan of Laurens and Mrs. Wm. Gray, of Gray Court, having been in attendance at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. I. S. Brooks, who has been suffering from a severe attack of illness, have returned to their respective homes. Mrs. Brooks is now on the road to convalescence to the delight of her many friends.

Miss Clara Campbell had as her week-end guest Miss Willie May Godfrey of Martin cross roads.

Mrs. L. W. Brooks and attractive little daughter, Sarah Delle, spent a day and night in Gray Court last week with Mr. O. P. Ropp and family.

Misses Kate and Ellen Curry, teachers at Fork Shoals and Hillside respectively, spent the week-end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Dunk Curry.

Masters Tillman and Jack Bolt of Hickory Tavern were the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Brown-lee from Friday until Sunday.

Little Miss Louise Curry spent last week with her grandfather, Mr. Austin Willis of Gray Court.

Mr. Conway Gray, while seeing to some necessary repairs to the roof of his home Saturday afternoon, fell the entire length of the building. He was rushed to the city hospital in Laurens as quickly as possible and while his injuries are not serious, according to the physician in attendance, they are considered very painful.

Mrs. Studie Owings and son, I. M., motored to Greenwood last week, where they were the guests of Mrs. Land.

Mrs. Florence Ropp is spending several days in Gray Court with Mrs. O. F. Ropp and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Festus Curry and little daughter, Marvis Clare, were called to Bennettsville last week, owing to the death of Mrs. Curry's brother.

With friend Hoover's wheatless and meatless days before us, now that we are having a season of perfect weather, it behooves one's thought to turn to gardening. The government is on the job seeking to impress us. Seeds (which never come up) have already been mailed, and the department of agriculture has announced a "Home gardening service" to be followed with material dealing on home canning, drying and conservation of garden products and fruits. So it seems as though there is going to be no excuse if one doesn't make a success of that backyard garden.

The Rev. G. H. Harley filled his second appointment of the year at this place Sunday morning, preaching a sermon denoting much thought, to a large and attentive congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray and little son, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Zack Gray.

Dreadful Cough Cured.

A severe cold is often followed by a rough cough for which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven especially valuable. Mrs. F. W. Olsen, Marysville, Mo., writes: "About two years ago my little boy Jean caught a severe cold and coughed dreadfully for days. I tried a number of cough medicines but nothing did him any good until I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children."

MADDEN NEWS.

Madden, Feb. 12.—Does the "oldest inhabitant" ever remember any prettier weather than we are enjoying these last few days? Don't all speak at once!

Mr. A. C. Todd, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomason of Laurens came out to Prospect and organized a Red Cross auxiliary Sunday afternoon. Mr. Todd gave us a splendid patriotic address which was sympathetically received by a good audience. We hope that every man, woman and child in Laurens county will become a member of Red Cross. It is your duty—your reasonable duty—as well as a great privilege to lend a helping hand in this great momentous hour.

The box supper at the school house Friday night was a success. Quite a little sum was realized for the library.

Mr. Lee Langston carried his little daughter, Ellen, to Clinton Hospital where she was operated on for adenoids. We are glad the operation was so successful.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. John R. Finley will be glad to hear she is recovering from a recent illness and is now able to sit up. Her daughter, Mrs. Tessie Martin spent several days with her last week.

Miss Kate Wofford spent the week-end with homefolks.

We are glad the little boy of Mrs. Onena Timmerman continues to improve and she will return to her home in Charleston in a few days.

We were all glad to greet three of our oldest members at Prospect Sunday afternoon: Mrs. Fannie Moore and Uncle Tom Langston and John Finley. Sickness or extremely cold weather is all that ever keeps these faithful ones from their accustomed places.

Mrs. Viola Gentry, after a pleasant visit of two weeks to her sister, Mrs. Lena Brown, returned home Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Martin of Ora, was a recent visitor to our community, and enjoyed the box supper with the younger set.

Miss Mattie Sue Wofford enjoyed the mock wedding recently celebrated in Laurens. To her way of thinking the charming little flower girls—James Sullivan and Allison Lee—were splendid.

Owing to the closing of the graded schools of Columbia, Miss Ruth Brown is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brown. Miss Ruth is one of our girls that has made a success in her chosen avocation.

Judge and Mrs. Thompson had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Einson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Finley. The good dinner was enjoyed by all.

Dr. Fennell, the genial Waterloo doctor, was called last week to see the three little boys of Mr. Chapman, who were sick with colds. We trust the little fellows will soon be well.

Floyd Martin of Camp Sevier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wisa Martin is expected home for the week-end.

A CHILD HATES OIL, CALOMEL, PILES FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Look at tongue! Move poisons from liver and bowels at once.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals California Syrup of Figs for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative", and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages, and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" then look and see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Co.
